Ten Lost Years 1929 1939 Memories Of Canadians Who Survived The Depression:

Ten Lost Years, 1929-1939 Barry Broadfoot, 2013-04-23 Hundreds of ordinary Canadians tell their own stories in this book They tell them in their own words and the impact is astonishing As page after page of unforgettable stories rolls by it is easy to see why this book sold 300 000 copies and why a successful stage play that ran for years was based on them The stories and the 52 accompanying photographs tell of an extraordinary time One tells how a greedy Maritime landlord ho tried to raise a widow s rent was tarred and gravelled another how rape by the boss was part of a waitress s job Other stories show Saskatchewan families watching their farms turn into deserts and walking away from them or freight trains black with hoboos clinging to them criss crossing the country in search of work or a man stealing a wreath for his own wife s funeral Throughout this portrait of the era before Canada had a social safety net there are amazing stories of what Time magazine called human tragedy and moral triumph during the hardest of times In the end this is an inspiring uplifting book about bravery one you will not forget Ten Lost Years, 1929-1939 Barry Broadfoot, 1982

Palmer,Gaétan Héroux,2016-11-23 Toronto's Poor reveals the long and too often forgotten history of poor people's resistance It details how people without housing people living in poverty and unemployed people have struggled to survive and secure food and shelter in the wake of the many panics downturns recessions and depressions that punctuate the years from the 1830s to the present Written by a historian of the working class and a poor people s activist this is a rebellious book that links past and present in an almost two hundred year story of struggle and resistance It is about men women and children relegated to lives of desperation by an uncaring system and how they have refused to be defeated In that refusal and in winning better conditions for themselves Toronto s poor create the possibility of a new kind of society one ordered not by acquisition and individual advance but by appreciations of collective rights and responsibilities

Stories About Storytellers Douglas Gibson,2011-10-01 The legendary Canadian book editor presents this remarkable four decade romp through the back rooms of publishing Toronto Sun Scottish born Douglas Gibson was drawn to Canada by the writing of Stephen Leacock and eventually made his way across the Atlantic to find a job in book publishing where he edited a biography of none other than Leacock But over the decades his stellar career would lead him to work with many more of the country s leading literary lights This memoir shares stories of working and playing alongside writers including Robertson Davies Mavis Gallant Brian Mulroney Val Ross W O Mitchell and many more Gibson reveals the projects he brainstormed for Barry Broadfoot how he convinced future Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro to keep writing short stories his early morning phone call from a former prime minister and his recollection of yanking a manuscript right out of Alistair MacLeod s reluctant hands which ultimately garnered the author one of the world s most prestigious prizes for fiction Insightful and entertaining this collection of tales goes behind the scenes and between the covers to divulge a treasure trove of literary adventures He makes his life in publishing sound like great fun The Globe and Mail Toronto

Hobohemia and the Crucifixion Machine Todd McCallum,2014-12-28 In the early years of the Great Depression thousands of unemployed homeless transients settled into Vancouver s hobo jungle The jungle operated as a distinct community in which goods were exchanged and shared directly without benefit of currency The organization of life was immediate and consensual conducted in the absence of capital accumulation But as the transients moved from the jungles to the city they made innumerable demands on Vancouver s Relief Department consuming financial resources at a rate that threatened the city with bankruptcy In response the municipality instituted a card control system no longer offering relief recipients currency to do with as they chose It also implemented new investigative and assessment procedures including office spies to weed out organizational inefficiencies McCallum argues that threatened by this ungovernable society Vancouver s Relief Department employed Fordist management methods that ultimately stripped the transients of their individuality Vancouver s municipal government entered into contractual relationships with dozens of private businesses tendering bids for meals in much the same fashion as for printing jobs and construction projects As a result entrepreneurs clamoured to get their share of the state spending With the emergence of work relief camps the provincial government harnessed the only currency that homeless men possessed their muscle This new form of unfree labour aided the province in developing its tourist driven image economy as well as facilitating the transportation of natural resources and manufactured goods It also led eventually to the most significant protest movement of 1930s Canada the On to Ottawa Trek Hobohemia and the Crucifixion Machine explores the connections between the history of transiency and that of Fordism offering a new interpretation of the economic and political crises that wracked Canada in the early years of the Great Depression Researching Human Geography Anna Davies,Keith Hoggart,Loretta Lees,2014-04-04 Researching Human Geography is an essential new text for any geography student about to embark on a research project An understanding of how different theories of knowledge have influenced research methodologies is crucial in planning and designing effective research this book makes this link clear and explores how various philosophical positions from positivism to post structuralism have become associated with particular methodologies The book gives an overview of a wide range of methods and data collection both quantitative and qualitative and explores their strengths and weaknesses for different kinds of research Researching Human Geography also looks at the various techniques available for the analysis of data which is presented as an integral and ongoing part of the research process Clearly written with extensive use of examples from previous research to show methodology in action this new text is an invaluable addition to both the theory and method of research in human geography The Canada Year Book ,1974 Extreme Canadian Weather Joan Dixon,2009-05-12 Weather is the quintessential Canadian story Despite it s characterization in the rest of the world as a land of bush and blizzards Canada is a country of geographical and climatic variations It experiences just about every type of extreme weather possible tornadoes droughts dust storms ice storms hail storms hurricanes floods in addition to lots of snowstorms The weather is rarely boring and there are times when it has been so extreme it has surprised everyone

