Tennebee Williams And Films By Yacowar Maurice:

Tennessee Williams and Film Maurice Yacowar, 1977 Studies all the film adaptations of Williams's work to date revealing their successes and failures and their profound influence on the cinema The Cambridge Companion to Tennessee Williams Matthew C. Roudané, 1997-12-11 This is a collection of thirteen original essays from a team of leading scholars in the field In this wide ranging volume the contributors cover a healthy sampling of Williams's works from the early apprenticeship years in the 1930s through to his last play before his death in 1983 Something Cloudy Something Clear In addition to essays on such major plays as The Glass Menagerie A Streetcar Named Desire and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof among others the contributors also consider selected minor plays short stories poems and biographical concerns The Companion also features a chapter on selected key productions as well as a bibliographic essay surveying the major critical statements on Williams Tennessee Williams and Company John DiLeo, 2010-10 Tennessee Williams and Company His Essential Screen Actors takes a critical look at these eleven actors and their roles bonded by their sustained artistic and professional association with Williams specifically the success and sometimes failure of their interpretations of his characters for the screen The results include some of the more remarkable performances in movie history from Marlon Brando and Vivien Leigh in A Streetcar Named Desire to Anna Magnani in The Rose Tattoo and Geraldine Page in Sweet Bird of Youth DiLeo takes you through the entire careers of these eleven indelible stars while giving his main attention to their Williams performances From the underrated Joanne Woodward in The Fugitive Kind Madeleine Sherwood in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof to the overrated Elizabeth Taylor in Suddenly Last Summer Paul Newman in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof Tennessee Williams and Company takes an entertaining and intensely detailed ride alongside some of the most inexhaustibly fascinating actors and actresses of our screen heritage each of them challenged by the unforgettable characters of the one and only Tennessee Williams

Tennessee Williams Philip Kolin, 1998-10-28 The plays of Tennessee Williams are some of the greatest triumphs of the American theatre If Williams is not the most important American playwright he surely is one of the two or three most celebrated rivaled only by Eugene O'Neill and Arthur Miller In a career that spanned almost five decades he created an extensive canon of more than 70 plays His contributions to the American theatre are inestimable and revolutionary The Glass Menagerie 1945 introduced poetic realism to the American stage A Streetcar Named Desire 1947 explored sexual and psychological issues that had never before been portrayed in American culture Cat on a Hot Tin Roof 1955 dared to challenge the political and sexual mores of the Eisenhower era and his plays of the 1970s are among the most innovative works produced on the American stage But Williams was far more than a gifted and prolific playwright He created two collections of poetry two novels four collections of stories memoirs and scores of essays Because of his towering presence in American drama Williams has attracted the attention of some of the most insightful scholars and critics of the twentieth century The 1990s in particular ushered in a renaissance of Williams research including a definitive biography a descriptive bibliography and numerous books and scholarly articles This reference book synthesizes the vast body of research on Tennessee Williams and offers a performance history of his works Under the guidance of one of the leading authorities on Williams expert contributors have written chapters on each of Williams works or clusters of works Each chapter includes a discussion of the biographical context of a work or group of writings a survey of the bibliographic history an analysis of major critical approaches which looks at themes characters symbols and plots a consideration of the major critical problems posed by the work an overview of chief productions and film and television versions a concluding interpretation and a bibliography of secondary sources The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography and a comprehensive index Tennessee

