Ten Tales to Make Your Head Explode Craig Rondinone, 2004-01-28 Think Think as hard as you can Think so hard you can feel the veins swelling in your neck Think so hard your cheeks turn red Think so hard your head starts to tremble Think so hard your temples begin to burn Think so hard you feel lightheaded Think so hard you can no longer hear anything around you Now think like this until your head explodes Inside are ten stories that run the fictional gamut ranging dangerously between comedy and tragedy science fiction and heavy drama romance and action horror and humor reality and fantasy But although each tale is very different in its own right a common thread connects them all They make you think From Rick Winston and Shelby Winslow and their battles against vampires to Bobby Sutton and his battle to stay alive the stories and characters will make you think and think hard Maybe enough to make your head explode Evening Street Review Number 5

Shooting Ladders Gary Keeney,2010-08-03 Shooting Ladders is a book of advice written to a little girl named Tori She was four years old when the author started writing the fi rst topic and she was eight years old when he fi nished the last topic But he didnt write it for the Tori of then or even the Tori of now instead he wrote it for the Tori of the future as something to help her make the right decisions in her late childhood early adult years and throughout her life. The book contains the author's opinions on hundreds of various subjects; some of them practical, many of them philosophical, some serious, some whimsical. On a typical subject, the author tells a story from his own personal experiences and then adds a moral lesson for her to learn from the story. Although he is not trying to tell her what to think, he is trying to guide her into making the proper decisions in life. The author hopes that she will carefully weigh all the options and choose the paths that lead her to a good and happy life. Exploiting My Baby Teresa Strasser, 2011-01-04

Teresa Strasser made her baby a spleen and some eyebrows. He got her a book deal. Everyone loves babies and pregnant women, so TV and radio personality Teresa Strasser decided to use this obsession to her advantage. She came up with a way to provide for her newfound family and help other mommies to be with this down and dirty memoir about first-time pregnancy. An award-winning writer, Teresa is achingly honest about the motherhood she begins experiencing at age thirty-eight. With a biting sense of humor and heart, she portrays the tribulations that come with each trimester: from nausea, weight gain, and bladder infections to dealing with those other kinds of pregnant women. You know the ones. The ones who glow and gloat about it. Exploiting My Baby is a must-read for anyone pregnant, trying to get pregnant, or who is just more crazy than baby-crazy. Hopping on a trail pioneered by such lions as Laura Ingalls Wilder, Erma Bombeck, and Tori Spelling, Teresa has no problem using her pregnancy, childbirth, and difficult relationship with her own mother for material. It's her blunt and plain-spoken approach to exploiting her family for literary success that sets her apart. Watch a Video The BBC National Short Story Award 2018 Sarah Hall, Kiare Ladner, Ingrid Persaud, Nell Stevens, Kerry Andrew, 2018-09-14

Hung over and grief-stricken, a man contemplated suicide at the edge of a cliff until he is unexpectedly distracted by the sight of a woman emerging from the water below. A group of art students protesting the demolition of a housing block decide to turn its destruction into a creative act. Waiting in her car for the rain to pass after her mother's funeral, a woman nurses her child and reflects on a world outside that remains headless of her sorrow. The stories shortlisted for the BBC National Short Story Award with Cambridge University 2018 pivot around the theme of loss and the different ways that individuals and communities respond to it. From the son caring for his estranged father to the widow going out for her first meal alone, the characters in these stories are trying to find ways to repair themselves, looking ahead to a time when grief will eventually soften and soothe. Above all, these stories explore the importance of human connection and the salutary effect of companionship and friendship when all else seems lost. Solariad Surazeus Astarius, 2017-10-15
