Tender Shoot And Other Stories:

The Tender Shoot and Other Stories Colette, Sidonie-Gabrielle Colette, 1975-01-01 Short Story Index ,1965
Short Story Index: 1959-1963 ,1965 The Little Mermaid and Other Stories Hans Christian Andersen, 1893 The Tender Shoot Colette, 1958 The Intersecting Realities and Fictions of Virginia Woolf and Colette Helen Southworth, 2004

What might the author of Mrs Dalloway and A Room of One's Own have in common with the author of the Claudine series and The Pure and the Impure? Resisting long held interpretations that Colette and Virginia Woolf had little in common, Southworth shows here the links between the two famous writers both real and imagined. Often cast in their diametrically opposed roles of elitist bluestocking and risqué music hall performer, critics have overlooked the many ways in which the lives and works of Woolf and Colette intersect. This study provides a broad ranging introduction to the biographical, stylistic and thematic ties that link the lives and works of Britain's and France's first ladies of letters of the early twentieth century. Situating the two writers within an international network of artists and literati including Jacques Emile Blanche, Radclyffe Hall and Una Troubridge, Winnie de Polignac, Gisele Freund, Sylvia Beach and Adrienne Monnier, Vita Sackville-West and Violet Trefusis, this study complicates conceptions of the differences, national, sexual, cultural and intellectual which have kept these two women apart by placing these same differences at its center. Southworth develops work already undertaken on Woolf's contacts with France and adds to the body of comparative work on Woolf and her contemporaries. This study also highlights as yet unexplored connections between Colette and her British and American peers. Southworth's book makes a significant contribution to gay and lesbian studies and the study of modernist culture. It also demonstrates the potential of social network theory for literary studies.
