The Humanity Of Jesus In The Fourth Gospel:

The Humanity of Jesus in the Fourth Gospel Marianne Meye Thompson, 1988 Jesus' Emotions in the Fourth Gospel Stephen Voorwinde, 2005-10-08 This book seeks to discuss John's references to Jesus' emotions in the light of the current debate regarding Johannine Christology. The Fourth Gospel refers to Jesus' love, joy, and zeal. At times it also portrays him as troubled, deeply moved, and in tears. Do these expressions of emotion underscore Jesus' humanity or his divinity? The study is set against the background of the emotions of God as found in earlier Jewish literature as well as against that of the emotions of Jesus in the Synoptics and the remainder of the New Testament. Voorwinde argues that the covenant provides the most consistent perspective for viewing both the emotions of Yahweh in the Old Testament and the emotions of Jesus in the Gospels. The Johannine Jesus is found to fulfil the hitherto incompatible roles of covenant Lord and covenant sacrifice. Rather than being expressive only of his humanity, Jesus' emotions are also found to underscore his divinity. This is due to the unique genius of this Gospel with its paradoxical presentation of Jesus whose divinity is manifested most eloquently in his weakness, suffering, and death. Only his tears at the grave of Lazarus can be explained as a human emotion, pure and simple. All the other emotions, because of their strong connections to the cross, highlight both Jesus' humanity and divinity, albeit for various reasons and in highly nuanced ways. JSNTS 284 When Love is Not Enough Mary Elsbernd, Reimund Bieringer, 2002 Catholic Press Association Award Winner. The Gospel call to do justice has inspired Christians to practice justice throughout the centuries. Yet popular usage associates justice with the legal system, due process, or with fair treatment in ways that are not helpful to Christian practitioners and ministers of justice. When Love Is Not Enough addresses the practice of justice at the dawn of the new millennium through the lens of eight dilemmas that confront Christians in their daily efforts to do justice. After an initial description and analysis of these eight specific dilemmas that impact the Christian understanding and practice of justice, When Love Is Not Enough draws on the experience of practitioners of justice, the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures, Catholic Social Teachings, and contemporary theories of justice to develop a comprehensive approach to justice based on faith. Chapter one introduces the dilemmas in contemporary justice that reflect a theological, eschatological, sacramental, and ethical worldview. Chapter two traces the theological framework of justice through the experience of ministers and practitioners of justice. Chapter three looks at the theological framework of justice in the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures, while chapter four examines the theological framework of justice in Catholic Social Teachings. Chapter five draws upon contemporary and classical theories of justice, showing justice as a historically evolving practice. Chapter six examines the anthropological, theological, and sacramental contexts for justice as participation in the human community. Chapter seven outlines how justice as participation in the human community is built around seven important points. The final chapter illustrates how justice as participation can sort out some just practices that respond to the eight initial dilemmas. Chapters are: Contemporary Dilemmas of Justice; Justice and its Theological Framework in the Experience of Ministers and

Practitioners of Justice Justice and its Theological Framework in the Hebrew and in the Christian Scriptures Justice and its Theological Framework in Catholic Social Teachings Contemporary Classic Theories of Justice The Contexts of Justice as Participation in the Human Community Justice as Participation in the Human Community and The Practice of Justice as Participation in the Human Community Mary Elsbernd OSF STD is associate professor of pastoral studies in social ethics at Loyola University Chicago She is also the director of the Institute of Pastoral Studies at Loyola University Chicago Fr Reimund Bieringer STD is associate professor of New Testament exegesis and biblical Greek at the Catholic University of Leuven Belgium

The Humanity of Jesus in Matthew Matt Jones, 2021-05-04 Matthew's portrait of Jesus communicates the importance of the human element of Jesus's existence While Mark's Jesus may be the most human Matthew was most interested in the human story of Jesus among the Gospel authors This narrative critical examination of Matthew's portrait prioritizes the human element of Jesus's story He purposely balances the human and transcendent so that he can reinforce the reader's belief in Jesus and hope that Jesus's life can be imitated

A Survey of the Humanity of Jesus in the Fourth Gospel Henry Tucker Singleton, 1954

