A Qualitative Exploration of Participation in Men's Peer Mutual Support Groups Edward Read Barton, 2003 How We Think, but not in School Patrick J. Lewis, 2007-01-01 If story is the basic principle of mind then what are we doing in elementary schools? In this provocative exploration of narrative the author writes from the idea that story is integral to the generation of meaning in human experience. Indeed, story plays a significant role in the formation of identity and the development of greater empathic understanding. The text begins with a discussion of the epistemological and ontological nature of narrative in human understanding and then travels across the narrative landscape of the school setting. Through an examination of the impact of standards and accountability emphasis on curriculum the author suggests current practice may be undermining student learning and engagement. Further, the author places oracy in temporary opposition to literacy challenging us to rethink our assumptions about the role of literacy in learning. Without negating the importance of literacy attention is drawn to what is lost in chasing the assumed inherent goodness of a text-based literacy and how this might hinder the growth of our children. The value of narrative in developing teaching practice and promoting significant learning is brought to the foreground of the discussion which naturally journeys into an exploration of curriculum raising serious questions about developmental approaches to curriculum construction. How we think but not in school will appeal to elementary teachers, early literacy teachers, teacher educators and those interested in narrative. Man Alive Fredric Eldon Rabinowitz, Sam Victor Cochran, 1994 This book provides an introduction to what has become known as men's issues and the problems and conflicts encountered by men in America. It aims to help readers become aware of some of the unspoken rules that govern men's lives and helps them change the aspects of their masculine identity that might be destructive to their own mental, physical and spiritual health. In the Company of Others Claude Whitmyer, 1993 Twelve Los Angeles Poets Jack Grapes, 2002 This poetry book includes work by Ruth Bavetta, Chiwan Choi, Sharon Duncan, Alan Fox, James Gregory, Jean Katz, Wayne Liebman, Candace Moore and others. Poetry The Gender Gap Doug Barden, 2008 Man to Man Earl R.
