Rise and Fall of the Cosmic Race Marilyn Grace Miller, 2009-07-21 Latin America is characterized by a uniquely rich history of cultural and racial mixtures known collectively as mestizaje These mixtures reflect the influences of indigenous peoples from Latin America Europeans and Africans and spawn a fascinating and often volatile blend of cultural practices and products Yet no scholarly study to date has provided an articulate context for fully appreciating and exploring the profound effects of distinct local invocations of syncretism and hybridity Rise and Fall of the Cosmic Race fills this void by charting the history of Latin America's experience of mestizaje through the prisms of literature the visual and performing arts social commentary and music In accessible jargon free prose Marilyn Grace Miller brings to life the varied perspectives of a vast region in a tour that stretches from Mexico and the Caribbean to Brazil Ecuador and Argentina She explores the repercussions of mestizo identity in the United States and reveals the key moments in the story of Latin America's cult of synthesis Rise and Fall of the Cosmic Race examines the inextricable links between aesthetics and politics and unravels the threads of colonialism woven throughout national narratives in which mestizos serve as primary protagonists Illuminating the ways in which regional engagements with mestizaje represent contentious sites of nation building and racial politics Miller uncovers a rich and multivalent self portrait of Latin America's diverse populations

Identities in Flux Niyi Afolabi, 2021-02-01 Drawing on historical and cultural approaches to race relations Identities in Flux examines iconic Afro Brazilian figures and theorizes how they have been appropriated to either support or contest a utopian vision of multiculturalism Zumbi dos Palmares the leader of a runaway slave community in the seventeenth century is shown not as an anti Brazilian rebel but as a symbol of Black consciousness and anti colonial resistance Xica da Silva an eighteenth century mixed race enslaved woman who married her master and has been seen as a licentious mulatta questions gendered stereotypes of so called racial democracy Manuel Querino whose ethnographic studies have been ignored and virtually unknown for much of the twentieth century is put on par with more widely known African American trailblazers such as W E B Du Bois Niyi Afolabi draws out the intermingling influences of Yoruba and Classical Greek mythologies in Brazilian representations of the carnivalesque Black Orpheus while his analysis of City of God focuses on the growing centrality of the ghetto or favela as a theme and producer of culture in the early twenty first century Brazilian urban scene Ultimately Afolabi argues the identities of these figures are not fixed but rather inhabit a fluid terrain of ideological and political struggle challenging the idealistic notion that racial hybridity has eliminated racial discrimination in Brazil

Cinema and Social Change in Latin America Julianne Burton, 2010-06-28 Since the late 1960s films from Latin America have won widening audiences in North America and Europe Until now no single book has offered an introduction to the diverse personalities and practices that make up this important regional film movement In Cinema and Social Change in Latin America Julianne Burton presents twenty interviews with key figures of Latin American cinema covering three decades and ranging from Argentina to Mexico Interviews with pioneers Fernando Birri Nelson Pereira dos Santos and Glauber Rocha renowned feature filmmakers Tom s Guti rrez Alea and Carlos Diegues prize winning documentarists Patricio Guzm n and Helena Solberg Ladd among others endeavor to balance personal achievement against the backdrop of historical political social and economic circumstances that have influenced each director s career Presented also are conversations that cast light on the related activities of acting distribution theory criticism and film based community organizing More than their counterparts in other regions of the world Latin American artists and intellectuals acknowledge the degree to which culture is shaped by history and politics Since the mid 1950s a period of rising nationalism and regional consciousness talented young artists and activists have sought to redefine the uses of the film medium in the Latin American context Questioning the studio and star systems of the Hollywood industrial model these innovators have developed new forms content and processes of production distribution and reception The specific approaches and priorities of the New Latin American Cinema are far from monolithic They vary from realism to expressionism from observational documentary to elaborate fictional constructs from imperfect cinema to a cinema that emulates the high production values of the developed sectors from self reflexive to transparent cinematic styles from highly industrialized modes of production to purely artisanal ones What does not vary is the commitment to film as a vehicle for social transformation and the expression of national and regional cultural autonomy From early alternative cinema efforts in Argentina Brazil and Cuba to a contemporary perspective from within the Mexican commercial industry to the emerging cinema and video production from Central America Cinema and Social Change in Latin America offers the most comprehensive look at Latin American film available today
