Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us

The Trinity and Creation in Augustine Scott A. Dunham, 2008-08-07 The first English language book on Augustine's Trinitarian doctrine of creation The Trinity and Creation in Augustine explores Augustine's relevance for contemporary environmental issues Modern environmentally conscious thinkers often see Augustine's doctrines in a negative light feeling they have been used to justify humankind's domination of nature Considering Augustine's thought in his own time and in ours Scott A Dunham offers a more nuanced view He begins with a consideration of the major themes that have characterized ecologically sensitive theologies and Augustine's place in those discussions The primary examination considers how Augustine's doctrine of the Trinity informed his interpretation of the opening chapters of Genesis especially his conceptions of divine creation providence and dominion This analysis of Augustine's Trinitarian interpretation of Genesis stands in contrast to recent characterizations of classical conceptions of creation The book concludes with a discussion of Augustine's relevance for modern theological thought by appraising Augustine's Trinitarian doctrine of creation in relation to ecological themes in theological ethics