Death in the Peaceable Kingdom Dimitry Anastakis,2015-01-01 Death in the Peaceable Kingdom is an intelligent innovative response to the incorrect assumption that Canadian history is dry and uninspiring Using the hooks of murder execution assassination and suicide Dimitry Anastakis introduces readers to the full scope of post Confederation Canadian history Beginning with the assassination of Thomas D Arcy McGee Anastakis recounts the deaths of famous Canadians such as Louis Riel Tom Thomson and Pierre Laporte He also introduces lesser known events such as the execution of shell shocked deserter Pte Harold Carter during the First World War and the suicide of suspected communist Herbert Norman in Cairo during the Cold War The book concludes with recent Canadian deaths including the suicides of Amanda Todd and Rehtaeh Parsons as a result of cyberbullying Complementing the chapters are short vignettes Murderous Moments and Tragic Tales that point to broader themes and issues The book also contains a number of Active History exercises such as activities assignments and primary document analyses A timeline 24 images and further reading suggestions are included A Night at the Gardens Russell Field,2023-04-28 When Toronto s Maple Leaf Gardens opened in 1931 manager Conn Smythe envisioned an arena that would project an aura of middle class respectability In A Night at the Gardens Russell Field shares how this new arena anticipated spectators by examining varying spectator behaviours who the spectators were and what the experience of spectating was like Drawing on archival records the book explores the neighbourhood in which Maple Leaf

Gardens was situated the design of the arena's interior spaces and the ways in which the venue was operated in order to appeal to respectable spectators at a particular intersection of class and gender Oral history interviews with former spectators at Maple Leaf Gardens detail the experience of watching the spectacle that unfolded on the ice during each hockey game A Night at the Gardens tells the fascinating story of how one prominent public building became such an important part of Toronto society

Lunch-Bucket Lives Craig Heron, 2015-06-03 Lunch Bucket Lives takes the reader on a bumpy ride through the history of Hamilton's working people from the 1890s to the 1930s It ambles along city streets peers through kitchen doors and factory windows marches up the steps of churches and fraternal halls slips into saloons and dance halls pauses to hear political speeches and above all listens for the stories of men women youths and children from families where people relied mainly on wages to survive Heron takes wage earning as a central element in working class life but also looks beyond the workplace into the households and neighbourhoods settlement patterns and housing marriage child care domestic labour public health schooling charity and social work popular culture gender identities ethnicity and ethnic conflict and politics in various forms presenting a comprehensive view of working class life in the first half of the twentieth century This book has been published with the help of a grant from the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences through the Awards to Scholarly Publications Program using funds provided by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada

What Our High Schools Could Be... Bob Davis, 1990-01-01 This book relates the remarkably varied experiences of a man whose career reads like an index of progressive educational developments in late twentieth century Ontario Bob Davis has taught in a military academy in a treatment centre for disturbed children in an alternative community school in a university OISE and for 23 years in two Metro Toronto high schools He has co founded and edited This Magazine Is About Schools and Mudpie Growing Up in Ontario He led picket lines and co organized a successful six month occupation of a University of Toronto building Bob Davis maintains All means prove but a blunt instrument if they have not behind them a living spirit What Our High Schools Could Be shows how his career embodied that spirit An Our Schools Our Selves book
