business and his community Needing God s help to transform his will and to interpret the world in a constructive rational manner the underlying intent of his daily journal writing was to keep his commitment to an ethic of benevolence and of the affirmation of the goodness of human beings Wood elucidates the cultivation of civic minded masculinity in the context of Victorian Maritime Canada analyzing the multiple facets of the character ideal and emphasizing its important role in Victorians understanding of their life experiences In the process Wood reveals many underlying assumptions about social change and about civic discourse The book also describes how the tremendous economic upheavals experienced by many entrepreneurs in the late 1860s to 1880s tempered their evangelical zeal and made it increasingly difficult for them to achieve a balanced and humane perspective on their own lives Evangelical Balance Sheet will appeal to a broad audience interested in social history imperial studies gender studies especially changing ideas of masculinity and manhood Atlantic Canada studies and local history of the Pictou region     Christian Work ,1896     Outcome of Summit of the Americas and Prospects for Free Trade in the Hemisphere United States.
