The Incident at Naha Malcolm Joseph Bosse, 1972 Poisoning the Pacific Jon Mitchell, 2020-10-12 In this devastating expos investigative journalist Jon Mitchell reveals the shocking toxic contamination of the Pacific Ocean and millions of victims by the US military For decades US military operations have been contaminating the Pacific region with toxic substances including plutonium dioxin and VX nerve agent Hundreds of thousands of service members their families and residents have been exposed but the United States has hidden the damage and refused to help victims After World War II the United States granted immunity to Japanese military scientists in exchange for their data on biological weapons tests conducted in China in the following years nuclear detonations in the Pacific obliterated entire islands and exposed Americans Marshallese Chamorros and Japanese fishing crews to radioactive fallout At the same time the United States experimented with biological weapons on Okinawa and stockpiled the island with nuclear and chemical munitions causing numerous accidents Meanwhile the CIA orchestrated a campaign to introduce nuclear power to Japan the folly of which became horrifyingly clear in the 2011 meltdowns in Fukushima Prefecture Caught in a geopolitical grey zone US territories have been among the worst affected by military contamination including Guam Saipan and Johnston Island the final disposal site of apocalyptic volumes of chemical weapons and Agent Orange Accompanying this damage US authorities have waged a campaign of cover ups lies and attacks on the media which the author has experienced firsthand in the form of military surveillance and attempts by the State Department to impede his work Now for the first time this explosive book reveals the horrific extent of contamination in the Pacific and the lengths the Pentagon will go to conceal it Memories of the Japanese Empire Yuko Mio, 2021-07-08 The contributors to this book examine and compare the colonial and decolonisation experiences of people in Taiwan and Nan y Gunt Micronesia who underwent periods of rule by the Greater Japanese Empire Early anthropological theory of Western imperialist countries focused on transforming savage cultures by ruling in a high handed manner When Japan asserted its hegemony through sudden colonisation its culture was perceived as inferior to the civilisation indices previously experienced by those it ruled How did these ruled nations construct their cultural and historical awareness in areas where the strategic design of Japan s civilising mission was not convincing After the end of World War II many emerging countries in the Third World achieved independence through various negotiations or struggles with their former colonial powers and built new relationships with their erstwhile rulers However after Japan s defeat Taiwan and Nan y Gunt became ruled by new foreign governments How did Japan s reign and transplanted Japanese culture affect the formation of historical awareness and cultural construction of present day communities in these two regions This book provides a fascinating ethnographic insight into the effects of empire and colonisation on the historic imagination which will be of great interest to historical anthropologists of Taiwan Japan and the Pacific Okinawa: The History of an Island People George H.
