The Ideology Of Motherhood A Study Of Sydney Suburban Mothers:

The Ideology of Motherhood Betsy Wearing, 1984 Australian Mothering Carla Pascoe Leahy, Petra Bueskens, 2020-01-28 This collection defines the field of maternal studies in Australia for the first time Leading motherhood researchers explore how mothering has evolved across Australian history as well as the joys and challenges of being a mother today The contributors cover pregnancy birth relationships childcare domestic violence time use work welfare policy and psychology from a diverse range of maternal perspectives Utilising a matricentric feminist framework Australian Mothering foregrounds the experiences emotions and perspectives of mothers to better understand how Australian motherhood has developed historically and contemporaneously Drawing upon their combined sociological and historical expertise Bueskens and Pascoe Leahy have carefully curated a collection that presents compelling research on past and present perspectives on maternity in Australia which will be relevant to researchers advocates and policy makers interested in the changing role of mothers in Australian society Mothers, Mothering and Motherhood Across Cultural Differences - A Reader Andrea O'Reilly, 2014-05-01 Mothers Mothering and Motherhood across Cultural Differences the first ever Reader on the subject matter examines the meaning and practice of mothering motherhood from a multitude of maternal perspectives The Reader includes 22 chapters on the following maternal identities Aboriginal Adoptive At Home Birth Black Disabled East Asian Feminist Immigrant Refugee Latina Chicana Poor Low Income Migrant Non Residential Older Queer Rural Single South Asian Stepmothers Working Young Mothers and Mothers of Adult Children Each chapter provides background and context examines the challenges and possibilities of mothering motherhood for each group of mothers and considers directions for future research The first anthology to provide a comprehensive examination of mothers mothering motherhood across diverse cultural locations and subject positions the book is essential reading for maternal scholars and activists and serves as an ideal course text for a wide range of courses in Motherhood Studies Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, Marie Porter, Patricia Short, 2005-08-25 In feminism the institution of mothering motherhood has been a highly contested area in how it relates to the oppression of women As Adrienne Rich articulated in her classic 1976 book Of Woman Born Motherhood as Experience and Institution although motherhood as an institution is a male defined site of oppression women's own experiences of mothering can nonetheless be a source of power This volume examines four locations wherein motherhood is simultaneously experienced as a site of oppression and of power embodiment representation practice and separation Motherhood Power and Oppression includes psychological historical sociological literary and cultural approaches to inquiry and a wide range of disciplinary perspectives qualitative quantitative corporeal legal religious fictional mythological dramatic and action research This rich collection not only covers a wide range of subject matter but also illustrates ways of doing feminist research and practice From Motherhood to Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2012-02-01 In the years since the publication of Adrienne Rich's Of Woman Born the topic of motherhood has emerged as a central issue in feminist scholarship Arguably still the best feminist book on mothering and motherhood Of Woman Born is not only a wide ranging far reaching meditation on the meaning and experience of motherhood that draws from the disciplines of anthropology feminist theory psychology and literature but it also narrates Rich's personal reflections on her experiences of mothering Andrea O'Reilly gathers feminist scholars from diverse disciplines such as literature women's studies law sociology anthropology creative writing and critical theory and examines how Of Woman Born has informed and influenced the way feminist scholarship thinks and talks about motherhood The contributors explore the many ways in which Rich provides the analytical tools to study and report upon the meaning and experience of motherhood

Mother-Texts Julie Kelso, Marie Porter, 2010-07-12 Every day human beings tell and are told stories sometimes in obvious ways sometimes not Most of our communication with each other direct or indirect involves narrative production and reception Narrative is constitutive of human being However whose narratives are heard Feminists argue that the relations between language knowledge gender and power particularly the question as to whether man made and controlled language is a material fit to receive and convey woman's stories are critical issues because historically patriarchy has worked to silence women's dialogue Male knowledge unsurprisingly created and continues to create unrepresentative maternal narratives which lead to unreal expectations of mothers and motherwork It is therefore disconcertingly significant for mothers that neither mothers nor their motherwork have been considered worthy of historical record nor are historical records usually written from a mother's perspective Hence the narrative research in this book which gives recognition to motherhood mothers and or the work they do is valuable It adds to the rapidly accumulating maternal research research that is now available for the historical record Mothers are speaking up developing a canon of literature research narrated in maternal language and claiming maternal knowledge and power

Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy

Stay-At-Home Mothers: Dialogues and Debates Reid Elizabeth Boyd, 2014-07-01 This collection addresses an important sphere of debate about which everyone has an opinion and many have experience but rarely has it been the topic of thoughtful reflection and research The conundrum of maternity in the present globalizing post industrial neo liberal world offers difficult dilemmas and often contradictory flows of emotion ethics and economics which impact us all This volume goes some way to begin seriously addressing these quandaries appealing to a range of subject positions and maternities

