THE FAILURE OF THE BALANCE POWER THEORY The French Revolution and the Napoleonic Wars had spread the concept of democracy throughout most of the European continent thus spreading the idea that populations sharing an ethnic origin a language and the same political ideals had the right to form independent states However the principle of national self determination was totally ignored by the dynastic and reactionary forces that decided the fate of European affairs at the Congress of Vienna in 1815 Many of the peoples who wanted their autonomy were subjected to local dynasties or other nations For example the German states integrated into the German Confederation were divided into numerous ducats principalities and kingdoms according to the terms of the Vienna Congress Italy was also divided into several political units some of which were under foreign control the Flemish and French Belgians of the Austrian Netherlands were subordinated to Dutch rule by decision of Congress The revolutions and strong nationalist movements of the 19th century succeeded in annulling much of the reactionary impositions agreed in Vienna Belgium gained independence from the Netherlands in 1830 the unification of Italy was completed in 1861 and that of Germany in 1871 However nationalist conflicts remained unresolved in other areas of Europe at the beginning of the 20th century causing tensions within the regions involved and between various European nations One of the most important nationalist currents Pan Slavism played a fundamental role in the events that preceded the war The nationalist spirit was also evident in the economic field The Industrial Revolution which began in Great Britain at the end of the 18th century in France at the beginning of the 19th century and in Germany from 1870 onwards led to a large increase in manufactured goods forcing these countries to seek new markets abroad The area in which the European policy of economic expansion was mainly developed was Africa where the respective colonial interests frequently came into conflict The economic rivalry over the dominance of African territory between France Germany and Great Britain was on the verge from 1898 to 1914 of provoking a war in Europe on several occasions As a result of international tensions European nations took both domestic and foreign policy measures between 1871 and 1914 that in turn increased the danger of conflict maintained numerous permanent armies which they constantly expanded through peacetime recruitments and built larger ships Great Britain influenced by the development of the German Navy which began in 1900 and by the course of the Russo Japanese War modernized its fleet under the direction of Admiral Sir John Fisher The war between Russia and Japan had demonstrated the effectiveness of long range naval armament Advances in other areas of military technology and organization stimulated the formation of staffs capable of drawing up very precise mobilization and attack plans often integrated into programs that could not be cancelled once initiated Leaders in all countries became aware that rising expenditures on armaments would eventually lead to national bankruptcies or war for this reason attempts were made to promote global disarmament on several occasions notably at the Hague Conferences of 1899 and 1907 However international rivalry had reached such a point that no effective agreement could be reached to decide on international disarmament Catálogo de libros españoles o relativos a España antiguos y modernos puestos en venta a los precios marcados García Rico, firm, booksellers, Madrid, 1916 El Libro español ,1985 Includes a separately paged section Repertorio bibliográfico clasificado por materias which also appears in Libros nuevos Nuevo mundo ,1924 LES PREMIÈRES ANNÉES DU 20e SIÈCLE - 1900-1906 Ruben Ygua, 2025-08-13

LA FIN DE LA POLITIQUE D'ÉQUILIBRE La Révolution française et les guerres napoléoniennes ont répandu le concept de démocratie dans la majeure partie du continent européen répandant ainsi l'idée que les populations partageant une origine ethnique une langue et les mêmes idées aux politiques ont le droit de former des États indépendants Cependant le principe de l'autodétermination nationale a été totalement ignoré par les forces dynastiques et réactionnaires qui ont décidé du sort des affaires européennes au Congrès de Vienne en 1815 Beaucoup de peuples qui voulaient leur autonomie ont été soumis des dynasties locales ou d'autres nations Par exemple les États allemands intégrés la Confédération allemande étaient divisés en de nombreux ducats principautés et royaumes selon les termes du Congrès de Vienne l'Italie était également divisée en plusieurs unités politiques dont certaines étaient sous contrôle étranger les Belges flamands et français des Pays-Bas autrichiens étaient soumis au pouvoir néerlandais par décision du Congrès Les révolutions et les mouvements nationalistes forts du XIXe siècle ont réussi à annuler une grande partie des impositions réactionnaires convenues à Vienne La Belgique a obtenu son indépendance des Pays-Bas en 1830 l'unification de l'Italie a été achevée en 1861 et celle de l'Allemagne en 1871 Cependant des conflits nationalistes sont restés non résolus dans d'autres régions d'Europe au début du XXe siècle provoquant des tensions au sein des régions concernées et entre diverses nations européennes L'un des courants nationalistes les plus importants le panslavisme a joué un rôle fondamental dans les événements qui ont précédé la guerre L'esprit nationaliste était également vif dans le domaine économique La révolution industrielle qui a commencé en Grande-Bretagne la fin du XVIIIe siècle en France au début du XIXe siècle et en Allemagne à partir de 1870 a entraîné une forte augmentation des produits manufacturés obligeant ces pays à rechercher de nouveaux marchés à l'étranger La zone dans laquelle la politique européenne d'expansion économique s'est principalement développée a été l'Afrique où les intérêts coloniaux respectifs sont souvent entrés en conflit La rivalité économique sur la domination du territoire africain entre la France l'Allemagne et la Grande-Bretagne était sur le point de 1898-1914 de provoquer une guerre en Europe plusieurs reprises En raison des tensions internationales les pays européens ont pris entre 1871 et 1914 des mesures de politique intérieure et étrangère qui leur ont accru le danger de conflit maintenu de nombreuses armées permanentes qu'ils ont constamment renforcées par le recrutement en temps de paix et construit de plus gros navires La Grande-Bretagne influencée par le développement de la marine allemande qui a commencé en 1900 et par le cours de la guerre russo-japonaise modernise sa flotte sous la direction de l'amiral Sir John Fisher La guerre entre la Russie et le Japon a démontré l'efficacité de l'armement naval longue portée Les progrès réalisés dans d'autres domaines de la technologie et de l'organisation militaires ont

stimul la formation d tats majors capables d laborer des plans de mobilisation et d attaque tr s pr cis souvent int gr s dans des programmes qui ne pouvaient tre annul s une fois lanc s Les dirigeants de tous les pays ont pris conscience que l augmentation des d penses d armement finirait par conduire des faillites nationales ou des guerres c est pourquoi des tentatives ont t faites plusieurs reprises pour promouvoir le d sarmement mondial notamment lors des conf rrences de La Haye de 1899 et 1907 Toutefois la rivalit internationale a atteint un point tel qu il n est pas possible de parvenir un accord efficace pour d cider du d sarmement international I PRIMI ANNI DEL 20° SECOLO - 1900-1906 Ruben
