Between Daily Routine and Violent Protest Ernst Wolff, 2021-06-21 Most human action has a technical dimension This book examines four components of this technical dimension First in all actions various individual organizational or institutional agents combine actional capabilities with tools institutions infrastructure and other elements by means of which they act Second the deployment of capabilities and means is permeated by ethical aspirations and hesitations Third all domains of action are affected by these ethical dilemmas Fourth the dimensions of the technicity of action are typical of human life in general and not just a regional or culturally specific phenomenon In this study an interdisciplinary approach is adopted to encompass the broad anthropological scope of this study and combine this bigger picture with detailed attention to the socio-historical particularities of action as it plays out in different contexts Hermeneutics the philosophical inquiry into the human phenomena of meaning understanding and interpretation and social science as the study of all human affairs are the two main disciplinary orientations of this book This study clarifies the technical dimension of the entire spectrum of human action ranging from daily routine to the extreme of violent protest

The Past is the Present; It's the Future Too Christine Ross, 2012-06-28 The term temporality often refers to the traditional mode of the way time is a linear procession of past present and future As philosophers will note this is not always the case Christine Ross builds on current philosophical and theoretical examinations of time and applies them to the field of contemporary art films video installations sculpture and performance works Ross first provides an interdisciplinary overview of contemporary studies on time focusing on findings in philosophy psychology sociology communications history postcolonial studies and ecology She then illustrates how contemporary artistic practices play around with what we consider linear time Engaging the work of artists such as Guido van der Werve Melik Ohanian Harun Farocki and Stan Douglas allows investigation through the art as opposed to having art taking an ancillary role The Past is the Present It's the Future Too forces the reader to understand the complexities of the significance of temporal development in new artistic practices

The Rhetoricity of Philosophy Blake D. Scott, 2024-08-02 This book aims to recast the way that philosophers understand rhetoric Rather than follow most philosophers in conceiving rhetoric as a specific way of speaking or writing it shows that rhetoric is better understood as a dimension of all human discourse and action what the author calls rhetoricity This book provides the first philosophical treatment of rhetoricity It is motivated by two ongoing developments The first is the debate between Alain Badiou and Barbara Cassin about philosophy's relation to rhetoric Both Badiou and Cassin are critical of rhetoric albeit for different reasons Second there has been a growing resurgence of interest in rhetoric considering the recent rise in authoritarian politics as well as new forms of propaganda driven by persuasive technologies This book identifies the common target of Badiou's and Cassin's otherwise incompatible critiques rhetoric's conception of audience It offers a fresh take on the new rhetoric project of Chaim Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts-Tyteca putting their work into conversation with the Badiou-Cassin debate The book then turns to the hermeneutic philosophy of Paul Ricoeur in search of an expanded conception of audience It shows that Ricoeur's hermeneutic philosophy allows us to extend Perelman and Olbrechts-Tyteca's psychological notion of audience to texts themselves and to argue that human beings have a rhetorical capacity to reflect on audiences in search of what is potentially persuasive The Rhetoricity of Philosophy will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in contemporary European philosophy rhetoric argumentation studies and social theory