Williams and Italy Alessandro Clericuzio, 2016-08-31 This book reveals for the first time the import of a huge network of connections between Tennessee Williams and the country closest to his heart Italy America's most thought provoking playwright loved Italy more than any other country outside the US and was deeply influenced by its culture for most of his life Anna Magnani's film roles in the 1940s Italian Neo realist cinema the theatre of Eduardo De Filippo as well as the actual experience of Italian life and culture during his long stays in the country were some of the elements shaping his literary output Through his lover Frank Merlo he also had first hand knowledge of Italian American life in Brooklyn Tracing the establishment of his reputation with the Italian intelligentsia as well as with theatre practitioners and with generations of audiences the book also tells the story of a momentous collaboration in the theatre between Williams and Luchino Visconti who had to defy the unceasing control Italian censorship exerted on Williams for decades Tennessee Williams and Europe John S. Bak, 2014-09-01 Tennessee Williams and Europe Intercultural Encounters Transatlantic Exchanges documents the bi directional exchange of ideas and images between Williams and post war Europe that have altered the artistic landscapes of both continents Fifteen Williams scholars from around the world examine this artistic symbiosis and explore avenues of research mostly uncharted in Williams scholarship to date including our understanding of the early Williams and the uses he made of various European sources in his theatre the late Williams and the promise European theatre afforded him with his experimental plays and the posthumous Williams and his influence on late twentieth and early twenty first century European theatre and cinema To some extent both a product of and a muse for Europe over the last half century Williams is well positioned to become America's most famous playwright on the international stage This book hopes to mark the beginnings of Williams rich critical tradition within that global context Tennessee Williams - A Streetcar Named Desire/Cat on a

Hot Tin Roof Thomas Adler, 2012-12-07 A Streetcar Named Desire 1947 and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof 1955 are major plays by Tennessee Williams one of America's most significant dramatists They both received landmark productions and are widely studied and performed around the world The plays have also inspired popular screen adaptations and have generated a body of important and lasting scholarship In this indispensable Reader's Guide Thomas P Adler Charts the development of the criticism surrounding both works from the mid twentieth century through to the present day Provides a readable assessment of the key debates and issues Examines a range of theoretical approaches from biographical and New Criticism to feminist and queer theory In so doing Adler helps us to appreciate why these plays continue to fascinate readers theatregoers and directors alike Hollywood's Tennessee R. Barton Palmer,William Robert Bray,2009-04-01 No American dramatist has had more plays adapted than Tennessee Williams and few modern dramatists have witnessed as much controversy during the adaptation process His Hollywood legacy captured in such screen adaptations as A Streetcar Named Desire Cat on a Hot Tin Roof and Suddenly Last Summer reflects the sea change in American culture in the mid twentieth century Placing this body of work within relevant contexts ranging from gender and sexuality to censorship modernism art cinema and the Southern Renaissance Hollywood's Tennessee draws on rarely examined archival research to recast Williams's significance Providing not only cultural context the authors also bring to light the details of the arduous screenwriting process Williams experienced with special emphasis on the Production Code Administration the powerful censorship office that drew high profile criticism during the 1950s and Williams's innovative efforts to bend the code Going well beyond the scripts themselves Hollywood's Tennessee showcases findings culled from poster and billboard art pressbooks and other production and advertising material The result is a sweeping account of how Williams's adapted plays were crafted marketed and received as well as the lasting implications of this history for commercial filmmakers and their audiences Bloom's How to Write about Tennessee Williams Jennifer Banach,2009 Tennessee Williams is recognized as one of America's greatest dramatists and as an innovator of post World War II theater He looked for a mechanism for portraying the truth in theater at a time when traditional approaches no longer worked Both in form as well as in subject matter Williams confronted audiences with what had been taboo topics and underrepresented domestic and social realities His notable contributions to literature include The Glass Menagerie A Streetcar Named Desire and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof Coverage of Williams's major works and suggested essay topics will be invaluable to students and researchers Cinema '62 Stephen Farber,Michael McClellan,2020-03-13 Lawrence of Arabia The Miracle Worker To Kill a Mockingbird The Manchurian Candidate Gypsy Sweet Bird of Youth The Longest Day The Music Man What Ever Happened to Baby Jane and more Most conventional film histories dismiss the early 1960s as a pallid era a downtime between the heights of the classic studio system and the rise of New Hollywood directors like Scorsese and Altman in the 1970s It seemed to be a moment when the movie industry was floundering as the popularity of television caused a downturn in cinema attendance Cinema 62 challenges these assumptions by making the bold claim that 1962 was a peak year for film with a high standard of quality that has not been equaled since Stephen Farber and Michael McClellan show how 1962 saw great late period work by classic Hollywood directors like John Ford Howard Hawks and John Huston as well as stars like Bette Davis James Stewart Katharine Hepburn and Barbara Stanwyck Yet it was also a seminal year for talented young directors like Sidney Lumet Sam Peckinpah and Stanley Kubrick not to mention rising stars like Warren Beatty Jane Fonda Robert Redford Peter O Toole and Omar Sharif Above all 1962 the year of To Kill a Mockingbird and The Manchurian Candidate gave cinema attendees the kinds of adult artistic and uncompromising visions they would never see on television including classics from Fellini Bergman and Kurosawa Culminating in an analysis of the year's Best Picture winner and top grossing film Lawrence of Arabia and the factors that made that magnificent epic possible Cinema 62 makes a strong case that the movies peaked in the Kennedy era Sidney Lumet Frank R. Cunningham, 2014-10-17 Since 1957 Sidney Lumet the most prolific American director of his generation has deepened audiences awareness of social ethical and feminist issues through such distinguished films as 12 Angry Men The Verdict Running on Empty and Critical Care Especially praised for his literary adaptations including Long Day's Journey into Night and Murder on the Orient Express Lumet has also directed such trenchant urban films as Dog Day Afternoon Serpico and Network In this new edition Frank Cunningham expands his analysis of Lumet's earlier films and examines his most recent work from A Stranger Among Us 1992 to Gloria 1999 Also new to this edition are discussions of five other films including The Appointment Murder on the Orient Express and Running on Empty Cunningham studies in depth over thirty of Lumet's most significant films and surveys other films and the television productions to reveal their enduring artistic and humanistic importance Cultural Politics - Queer Reading Alan Sinfield, 2013-04-15 Following a first edition that generated wide spread debate Cultural Politics Queer Reading is a bold study of the future of critical theory and the role of gender ethnicity and cultures within academic literary studies An illuminating introduction to the second edition revisits the book's agenda for a new form of cultural critique and a truly political lesbian and gay studies Sinfield renews his call for an Englit that incorporates ongoing study of the cultures of ethnicity gender and sexuality Challenging the assumptions that have shaped the study of English literature Sinfield engages provocatively with topics such as the gendering of literary culture the sexual politics of psychoanalysis during the Cold War and the history of cultural materialism He discusses such key figures as William Shakespeare Christopher Marlowe Walt Whitman Arthur Miller Holly Hughes Audre Lorde and Jeanette Winterson This influential investigation of the principles and practice that may form dissident reading forms compelling argument for intellectual allegiances beyond the academy

