Development In Modern Africa Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2019-10-08

Development in Modern Africa Past and Present Perspectives contributes to our understanding of Africa's experiences with the development process. It does so by adopting a historical and contemporary analysis of this experience. The book is set within the context of critiques on development in Africa that have yielded two general categories of analysis: skepticism and pessimism. While not overlooking the shortcomings of development, the themes in the book express an optimistic view of Africa's development experiences, highlighting elements that can be tapped into to enhance the condition of African populations and their states. By using case studies from precolonial, colonial, and postcolonial Africa, contributors to the volume demonstrate that human instincts to improve material, social, and spiritual worlds are universal. They are not limited to the Western world, which the term and process of development are typically associated with. Before and after contact with the West, Africans have actively created institutions and values that they have actively employed to improve individual and community lives. This innovative spirit has motivated Africans to integrate or experiment with new values and structures, challenges, and solutions to human welfare that resulted from contact with colonialism and the postcolonial global community. The book will be of interest to academics in the fields of history, African studies, and regional studies.

The Literary History of the Igbo Novel Ernest N. Emenyonu, 2020-02-07

This book looks at the trends in the development of the Igbo novel from its antecedents in oral performance through the emergence of the first published novel, Omenuko in 1933 by Pita Nwana, to the contemporary Igbo novel. Defining Igbo literature as literature in Igbo language and the Igbo novel as a novel written in Igbo language, the author argues that oral and written literature in African indigenous languages hold an important foundational position in the history of African literature. Focusing on the contributions of Igbo writers to the development of African literature in African languages, the book examines the evolution, themes, and distinctive features of the Igbo novel, the historical circumstances of the rise of the African novel in the pre-colonial era, and their impact on the contemporary Igbo novel. This book will be of interest to scholars of African literature, literary history, and Igbo studies.

Religion and Politics in a Mediatized Society Charles A. Ebelebe, Olunifesi A. Suraj, Bellarmine A. Ezumah, 2023-05-30

Religion and Politics in a Mediatized Society: Critical Analyses and Spheres of Interinfluence in Nigeria and Beyond, edited by Bellarmine A. Ezumah, Charles A. Ebelebe, and Olunifesi A. Suraj, contextualizes the hegemonic relationship of religion and politics in Nigeria and beyond. The dynamics of religion and religious practices are examined using various communication theories and paradigms to extrapolate how religion is designed, packaged, disseminated, and interpreted among Nigerians. Contributors trace the evolution and development of this problem to colonialism. The contributors measure the impact of religious media messages from three perspectives: the impact of the messages themselves, the impact of the medium used in transmitting the message, as in the McLuhan philosophy, the medium is the message, and the impact from the power of the source, the religious or political leaders Opinion Leader who exert influence on opinion followers In this book the contributors examine how religion is considered a propagandistic venture whereby capitalism and monetary gain are the norms minimizing core religious values traditional teachings and methods of worship

Healing Insanity: a Study of Igbo Medicine in Contemporary Nigeria Patrick E. Iroegbu, 2010-06-08 Healing Insanity A Study of Igbo Medicine in Contemporary Nigeria is an original and in depth study on endogenous medical system in an African society It is craftily written and provides solid insight through case studies and theory into how insanity affects patients and the society Particularly it explores various collective representations and strategies regarding insanity and healing as it examines the healing institutions healers and ritual cults The central question is given the patterns of healing how do the Igbo shape the incidence and symptoms of insanity define its aetiology and provide healers with culture specific resources and skills to address this illness. The focus became increasingly centred on bodily semantics and endogenous knowledge systems and practices. Dr Patrick Iroegbus work is a very valuable and rare study and has appeared at a desirable time. It is for an African society a comprehensive study of the many ways Igbo people in their practical routinized attitudes and body centred experiences as well as in their more reflective aetiologic knowledge and healing institutions relate to the phenomenon of insanity or ara in the cultural parlance. As the first of its kind reminiscent of and assured by the various remarks of Igbo scholars and leaders at various meetings and discourses the task this work has set out to accomplish is a very brave one. The authors account of his fieldwork experiences and adopted techniques illustrates his initiation revealing him as a genuine ethnographer who is a friend of people and at ease with his field. With both the far seeing and inspiring analysis of Igbo medicine life and culture accounted for in the work the book stands out for ethnographers teachers students leaders policymakers and the general public. This is a book that deserves to be read as it shapes the critical path toward understanding ways of healing insanity in a culture specific context crosscutting perspectives for a relationship between indigenous healing and the biomedical sphere. Prof Ren Devisch Africa Research Centre University of Leuven. This book is written with a clear purpose for everyone to read to understand and heal insanity and indeed provides a thick piece of cultural philosophy and vernacular of Igbo medicine in hopes of putting cultural wisdom in pursuit of integral health care development. Prof Pantaleon Iroegbu Professor of Philosophy Major Seminary Ekpoma January 2006. To read this book as I did is to get the benefit of Dr Patrick Iroegbus ethnographic insight for an archetypical African healing system in Igboland. It offers a fascinating theory of symbolic release that speaks of African symbolic action and knowledge system. Dr Paul Komba Esq University of Cambridge. Nigerian History, Politics and Affairs Adiele Eberechukwu Afigbo, 2005. These essays attempt to focus the light of history on Nigeria Nigerians and their contemporary condition. The root idea here is that fundamental to all historical works that when the mind interacts with the past the result is something like a torchlight whose beam is focused on the present thus enabling us to achieve a better understanding of the problems which face us. Afigbo has probed deep into Nigeria's past bringing out all the facets all the elements and all the issues that are necessary to improve the present. Politics and Identity Formation in Southeastern Nigeria Apollós O. Nwauwa, Ogechi E. Anyanwu, 2019-05-20. Scholarly studies on the Igbo have been scant and fragmented. Politics and Identity Formation in Southeastern Nigeria: The Igbo in Perspective fills an obvious gap exploring the social cultural economic political and aesthetic traditions that distinguish the Igbo of southeastern Nigeria from their neighbors. In scope content and analysis this book is both multi and cross disciplinary focusing on the experiences and forces that have shaped the Igbo society identity formation and sociocultural political and aesthetic representations. Themes such as the importance of Igbo names in understanding the people's social linguistic religious gender and cultural identities as well as the intersection of language politics socialization education and aesthetic expression in the Igbo experience in Nigeria are interrogated in a refreshing fashion with an appreciable level of originality
