The Ickniel Way

Stephen Milesen, Stuart Brookes

The Icknield Way:

The Icknield Way Edward Thomas, 2020-04-09 This title is one of Thomas's essays on travel which portrays the English countryside enriched with interesting historical details Edward Thomas 1878-1917 was a British poet, essayist and novelist Thomas's poems are noted for their attention to the English countryside and a certain colloquial style His career in poetry only came after he had already been a successful writer and literary critic In 1915 he enlisted in the British Army to fight in the First World War and was killed in action during the Battle of Arras in 1917 soon after he arrived in France The short poem In Memoriam exemplifies how his poetry blends the themes of war and the countryside Much has been written of travel far less of the road Writers have treated the road as a passive means to an end and honoured it most when it has been an obstacle they leave the impression that a road is a connection between two points which only exists when the traveller is upon it Edward Thomas The Icknield Way The Icknield Way Path Icknield Way Association, 1989 The Icknield Way Path Sue Prigg, 2012

The Icknield Way Icknield Way Association, 1984 Reading and Mapping Hardy's Roads Scott Rode, 2006-06-23 This book examines Thomas Hardy's representations of the road and the ways the archaeological and historical record of roads inform his work Through an analysis of the uneven and often competing road signs found within three of his major novels The Return of the Native, Tess of the D'Urbervilles and Jude the Obscure and by mapping the road travels of his protagonists this book argues that the road as represented by Hardy provides a palimpsest that critiques the Victorian construction of social and sexual identities Balancing modern exigencies with mythic possibilities Hardy's fictive roads exist as contested spaces that channel desire for middle class assimilation even as they provide the means both to reinforce and to resist conformity to hegemonic authority The Ancient Burial-mounds of England L.V. Grinsell, 2014-10-24

First published in 1936 and rewritten in 1953 this book embodies the results of the author's extensive researches and fieldwork Part one considers types of barrows and dating their building and the cult of the dead from Palaeolithic to Saxon times A chapter is dedicated to maps and another to fieldwork in particular while the final bit of the introductory material discussed barrow digging from the time of the Romans to the twentieth century Part two is the regional surveys from Cornwall to Kent and northwards to the Scottish border The East Anglian Samuel Tymms, Charles Harold Evelyn-White, 1894

The Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Magazine Edward Hungerford Goddard, 1914 Includes proceedings of the annual general meetings of the Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Society The way about Bedfordshire Henry Graves, 1901 Transactions East Hertfordshire Archaeological Society, 1903

Transactions of the Devonshire Association for the Advancement of Science, Literature and Art Devonshire Association for the Advancement of Science, Literature and Art, 1884 The Archaeological Journal, 1857 The Cambridge Review, 1883 Peasant Perceptions of Landscape Stephen Miles, Stuart Brookes, 2021 This volume marks a change in the areas of landscape history and the history of everyday life offering the first sustained analysis of how ordinary medieval and early modern people experienced and perceived their material environment and constructed their identities in relation to the places they lived focussing on the area of Ewelme hundred Edward Thomas: from Adlestrop to Arras Jean Moorcroft Wilson, 2015-05-21 Along with Sassoon and Wilfred Owen Edward Thomas is by any reckoning a major first world war poet A war poet is not one who chooses to commemorate or celebrate a war but one who reacts against having a war thrust upon him His great friend Robert Frost wrote his poetry is so very brave so unconsciously brave Apart from a most illuminating understanding of his poetry Dr Wilson shows how Thomas life alone makes for absorbing reading his early marriage his dependence on laudanum his friendships with Joseph Conrad Edward Garnett Rupert Brooke and Hilaire Belloc among others The novelist Eleanor Farjeon entered into a curious menage a trois with him and his wife He died in France in 1917 on the first day of the Battle of Arras This is the stuff of which myths are made and posterity has been quick to oblige But this has tended to obscure his true worth as a writer as Dr Wilson argues Edward Thomas s poems were not published until some months after his death but they have never since been out of print Described by Ted Hughes as the father of us all Thomas s distinctively modern sensibility is probably the one most in tune with our twenty first century outlook He occupies a crucial place in the development of twentieth century poetry This is the extraordinary life of a poetic genius The Watlington Hoard John Naylor, Eleanor Standley, 2022-06-16 Presenting the complete publication of the objects and coins in the Watlington Hoard the authors discuss its wider implications for our understanding of hoarding in late 9th century southern Britain interactions between the kingdoms of Wessex and Mercia and the movements of the Viking Great Army after the Battle of Edington in 878 The Icknield Way Alan Jenyon, 1993
