Hindu Revivalism in Bengal, 1872-1905 Amiya P. Sen, 2001-02-28. This work is an intensive study of certain facets of social and intellectual life in Bengal between 1872 and 1905, particularly Hindu revivalism. The period under discussion represents significant progress in the area of social and religious reform, as well as a period which witnessed hostile attitudes towards such reforms. This is probably the first major work concerning the controversy that surrounded the Brahmo Marriage Bill of 1868-72 and the Consent Bill of 1890-92. The major source material for this book comprises contemporary Bengali literature, including essays, newspaper articles, and correspondence, novels, short stories, drama, and poetry. Though this study purports to be a history of intellectual life in Bengal and the broader intellectual trends and movements, it is largely an examination of certain developments centred in or around Calcutta.