Screening the Stage Bert Cardullo, 2006 This book examines the historical cultural and aesthetic relationships between theater and film As we enter the 21st century almost all artists students and critics working in theater will have had earlier and greater exposure to film than to theater In fact film has become central to the way in which we perceive and formulate stories images ideas and sounds At the same time film and video occupy an increasingly significant place in theater study both for the adaptation of plays and for the documentation and preservation of theatrical performances Yet far too often theater and film artists as well as educators make the jump from one medium to the other without being fully aware of the ways in which the qualities of each medium affect content and artistic expression This book is intended to fill such a gap by providing a theoretical and practical foundation for understanding the effect that film and drama have had and continue to have on each other's development Moreover this study provides a history of the relationship between drama and cinema starting with the pre cinematic late 19th century impulse towards capturing spectacular action on the stage and examining the artistic and commercial interaction between movies and plays both in popular and experimental work throughout the 20th century Important subjects treated in this book include stage versus screen acting the adaptation process itself the theatrical as well as the cinematic avant garde and the portability or adaptability of dramatic character The Great American Playwrights on the Screen Jerry Roberts, 2003-05 The profound expansion of television into American homes in the 1950s brought a flood of adapted plays to the small screen and resulted in the rebirth of the careers of many significant playwrights The Great American Playwrights on the Screen provides fans with a video and DVD guide to the adapted works of the playwrights and shows which versions are available for home viewing and in what media VHS and DVD It resurrects the memory of television productions of plays at a critical time when many of them including Emmy winners and nominees are deteriorating in vaults BOOK JACKET John Huston's Filmmaking Lesley Brill, 1997-10-13 John Huston s