The Incarnate Word Marianne Meye Thompson, 1993 This is an important contribution to our understanding of the Christology of the Fourth Gospel It addresses an unresolved issue in the interpretation of the gospel and does so creatively and with admirable scholarship The author has a gift for defining the issues isolating the essential questions and approaching them analytically Moreover she writes clearly and argues her case with cogency I recommend this book with enthusiasm to anyone who might want to go to the heart of Johannine thought Robert Kysar A tour de force Marianne Meye Thompson takes on Ernst Kdseemann's oft quoted conclusion that the Fourth Gospel depicts Jesus as God striding on the earth and that its Christology is naively Docetic Her meticulous analysis of the humanity of Jesus in the Fourth Gospel offers fresh and balanced perspectives on the role of the signs and the Gospel's treatment of Jesus' death From now on scholars will be unable to cite Kdseemann without responding to Thompson R Alan Culpepper

David O. Taylor,2017-08-21 A theological framework for the liturgical arts rooted in John Calvin Both detractors and supporters of John Calvin have deemed him an enemy of the physical body a pessimist toward creation and a negative influence on the liturgical arts But says W David O Taylor that only tells half of the story Taylor examines Calvin s trinitarian theology as it intersects his doctrine of the physical creation in order to argue for a positive theological account of the liturgical arts He does so believing that Calvin s theology can serve perhaps surprisingly as a rich resource for understanding the theological purposes of the arts in corporate worship Drawing on Calvin s Institutes biblical commentaries sermons catechisms treatises and worship orders this book represents one of the most thorough investigations available of John Calvin s theology of the physical creation and the promising possibilities it opens up for the formative role of the arts in worship According to John John F. O'Grady,1999 The Gospel of John intrigues fascinates and confuses many It is filled with compelling personalities who move on and off the stage Each contributes to an overview of the meaning of Jesus and his life death and resurrection The community behind this gospel in particular the Beloved Disciple has remained in shadows for centuries New insights into how this community actually expressed their faith opens the gospel to further analysis and deeper appreciation of the life and spirituality of the early church at the end of the first century BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Scriptural Tale in the Fourth Gospel Edward H. Gerber,2016-09-27 A more nuanced view of the Fourth Gospel s media nature suggests a new and promising paradigm for assessing expansive and embedded uses of scripture in this work The majority of studies exploring the Fourth Evangelist s use of scripture to date have approached the Fourth Gospel as the product of a highly gifted writer who carefully interweaves various elements and figures from scripture into the canvas of his completed document The present study attempts to calibrate a literary approach to the Fourth Gospel s use of scripture with an appreciation for oral poetic influences whereby an orally situated composer s use of traditional references and compositional strategy could be of one and the same piece Most importantly pre formed story patterns thick with referential meaning were used in the construction of new works The present study makes the case that the Fourth Evangelist has patterned his story of Jesus after a retelling of the story of Adam Israel in two interrelated ways first in the prologue and then in the body of the Gospel as a whole The Christ is Jesus Pamela E. Kinlaw,2005 The Fourth Gospel and Its Predecessors Robert Tomson Fortna,2007-03-01 This is the groundbreaking sequel to Fortna s

The Gospel of Signs which reconstructed a source underlying the Fourth Gospel narrative Here he not only brings that reconstruction up to date but also provides commentary section by section on both the text of the reconstructed Johannine source and its redaction in canonical John Part One In Part Two Fortna systematically draws together the theological movement from source to present Gospel covering such topics as Christology the value of signs for faith salvation Jesus death eschatology and community and the Jews in relation to geography in the Fourth Gospel This work then provides a comprehensive and unique redaction critical treatment of the whole Johannine narrative The Christology of the Fourth Gospel William R. G. Loader,1992 Christology is at the heart of the theology of the fourth gospel Since Bultmann's impressive synthesis much has been written about its individual themes and motifs its sources and history The present study sets out to identify the basic structure of Johannine christology and to show how it underlies and integrates the various motifs and themes which surface in the transmitted text of the gospel From the perspective gained through this analysis it re examines the major issues of Johannine christology and their significance for understanding the gospel both in its setting and in our own