The Prison Experience Merry Morash, Pamela J. Schram, 2002-12-02 Confined to an institution and further burdened by patriarchal assumptions and stereotypes incarcerated women struggle to retain a sense of self worth for themselves and often for their children Scholarship on the subject typically has either ignored or trivialized the role of gender as an organizing feature of society The result is a lack of emphasis on the role played by gender in the lives of women in a correctional setting In this theoretically informed and empirically grounded textbook Morash and Schram explain the realities of prison life for women from a feminist perspective The hope for reform begins with an informed public so that a system premised on deterrence and punishment can also offer opportunities for rehabilitation An Intimate History of Humanity Theodore Zeldin, 2012-12-31 The book that changed my life a constant companion Bill Bailey Extraordinary and beautiful the most exciting and ambitious work of non fiction I have read in more than a decade The Daily Telegraph This extraordinarily wide ranging study looks at the dilemmas of life today and shows how they need not have arisen Portraits of living people and historical figures are placed alongside each other as Zeldin discusses how men and women have lost and regained hope how they have learnt to have interesting conversations how some have acquired an immunity to loneliness how new forms of love and desire have been invented how respect has become more valued than power how the art of escaping from one's troubles has developed why even the privileged are often gloomy and why parents and children are changing their minds about what they want from each other Murder, Medicine and Motherhood Emma Cunliffe, 2011-05-27 Since the early 1990s unexplained infant death has been reformulated as a criminal justice problem within many western societies This shift has produced wrongful convictions in more than one jurisdiction This book uses a detailed case study of the murder trial and appeals of Kathleen Folbigg to examine the pragmatics of proof beyond a reasonable doubt It explores how legal process medical knowledge and expectations of motherhood work together when a mother is charged with killing infants who have died in mysterious circumstances The author argues that Folbigg who remains in prison was wrongly convicted The book also employs Folbigg's trial and appeals to consider what lessons courts have learned from prior wrongful convictions such as those of Sally Clark and Angela Cannings The author's research demonstrates that the Folbigg court was misled about the state of medical knowledge regarding infant death and that the case proceeded on the incorrect assumption that behavioural and scientific evidence provided independent proofs of guilt Individual chapters critically assess the relationships between medical research and expert testimony the operation of unexamined cultural assumptions about good mothering and the manner in which contested cases are reported by the press as overwhelming Becoming a mother Carla Pascoe Leahy, 2023-04-04 Becoming a mother charts the diverse and complex history of Australian mothering for the first time exposing the ways it has been both connected to and distinct from parallel developments in other industrialised societies In many respects the historical context in which Australian women come to motherhood has changed dramatically since 1945 And yet examination of the memories of multiple maternal generations reveals surprising continuities in the emotions and experiences of first time motherhood Drawing upon interdisciplinary insights from anthropology history psychology and sociology Carla Pascoe Leahy unpacks this multifaceted rite of passage through more than 60 oral history interviews demonstrating how maternal memories continue to influence motherhood today Despite radical shifts in understandings of gender care and subjectivity becoming a mother remains one of the most personally and culturally significant moments in a woman's life Families in the U.S. Karen V. Hansen, Anita Iltis Garey, 1998 Attempts to do justice to the complexity of contemporary families and to situate them in their economic political and cultural contexts This book explores the ways in which family life is gendered and reflects on the work of maintaining family and kin relationships especially as social and family power structures change over time The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister, Steve Dowrick, Riaz Hassan, 2003-08-07 First published in 2003 The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences economics political science and sociology Each section examines the significant research in the field placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined taught and researched Women and Depression Michelle N. Lafrance, 2009-01-13 This book critically examines the ways in which women negotiate and resist hegemonic discourses of femininity in their struggle to recover from depression and be well

Feminism and the Making of a Child Rights Revolution Isobelle Barrett Meyering, 2022-02-01 When Australian women's liberationists challenged prevailing expectations of female domesticity they were accused of being anti mother and anti child Feminism and the Making of a Child Rights Revolution provides a much needed reassessment of this stereotype Drawing on extensive archival research and personal accounts it places feminists at the forefront of a new wave of children's rights activism that went beyond calls for basic protections for children instead demanding their liberation Historian Isobelle Barrett Meyering revisits this revolutionary approach and charts the debates it sparked within the women's movement Her examination of feminists ground breaking campaigns on major social issues of the 1970s from childcare to sex education to family violence also reveals women's concerted efforts to apply this ideal in their personal lives and to support children's own activism Feminism and the Making of a Child Rights Revolution sheds light on the movement's expansive vision for social change and its lasting impact on the way we view the rights of women and children Welfare States and Working Mothers Arnlaug Leira, 1992-10-22 This work focuses on the social constructions of motherhood in Scandinavia and discusses questions of central concern to western industrialized nations asking what is the relationship between women and the welfare state and how do women reconcile work and family responsibilities Women and Migration in the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands Denise A. Segura, Patricia Zavella, 2007 Seminal essays on how women adapt to the structural transformations caused by the large migration from Mexico to the U S A how they create or contest representations of their identities in light of their marginality and give voice to their own agency From Superwomen to Domestic Goddesses

Natasha Campo, 2009 This book examines the rise and fall of feminism in the public imagination in the last twenty years and explains why feminism failed me has become the catch cry of a generation Today many women turn their back on feminism because they feel betrayed by the promises of feminism Yet during the 1980s the popular ideal of the Superwoman offered a source of empowerment and pride for women and equality with men even having it all seemed possible Through a close reading of popular culture sources this book shows how women s engagement with feminism has shifted over time and considers its future as a social movement

Mothering Evelyn Nakano Glenn, Grace Chang, Linda Rennie Forcey, 2016-04-29 This volume presents a variety of unique perspectives on mothering as a socially constructed relationship assessing many of the political legal and cultural debates surrounding the issue