Filmmaking offers an analysis of the life and work of one of the greatest American independent filmmakers Always visually exciting Huston s films sensitively portray humankind in all its incarnations chronicling the attempts by protagonists to conceive and articulate their identities Fundamental questions of selfhood happiness and love are intimately connected to the idea of home which for the filmmaker also signified a congenial place among other people in the world In this study Lesley Brill shows Huston s films to be far more than formulaic adventures of masculine failure arguing instead that they demonstrate the close connection between humanity the natural world and divinity Auteurs and Authorship Barry Keith Grant, 2008-02-11 Auteurs and Authorship A Film Reader offers students an introductory and comprehensive view of perhaps the most central concept in film studies This unique anthology addresses the aesthetic and historical debates surrounding auteurship while providing author criticism and analysis in practice Examines a number of mainstream and established directors including John Ford Alfred Hitchcock Howard Hawks Douglas Sirk Frank Capra Kathryn Bigelow and Spike Lee Features historically important foundational texts as well as contemporary pieces Includes numerous student features such as a general editor s introduction short prefaces to each of the sections bibliography alternative tables of contents and boxed features Each essay deliberately focuses across film makers oeuvres rather than on one specific film to enable lecturers to have flexibility in constructing their syllabi Stages of Struggle John Louis DiGaetani, 2015-01-27 One way or another all playwrights use their work to explore the issues that interest them The characters in a play may trumpet their creator s political views from the stage or an unusual structure or set design may result from the playwright s interest in theatrical form It is also common particularly in the plays of the 20th and 21st century to see a playwright delving into psychological issues raised by his own mental struggles or those of people he loves Luigi Pirandello tormented by the schizophrenia of his wife and other family members repeatedly explored the problems caused by different visions of reality Noel Coward s self obsessed characters reflect his own narcissism Alcoholism is a recurrent theme in the works of many playwrights including

Eugene O'Neill, Edward Albee, and Brian Friel. Through their exploration of these issues and more, the great writers of the theater have turned suffering into art. This book looks at the work of 20 playwrights to see how their examination of the disturbed mind has influenced the modern theater. John Huston as Adaptor Douglas McFarland, Wesley King, 2017-01-28

John Huston as Adaptor makes the case that adaptation is the salient element in Huston's identity as a filmmaker and that his early and deep attraction to the experience of reading informed his approach to film adaptation. Thirty-four of Huston's thirty-seven films were adaptations of literary texts and they stand as serious interpretations of literary works that could only be made by an astute reader of literature. Indeed, Huston asserted that a film director should be above all else a reader and that reading itself should be the intellectual and emotional basis for filmmaking. The seventeen essays in this volume not only address Huston as an adaptor but also offer an approach to adaptation studies that has been largely overlooked. How an adaptor reads the works to which he is drawn and how his literary interpretations can be brought to the screen without relegating film to a subservient role are some of the issues addressed by the contributors. An introductory chapter identifies Huston as the quintessential Hollywood adaptor and argues that his skill at adaptation is the mark of his authorial signature. The chapters that follow focus on fifteen of Huston's most important films, including The Maltese Falcon (1941), The Treasure of the Sierra Madre (1948), The African Queen (1951), The Night of the Iguana (1964), Under the Volcano (1984), and The Dead (1987) and are divided into three areas: aesthetics and textuality, history and social context, and theory and psychoanalysis. By offering a more comprehensive account of the centrality of adaptation to Huston's films, John Huston as Adaptor offers a greater understanding of Huston as a filmmaker. The Films of Tennessee Williams Gene D. Phillips, 1980

The Films of George Roy Hill, rev. ed. Andrew Horton, 2015-05-07 As late as 1976, George Roy Hill was the first and only director to have two all-time top ten box office hits: Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid and The Sting, both starring Robert Redford and Paul Newman. A filmmaker with backgrounds in music, drama, and television, he was a popular storyteller. His films reflect an ironic, bittersweet vision of life. The stories entertain, but the subtext is often disturbing. Hill felt that all of his major characters create an environment, a fantasy, an illusion, and then go on to make it happen. Individual chapters study in detail the art, craft, and style of each of his films, including Period of Adjustment, Toys in the Attic, The World of Henry Orient, Hawaii, The Great Waldo Pepper, Slap Shot, Thoroughly Modern Millie, Slaughterhouse Five, A Little Romance, The World According to Garp, The Little Drummer Girl, and Hill's last, Funny Farm.