Discourses, Dialogue and Diversity in Biographical Research, 2021-05-31 This book explores how narratives are deeply embodied engaging heart soul as well as mind through varying adult learner perspectives Biographical research is not an isolated individual solipsistic endeavor but shaped by larger ecological interactions in families schools universities communities societies and networks that can create or destroy hope Telling or listening to life stories celebrates complexity messiness and the rich potential of learning lives The narratives in this book highlight the rapid disruption of sustainable ecologies not only natural physical and biological but also psychological economic relational political educational cultural and ethical Yet despite living in a precarious and often frightening liquid world biographical research can both chronicle and illuminate how resources of hope are created in deeper aesthetically satisfying ways Biographical research offers insights and even signposts to understand and transcend the darker side of the human condition alongside its inspirations Discourses, Dialogue and Diversity in Biographical Research aims to generate insight into people's fears and anxieties but also their capacity to keep on keeping on and to challenge forces that would diminish their and all our humanity It provides a sustainable approach to creating sufficient hope in individuals and communities by showing how building meaningful dialogue grounded in social justice can create good enough experiences of togetherness across difference The book illuminates what amounts to an ecology of life learning and human flourishing in a sometimes tortured fractious fragmented and fragile world yet one still offering rich resources of hope Aquatic Environments Bieke Willem, Rebecca Seewald, 2025-07-27 From pre Columbian times till today human interventions in aquatic environments have been shaping the geopolitics of Latin America The contributors to this volume examine the relationship between water and politics in Latin America via readings of fiction and poetry by both renowned and upcoming writers Through close literary analysis they demonstrate how water functions as a medium for narrating submerged histories and for unsettling post colonial assumptions The volume reveals literary strategies that make it possible to share knowledge about other ways of organizing life in aquatic environments Literary Spectacles of Sultanship Gowaart Van Den Bossche, 2023-09-18 The so called Mamluk sultans who ruled Egypt and Syria between the late thirteenth and early sixteenth centuries AD have often been portrayed as lacking in legitimacy due to their background as slave soldiers Sultanic biographies written by chancery officials in the early period of the sultanate have been read as part of an effort of these sultans to legitimise their position on the throne This book reconsiders the main corpus of six such biographies written by the historians Ibn Abd al hir d 1293 and his nephew Sh fi ibn Al d 1330 and argues that these were in fact far more complex texts An understanding of their discourses of legitimisation needs to be embedded within a broader understanding of the multi directional discourses operating across the texts The study proposes to interpret these texts as spectacles in which authors emplotted the reign of a sultan in thoroughly literary and rhetorical fashion making especially extensive use of textual forms prevalent in the chancery In doing so the authors reimagined the format of the biography as a performative vehicle for displaying their literary credentials and helping them negotiate positions in the chancery and the wider courtly orbit «Par deviers Rome m'en revenrai errant» Autori Vari, 2017-08-02T00:00:00+02:00 Il volume raccoglie gli atti del XX me Congr s International de la Soci t Rencesvals pour l tude des pop es romanes Sapienza Universit di Roma 20 24 luglio 2015 e presenta lo stato dell arte e le ricerche in corso sull epica romanza medievale propriamente detta sulla sua posterit nell et moderna e sulla produzione non romanza a essa correlata offrendo un panorama ricco se non completo degli attuali orientamenti scientifici e dei risultati raggiunti Per il congresso di Roma cui hanno preso parte studiosi provenienti dall Europa dal Nord e dal Sud America e dall Africa sono stati proposti i seguenti temi I Rome et l Italie dans les chansons de geste II Ph nom nes de cyclisation grandes et petites gestes III Le XVe si cle proses et renouvellements IV L histoire des recherches sur la mati re de France a questi si aggiungono gli interventi raccolti nella sezione Varia Shaping a Humane World Oliver Kozlarek, Univ. Isabel Fernandes, Cecilia Beecher Martins, Amândio Reis, 2015-06-18 This volume is the outcome of work done in the groundbreaking field of Narrative Medicine by an interdisciplinary research team based at the University of Lisbon Centre for English Studies ULICES and devoted to the international project Narrative and Medicine since 2009 The articles and essays gathered here heterogeneous as they may be such is the natural outcome of research carried out across disciplines are not only of high caliber when read individually but also constitute an inval Ascent into Heaven in Luke-Acts David W. Pao , David K. Bryan , 2016-12-01 In comparison with other aspects of Jesus life and ministry his ascent into heaven has often been overlooked within the history of the church However considering its placement at the end of the Gospel and the beginning of Acts the only narrative depictions of the event in the New Testament the importance of Jesus ascent into heaven is undeniable for Luke s two volume work While select studies have focused on particular aspects of these accounts for Luke s story the importance of the ascension calls for renewed attention to the narratological and theological significance of these accounts within their historical and literary contexts In this volume leading scholars discuss the ascension narratives within the ancient contexts of biblical Second Temple Jewish and Greco Roman literature the literary contours of Luke Acts and questions of historical and theological significance in the wider milieu of New Testament theology and early Christian historiography The volume sets out new positions and directions for the next generations of interpreters regarding one of the most important and unique elements of the Lukan writings Beyond Deconstruction Alberto Martinengo, 2012-08-31 The controversy over Jacques Derrida s legacy is one of the most effective engines driving the contemporary debate far beyond the bounds of philosophy By now the variety of contesting positions is so wide that it calls for a critical assessment to achieve a unified theoretical scheme The dyad of deconstruction and reconstruction to which the title of the volume refers aims at composing a kind of map of this debate The three sections of the book include essays that investigate specific aspects of Derrida s reception from the view of 1 philosophy 2 literary studies and 3 politics and law These contributions study the implications of deconstruction beyond its original scope and intervene by taking stock of its most relevant aporias Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt, 2023-03-21 In Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt argues that late medieval dream poetry was able to use the tools of allegorical fiction to explore a set of complex philosophical questions regarding the nature of human knowledge The focus is on three of the most widely read and influential poems of the later Middle Ages Jean de Meun s Roman de la Rose the Plerinages trilogy of Guillaume de Deguileville and William Langland s vision of Piers Plowman in its various versions All three poets grapple with a collection of shared closely related epistemological problems that emerged in Western Europe during the thirteenth century in the wake of the reception of the complete body of Aristotle s works on logic and the natural sciences This study therefore not only examines the intertextual and literary historical relations linking the work of the three poets but takes their shared interest in cognition and epistemology as a starting point to assess their wider cultural and intellectual significance in the context of broader developments in late medieval philosophy of mind knowledge and language Vernacular literature more broadly played an extremely important role in lending an enlarged cultural resonance to philosophical ideas developed by scholastic thinkers but it is also shown that allegorical narrative could prompt philosophical speculation on its own terms deliberately interrogating the dominance and authority of scholastic discourses and institutions by using first person fictional narrative as a tool for intellectual speculation

is a difficult text to define and to assess justly From its earliest days it was an open text which was adapted into a variety of cultures with meanings that themselves vary and yet seem to carry a strong undercurrent of homogeneity Alexander is the hero who cannot become a god and who encapsulates the desires and strivings of the host cultures The papers assembled in this volume which were originally presented at a conference at the University of Wrocław Poland in October 2015 all face the challenge of defining the Alexander Romance Some focus on quite specific topics while others address more overarching themes They form a cohesive set of approaches to the delicate positioning of the text between history and literature From its earliest elements in Hellenistic Egypt to its latest reworkings in the Byzantine and Islamic Middle East the Alexander Romance shows itself to be a work that steadily engages with such questions as kingship the limits of human and Greek nature and the purpose of history The Romance began as a history but only by becoming literature could it achieve such a deep penetration of east and west
