The Idealistic And Mystical Spirit In Islam:

The Idealistic and Mystical Spirit in Islam Ameer Ali Syed, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. The spirit of Islam, a history of the evolution and ideals of Islam Maulavi Saiyid Amir 'Ali, 1922 The Moslem World Samuel Marinus Zwemer, 1922 Ismailism and Islam in Modern South Asia Soumen Mukherjee, 2017-02-07 This book explores the evolution of a Shia Ismaili identity in late colonial South Asia. Mystical Dimensions of Islam Annemarie Schimmel, 2011 Thirty-five years after its original publication, Mystical Dimensions of Islam still stands as the most valuable introduction to Sufism, the main form of Islamic mysticism. This edition brings to a new generation of readers Annemarie Schimmel's his Moslem World, 1923 The Islamic Review, 1922 Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland, 1924 Has appendices Waning Crescent Faisal Devji, 2025-08-26 A compelling examination of the rise of Islam as a global historical actor. Until the nineteenth century, Islam was variously understood as a set of beliefs and practices. But after Muslims began to see their faith as an historical actor on the world stage, they needed to narrate Islam's birth anew as well as to imagine its possible death. Faisal Devji argues that this change, sparked by the crisis of Muslim sovereignty in the age of European empire, provided a way of thinking about agency in a global context: an Islam liberated from the authority of kings and clerics had the potential to represent the human race itself as a newly empirical reality. Ordinary Muslims now recognized as the privileged representatives of Islam were freed from traditional forms of Islamic authority. However, their conception of Islam as an impersonal actor in history meant that it could not be defined in either religious or political terms. Its existence as a civilizational and later ideological subject also deprived figures like God and the Prophet of their theological subjectivities while robbing the Muslim community of its political agency. Devji illuminates this history and explores its ramifications for the contemporary Muslim world. The Ideals of Asceticism Oscar Hardman, 1924 Modernity and the Ideals of Arab-Islamic and Western-Scientific Philosophy A. Z. Obiedat, 2022-07-08 This is the first study to compare the philosophical systems of secular scientific philosopher Mario Bunge (1919-2020) and Moroccan Islamic philosopher Taha Abd al-Rahman (b. 1945). In their efforts to establish the philosophical underpinnings of an ideal modernity, these two great thinkers speak to the same elements of the human condition despite their opposing secular and religious worldviews. While the differences between Bunge's critical realist epistemology and materialist ontology on the one hand and Taha's spiritualist ontology and revelational mystical epistemology on the other are fundamental, there is remarkable common ground between their scientific and Islamic versions of humanism. Both call for an ethics of prosperity combined with social justice and both criticize postmodernism and religious conservatism. The aspiration of this book is to serve as a model for future dialogue between holders of Western and Islamic worldviews in mutual pursuit of modernity's best case scenario Annotated Bibliography on Value Education in India ,2002 Democracy,

Corruption and the Politics of Spirits in Contemporary Indonesia Nils Bubandt,2014-06-05 Indonesia has been an electoral democracy for more than a decade and yet the political landscape of the world's third largest democracy is as complex and enigmatic as ever The country has achieved a successful transition to democracy and yet Indonesian democracy continues to be flawed illiberal and predatory This book suggests that this and other paradoxes of democracy in Indonesia often assume occult forms in the Indonesian political imagination and that the spirit like character of democracy and corruption traverses into the national media and the political elite Through a series of biographical accounts of political entrepreneurs all of whom employ spirits in various but always highly contested ways the book seeks to provide a portrait of Indonesia's contradictory democracy contending that the contradictions that haunt democracy in Indonesia also infect democracy globally Exploring the intimate ways in which the world of politics and the world of spirits are entangled it argues that Indonesia's seemingly peculiar problems with democracy and spirits in fact reflect a set of contradictions within democracy itself Engaging with recent attempts to look at contemporary politics through the lens of the occult Democracy Corruption and the Politics of Spirits in Contemporary Indonesia will be of interest to academics in the fields of Asian Studies Anthropology and Political Science and relevant for the study of Indonesian politics and for debates about democracy in Asia and beyond The Spirit of Islām Syed Ameer Ali,1923 The Spectator ,1901 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Empowering Climate-Change Strategies with Bernard Lonergan's Method John Raymaker,2014-12-26 This book addresses the climate change crisis through scientific historical and spiritual lenses Using Bernard Lonergan's functional specialization method developed to facilitate collaboration among specialists Raymaker and Durrani not only analyze data and rebut the claims of climate change deniers but also look for inspiration to motivate and coordinate needed action by persons groups and nations The book is wide ranging in its historical examination of leaders who have shown us ways to work together constructively in finding solutions to problems Lonergan's method helps us study the past with a view to change the future To do so we must first reform ourselves Missions Howard Benjamin Grose,1924

God, Man, and Mortality Hasan Horkuc,2015-04-07 God Man Mortality is a collection of essays written both by seasoned and by up and coming scholars working the field known as Nursi studies The aim of these essays is to hold a mirror up to Nursi's teachings on a number of issues just as Nursi held a mirror up to the teachings of the Qur'an The scope is broad covering subjects such as Divine immanence and transcendence human spirituality and man's role as Divine vicegerent Divine determining and free will and human conscience as evidence of the existence of God The topics presented by the authors are unashamedly theocentric in nature discussions on politics and legal theory are conspicuous by their absence We benefit from the depth of awareness that the contributors clearly have of Nursi's teachings and his place in the Muslim academe as well as from their lucid expository styles and strong authorial voices

Secularism and Religion-Making

Markus Dressler, Arvind Mandair, 2011-10-03 This book conceives of religion making broadly as the multiple ways in which social and cultural phenomena are configured and reconfigured within the matrix of a world religion discourse that is historically and semantically rooted in particular Western and predominantly Christian experiences, knowledges and institutions. It investigates how religion is universalized and certain ideas, social formations and practices rendered religious are thus integrated in and subordinated to very particular, mostly liberal secular assumptions about the relationship between history, politics and religion. The individual contributions written by a new generation of scholars with decisively interdisciplinary approaches examine the processes of translation and globalization of historically specific concepts and practices of religion and its dialectical counterpart, the secular, into new contexts. This volume contributes to the relatively new field of thought that aspires to unravel the thoroughly intertwined relationships between religion and secularism as modern concepts.

Women and the Divine

G. Howie, 2016-04-30 This collection explores the question of whether it is possible to reconceive the category of transcendence from a feminist perspective. The contributors use the concept of transcendence to approach questions relating to the body, desire and subjectivity while offering a response to secular relativism.
