Tennyson And Matthew Arnold:

Tennyson and Matthew Arnold Oliver Elton, 1969      Tennyson and Matthew Arnold Oliver Elton, 1924      2 letters from Matthew Arnold, 1 to Alfred, Lord Tennyson and 1 to Hallam Tennyson Matthew Arnold, 1881      Select Poems of Tennyson, Browning and Arnold ALFRED. TENNYSON, Robert Browning, Matthew Arnold, 2025-05-22 This carefully curated anthology Select Poems of Tennyson Browning and Arnold brings together some of the most significant works of three giants of Victorian poetry Alfred Lord Tennyson with his lyrical mastery and exploration of themes like duty and loss is represented alongside Robert Browning celebrated for his dramatic monologues and psychological insights Completing the trio is Matthew Arnold whose poetry grapples with questions of faith and the modern condition Compiled with an introduction by O J Stevenson this collection offers a valuable entry point for students and general readers alike showcasing the diverse voices and enduring appeal of 19th century British verse Experience the richness and complexity of Victorian England through the timeless poems of Tennyson Browning and Arnold This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant      Problems of the Victorian Age as reflected in the poetry of Matthew Arnold, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, and Alfred Tennyson Antje Wulff, 2008-11-19 Examination Thesis from the year 2003 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Comparative Literature grade 1 0 University of Trier language English abstract The Victorian age was a time of change and of a change as far reaching and comprehensive as it had hardly ever been encountered before This change rang in Britain s heyday it led the country straight into modernity and transformed virtually every area of life On the Victorians it had a twofold effect Regarding themselves as the vanguard of progress they celebrated their achievements with an almost evangelical optimism while at the same time the loss of traditional values and beliefs triggered new fears and insecurities as well This thesis tries to approach the ambivalent nature of the age by studying the poetry of Matthew Arnold Elizabeth Barrett Browning and the poet laureate Alfred Lord Tennyson Though naturally not intended as a compendium of all the difficulties of Victorian Britain it traces the predominant predicaments of the age namely socio economic and political issues and the effects of progress on the inner consciousness of the individual human being and analyses the way they are presented by the three poets be it overtly or covertly An interdisciplinary approach is taken where it seems appropriate although generally the poems themselves provide the basis for comment and analysis They are individual but also exemplary reactions to the historical environment from which they emerged and as such they can contribute to a better understanding of both this environment and the interrelation between man and the forces of history in general

Excerpt from Nature Knowledge in Modern Poetry Being Chapters on Tennyson Wordsworth Matthew Arnold and Lowell as Exponents of Nature Study While lovers of Poetry are pleased to see Nature study finding a place in every school they hail the innovation all the more that it is likely to add fresh interest to the study of Poetry in Which accurate Nature references are part of the charm The study of owers of insects and birds will throw a new zest into the study of poets Who are rich in natural history allusions It is because I think such knowledge is doubly charming and humanising When clothed in poetic language and judiciously used for poetic embellishment that I have striven to garner the best material of this kind from four poets Who While they are all devotees of Nature show considerable difference in their presentation of scientific facts About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Tennyson's Rapture Cornelia D. J. Pearsall, 2008-01-29 In the wake of the death of his friend Arthur Henry Hallam the subject of In Memoriam Alfred Tennyson wrote a range of intricately connected poems many of which feature pivotal scenes of rapture or being carried away This book explores Tennyson's representation of rapture as a radical mechanism of transformation theological social political or personal and as a figure for critical processes in his own poetics The poet's fascination with transformation is figured formally in the genre he is credited with inventing the dramatic monologue Tennyson's Rapture investigates the poet's previously unrecognized intimacy with the theological movements in early Victorian Britain that are the acknowledged roots of contemporary Pentacostalism with its belief in the oncoming

Rapture and its formative relation to his poetic innovation Tennyson's work recurs persistently as well to classical instances of rapture of mortals being borne away by immortals Pearsall develops original readings of Tennyson's major classical poems through concentrated attention to his profound intellectual investments in advances in philological scholarship and archeological exploration including pressing Victorian debates over whether Homer's raptured Troy was a verifiable site or the province of the poet's imagination Tennyson's attraction to processes of personal and social change is bound to his significant but generally overlooked Whig ideological commitments which are illuminated by Hallam's political and philosophical writings and a half century of interaction with William Gladstone Pearsall shows the comprehensive engagement of seemingly apolitical monologues with the rise of democracy over the course of Tennyson's long career Offering a new approach to reading all Victorian dramatic monologues this book argues against a critical tradition that sees speakers as unintentionally self revealing and ignorant of the implications of their speech Tennyson's Rapture probes the complex aims of these discursive performances and shows how the ambitions of speakers for vital transformations in themselves and their circumstances are not only articulated in but attained through the medium of their monologues
