Hunger, Appetite and the Politics of the Renaissance Stage Matt Williamson, 2021-06-10 Hunger and appetite permeate Renaissance theatre with servants, soldiers, courtiers and misers all defined with striking regularity through their relation to food. Demonstrating the profound ongoing relevance of Marxist literary theory, Hunger, Appetite and the Politics of the Renaissance Stage highlights the decisive role of these drives in the complex politics of early modern drama. Plenty and excess were thematically inseparable from scarcity and want for contemporary audiences such that hunger and appetite together acquired a unique significance as both subject and medium of political debate. Focusing critical attention on the relationship between cultural texts and the material base of society, Matthew Williamson reveals the close connections between how these drives were represented and the underlying socioeconomic changes of the period. At the same time, he shows how hunger and appetite provided the theatres with a means of conceptualising these changes and interrogating the forces that motivated them.

The Hunger Fix Pamela Peeke, Mariska van Aalst, 2013-09-17 Fight food addiction and overeating with fitness guides, recipes and meal plans from renowned physician Pam Peeke. In The Hunger Fix, Dr Pam Peeke uses the latest neuroscience to explain how unhealthy food and behavioral fixes have gotten us ensnared in a vicious cycle of overeating and addiction. She even shows that dopamine rushes in the body work exactly the same way with food as with cocaine. Luckily, we are all capable of rewiring, and the very same dopamine-driven system can be used to reward us for healthful, exciting and fulfilling activities. The Hunger Fix lays out a science-based three-stage plan to break the addiction to false fixes and replace them with healthier actions. Fitness guides, meal plans and recipes are constructed to bolster the growth of new neurons and stimulate the body's reward system. Gradually, healthy fixes like meditating, going for a run, laughing and learning a new language will replace the junk food, couch time and other bad habits that leave us unhappy and overweight. Packed with practical tips, useful advice and plenty of wit, wisdom and inspiring stories of those who have successfully transformed their bodies, The Hunger Fix is a life-changing program for anyone of any size trapped by food obsession and the urge to overeat.

Singing Away the Hunger Mpho 'M'atsepo Nthunya, 1997-10-22 This gem of a book deserves a wide audience. Appropriate for African and women's studies courses and a must for college and university libraries, Choice. Mpho relates the story of her life with an integrity that makes for utterly compelling reading. The fortitude of this woman, now in her late 60s, is a lesson to us all. The Bookseller, United Kingdom. This is a fascinating autobiography. KLIATT: a powerful autobiography of a Lesotho elder who tells her life as an African woman in South Africa. The focus on black culture and concerns as much as racism allows for an unusual depth of understanding of black concerns and lifestyles in Africa. Reviewer's Bookwatch: An African woman's poignant and beautifully crafted memoir lyrically portrays the brutal poverty and reliance on ritual that shape the lives of her people, the Basotho. A commanding and important work that will captivate readers with its unique voice, narrative power and unforgettable scenes of life in Southern Africa. Kirkus Reviews: a stunning autobiography of a remarkable woman. Nthunya's telling is eloquent.

Although her voice is generally one of dignified emotional distance it is punctuated by her very human humor and pain Publishers Weekly recommended for collections in African folklore Library Journal I am telling my stories in English for many months now and it is a time for me to see my whole life I see that things are always changing I was born in 1930 so I remember many things which were happening in the old days in Lesotho and which happen no more I lived in Benoni Location for more than ten years and I saw the Boer policemen taking black people and beating them like dogs They even took me once and kept me in one of their jails for a while Mpho M atsepo Nthunya A compelling and unique autobiography by an African woman with little formal education less privilege and almost no experience of books or writing Mpho s is a voice almost never heard in literature or history a voice from within the struggle of ordinary African women to negotiate a world which incorporates ancient pastoral ways and the congestion brutality and racist violence of city life It is also the voice of a born storyteller who has a subject worthy of her gifts a story for all the world to hear Accessibility and Effectiveness

come together Meet Jinx who may be the most powerful being in either universe Is she good Bad Whatever she is she may be the only one to hold the key to fixing the two realities and prevent an all out werewolf vampire war The Right to Difference Nicole Coleman, 2021-10-14 The Right to Difference examines novels that depict human rights violations in order to explore causes of intergroup violence within diverse societies using Germany as a test case In these texts the book shows that an exaggeration of difference between minority and majority groups leads to violence Germany has become increasingly diverse over the past decades due to skilled labor migration and refugee movements In light of this diversity this book's approach transcends a divide between migrant and post migrant German literature on the one hand and a national literature on the other hand Addressing competing definitions of national identity as well as the contest between cultural homogeneity and diversity the author redefines the term intercultural literature It becomes not a synonym for authors who do not belong to a national literature such as migrant writers but a way of reading literature with an intercultural lens This book builds a theory of intercultural literature that focuses on the multifaceted nature of identity in which ethnicity represents only one of many characteristics defining individuals To develop intercultural competence one needs to adopt a complex image of individuals that allows for commonalities and differences by complicating the notion of sharp contrasts between groups Revealing the affective allegiances formed around other characteristics gender profession personal motivations relationships and more allows for similarities that grouping into large homogeneous and seemingly exclusive entities conceals Eight novels analyzed in this book remember and reveal human rights violations such as genocide internment and torture violent expulsion the reasons for fleeing a country dangerous flight routes and the difficulty of settling in a new country Some of these novels allow for affective identification with diverse characters and cast the protagonists as individuals with plural perspectives and identities rather than monolithic members of one large national or ethnic group whereas others emphasize the commonalities of all people Ultimately the author makes the case for German Studies to contribute to an antiracist approach to diversity by redefining what it means to be German and establishing difference as a fundamental human right The Hunger, 2009