The Johannine Renaissance in Early Modern English Literature and Theology Paul Cefalu,2017-11-03 The Johannine Renaissance in Early Modern English Literature and Theology argues that the Fourth Gospel and First Epistle of Saint John the Evangelist were so influential during the early modern period in England as to share with Pauline theology pride of place as leading apostolic texts on matters Christological sacramental pneumatological and political The book argues further that in several instances Johannine theology is more central than both Pauline theology and the Synoptic theology of Matthew Mark and Luke particularly with regard to early modern polemicizing on the Trinity distinctions between agape and eros and the ideologies of radical dissent especially the seventeenth century antinomian challenge of free grace to traditional Puritan Pietism In particular early modern religious poetry including works by Robert Southwell George Herbert John Donne Richard Crashaw Thomas Traherne and Anna Trapnel embraces a distinctive form of Johannine devotion that emphasizes the divine rather than human nature of Christ the belief that salvation is achieved more through revelation than objective atonement and expiatory sin a realized eschatology a robust doctrine of assurance and comfort and a stylistic and rhetorical approach to representing these theological features that often emulates John's mode of discipleship misunderstanding and dramatic irony Early modern Johannine devotion assumes that religious lyrics often express a revelatory poetics that aims to clarify typically through the use of dramatic irony some of the deepest mysteries of the Fourth Gospel and First Epistle

Early High Christology Christopher M. Blumhofer,Diane G. Chen,Joel B. Green,2024-10-01 The application of theological and literary approaches to the study of the New Testament in recent years has enabled a seismic shift in our understanding of the identity of Jesus as the New Testament presents him In terms of the Gospel of John these theological and literary explorations have resulted in a richer understanding of what it means to identify Jesus as the Messiah and Son of God the one who bears unique witness to the God of Israel and the one whose life fulfills and embodies numerous symbols that were significant within biblical texts and the traditions of Second Temple Judaism This volume gathers many of today's most significant interpreters of the Bible as they examine John's Gospel and its distinctive theology in relation to the wider canon of Scripture Pastors theologians and biblical scholars will find studies of individual texts as well as broader biblical themes Readers will come to appreciate anew the emphases that make John stand out among the New Testament writings Readers will also develop a richer understanding of the deep theological connections that unite John with the Old Testament's vision of God and other New Testament portrayals of Jesus and his enduring significance Rhetoric at the Boundaries Bruce W. Longenecker, 2005 In Rhetoric at the Boundaries Bruce W Longenecker explores the way in which New Testament authors used an ancient rhetorical device to effect smooth transitions both large and small His study demonstrates how recognition of this rhetorical technique proves decisive for New Testament interpretation Longenecker accomplishes this by examining the evidence for chain link interlocks in a variety of ancient sources including the Hebrew scriptures Jewish and Roman authors of the Graeco Roman world and the Graeco Roman rhetoricians He then applies the results of the survey to fifteen problematic passages of the New Testament In each case Longenecker establishes the presence of chain link interlock and highlights the structural literary and theological significance of the rhetorical device for New Testament interpretation

The Christology of the Fourth Gospel Paul N. Anderson, 1996 John and the Johannine Letters Prof. Colleen M. Conway, 2017-11-15 While the book necessarily includes discussion of key concepts in Johannine scholarship e.g the existence or not of a distinctive Johannine community questions regarding the gospel's sources and redactional layers it also takes into account more recent developments in New Testament studies It includes gender related issues with influence by postcolonial approaches as well as the influence of the Gospel's socio political context in shaping its Christology and theology Chapters focus on the different approaches to the Johannine texts and view the Gospel and letters through the lens of each respective approach Chapters also encourage observation and open with a brief scripture reading assignment followed by guiding questions to help students understand the key questions and themes for each approach The Conceptual Worlds of the Fourth Gospel Charles B. Puskas, C. Michael Robbins, 2021-01-08 Over and under and through John's story of Jesus are unforgettable ideas and concepts profoundly simple and simply profound for the author's own audience and beyond These ideas did not originate in a vacuum They have recurred and been repeated before and after the writing of the Fourth Gospel For this reason we will examine the meaning of its words and themes in the context of its Jewish Greco Roman milieu Much of our intertextual understanding will be derived from alleged parallels that involve comparisons of similar vocabulary and phrases as well as parallel concepts and images from the Old Testament the Dead Sea Scrolls Philo and other relevant writings Such parallels will help to determine the meaning of a word or expression the translation of a particular language determining any direct influences upon the Fourth Gospel parallel traditions or the influence of its ideas as a creative and inspiring work of later antiquity
