Remembering Oscar Romero and the Martyrs of El Salvador John Thiede,2017-05-25 With the Beatification of Monse or Oscar Romero our current Pope Francis has asked theologians to consider how we might allow for an expanded definition for martyrdom in the 21st century Remembering Oscar Romero and the Martyrs of El Salvador responds to that challenge How do we name Oscar Romero Rutilio Grande the U S churchwomen and the Jesuits and two laywomen killed at the UCA as martyrs Is it a new category with a new definition Or is it simply an amplification of what we have long considered Christian witness While there is a long history of martyrdom in Latin America this book elaborates on four case studies for martyrdom focusing on the reality in El Salvador Rutilio Grande S J killed in 1977 Archbishop Oscar Romero killed in 1980 the U S churchwomen killed in 1980 and the six members of the UCA Jesuit community and their two female collaborators killed in 1989 Insights from the work of Jon Sobrino illuminate these case studies First his Christological insights from Jesus the Liberator and Christ the Liberator are used to analyze the reality of martyrdom particularly in reference to the terms martyr crucified people and martyred people Second his more recent articles challenge a strict interpretation of the traditional definition of martyrdom especially focusing on his terms Jesuanic martyr a martyr for justice and even a more polemic suggestion of an anonymous Christian martyr Finally the book concludes by combining Sobrino s insights and the reality of martyrdom today updated with the recent scholarship in Romero s beatification process which attempts to show Romero as a martyr In the end the book hopes to offer some suggestions for an expanded definition of martyrdom in the 21st century By responding to the call of Pope Francis for an expanded definition the reality of martyrdom in Latin America might be better understood and applied to the universal church A Visible Witness Jules A. Martinez-Olivieri,2016-06-03 A Visible Witness presents a fresh innovative perspective on a vital movement in twentieth century theology Protestant theology in Latin America emerged over fifty years ago side by side with the initial development of Roman Catholic liberation theology Both traditions have common theological interests the praxical nature of theology Christology and soteriology Protestants also share some of the fundamental intuitions of liberation theology the centrality of praxis in Christian life and the priority of opting for the suffering masses Key Protestant theologians like Jos M guez Bonino Nancy Bedford and Guillermo Hansen challenged Protestant theology in Latin America to develop a Trinitarian hermeneutic for Christology in order to see the work of salvation as the work of the triune God and to relate Christology and pneumatology in ways that fundamentally shape the praxis of the church This dissertation takes on this challenge and proposes a theodramatic Christology that serves to ground the Christian notion of salvation as historical liberation and the church s participation in the present experience of redemption in the Trinitarian and economic work of Jesus Christ The ecclesia of believers participates in God's communicative activity via union with Christ the community of disciples becomes a theater of liberation

Architecture and Ritual in the Churches of Constantinople Vasileios Marinis, 2014-01-13 This book examines the interchange of architecture and ritual in the Middle and Late Byzantine churches of Constantinople ninth to fifteenth centuries It employs archaeological and archival data hagiographic and historical sources liturgical texts and commentaries and monastic typika and testaments to integrate the architecture of the medieval churches of Constantinople with liturgical and extra liturgical practices and their continuously evolving social and cultural context The book argues against the approach that has dominated Byzantine studies that of functional determinism the view that architectural form always follows liturgical function Instead proceeding chapter by chapter through the spaces of the Byzantine church it investigates how architecture responded to the exigencies of the rituals and how church spaces eventually acquired new uses The church building is described in the context of the culture and people whose needs it was continually adapted to serve Rather than viewing churches as frozen in time usually the time when the last brick was laid this study argues that they were social constructs and so were never finished but continually evolving Amnesty International Report ,2000 Amnesty International Report Amnesty International,2000-06 Repression poverty and war dominated the lives of hundreds of millions of people at the turn of the century Governments all over the world used imprisonment torture and murder to silence opposition and maintain their hold on power Lack of political freedom and a widening gap between rich and poor fuelled protests which were met with brutality and violence in many countries The Amnesty International report 2000 bears witness to the human rights abuses suffered by people in more than 140 countries and territories around the world In some countries instability degenerated into opened armed conflict or lawlessness which cost the lives of countless men women and children International military interventions in Kosovo and East Timor and the muted international response to the Russian bombing of Chechnya intensified the debate over how the international community should respond to mass human rights abuses This report reflects not only the failures of human rights protection but also the creativity determination and successes of the human rights movement Fear of God Daniel Eastman An,2025-11-18 In the writings of ancient Christians the near ubiquitous references to the fear of God have traditionally been seen as a generic placeholder for piety Focusing on monastic communities in late antiquity across the eastern Mediterranean this book explores why the language of fear was so prevalent in their writings and how they sought to put it into practice in their daily lives Drawing on a range of evidence including sermons liturgical prayers and archaeological evidence Daniel An explores how the languages monastics spoke the socioeconomic settings they inhabited and the visual spaces in which they prayed came together to shape their emotional horizons By investigating emotions as practices embedded in the languages cultures and sensorial environments of late antiquity this book offers new insights into the spiritual world of Christian monasteries Quincentennial of the discovery of America, encounter of two worlds ,1991 The Antecedents of Antichrist L.J.
