Tenderness At Twilight:

Tenderness at Twilight Megan Lane,1983 Interpretation of the Thirtieth Part of the Holy Qur'an Mohammad Amin Sheikho,2012-05-01 In Am ma Part there is a reference to sensible and material cosmic miracles to be deeply contemplated with clear thinking so that they may become passages that lead those who seek to recognize the Grand God to get a link with their Provider If they continue this contemplation until they perceive the greatness of these miracles they will be able to perceive the Majesty of He who perfectly created them and then their spirit having submitted before the making and magnified it will turn to submit and magnify the Maker At this point they will move from witnessing by physical eye to witnessing by heart and spirit and thus His Light glory to Him will flow into the spirits of those who aspire to see Him allowing them to realize His Magnificence This is a spiritual witnessing before which a spirit bows and to which it returns in every bowing of every prayer and in this way our prayer to God and our communication with Him become real not only formal ones Style is Matter Leland De la Durantaye,2007 How should we read Lolita The beginning of an answer is that we should read it the way all great works deserve to be read with attention and intelligence But what sort of attention should we pay and what sort of intelligence should we apply to a work of art that recounts so much love so much loss so much thoughtlessness and across which flashes something we might be tempted to call evil To begin with we should read with the attention and intelligence we call empathy A point on which all readers can agree is that great literature offers us a lesson in empathy it encourages us to feel with the strange and the familiar the strong and the weak the vulgar and the cultivated the young and the old the lover and the beloved It urges us to see our own fates as connected to those of others to link the starry sky we see above us with whatever moral laws we might sense within from Style is Matter Some of my characters are no doubt pretty beastly but I really don't care they are outside my inner self like the mournful monsters of a cathedral facade demons placed there merely to show that they have been booted out Vladimir Nabokov Strong Opinions With this quote Leland de la Durantaye launches his elegant and incisive exploration of the ethics of art in the fiction of Vladimir Nabokov Focusing on Lolita but also addressing other major works especially Speak Memory and Pale Fire the author asks whether the work of this writer whom many find cruel contains a moral message and if so why that message is so artfully concealed Style is Matter places Nabokov's work once and for all into dialogue with some of the most basic issues concerning the ethics of writing and of reading itself De la Durantaye argues that Humbert's narrative confession artfully seduces the reader into complicity with his dark fantasies and even darker acts until the very end where he expresses his bitter regret for what he has done In this sense Lolita becomes a study in the danger of art the artist's responsibility to the real world and the perils and pitfalls of reading itself In addition to Nabokov's fictions de la Durantaye also draws on his nonfiction writings to explore Nabokov's belief that all genuine art is deceptive as is nature itself Through de la Durantaye's deft and compelling writing we see that Nabokov learned valuable lessons in mimicry and camouflage from the intricate patterns of the butterflies he adored
