Archetype in Late Antique and Byzantine Art and Architecture, 2023-02-13 This book addresses typology of Late Antique and Byzantine art and architecture in eight wide ranging contributions from an international group of scholars A dialogue between type and its ultimate source archetype surpasses issues of formalism and conventional chronological narratives to suggest a more nuanced approach to typology as a systematic and systemic classification of types in the visual landscape of the pagans Jews and Christians Set against the contemporaneous cultural context select examples of Mediterranean material culture confirm the great importance of type and archetype constructs for theoretical discourse on architecture and visual arts Contributors are Anna Adashinskaya Jelena An elkovi Gra ar Jelena Bogdanovi edomila Marinkovi Marina Mihaljevi Ljubomir Milanovi Cecilia Olovdotter and Ida Sinkevi Picturing Yiddish Diane Wolfthal, 2004 This is the first comprehensive study of the images in five profusely illustrated Yiddish books from sixteenth century Italy a manuscript of Jewish customs and four printed volumes two books of customs a chivalric romance and a book of fables

Rituals and Ritual Theory in Ancient Israel Ithamar Gruenwald, 2003-01-20 This book in many ways the first of its kind addresses the issue of rituals and their embedded ritual theory in the religion of ancient Israel The leading idea of the book is that rituals are an autonomous form of expression of the human mind The human mind expresses itself in rituals as it does in language the arts and mathematics Rituals are not performative translations of symbols and ideas and in religion of any kind of theology Theology does not explain how rituals are done and how they accomplish what they claim to do The book begins with a general discussion of what rituals are and argues that the ritual theory of each ritual is not in any general theory of ritual but embedded in the ritual act itself Every ritual is structured in such a way that its details create the behavioural logic that makes ritual work The difference is explored between the early and institutionalised phases of the religion of ancient Israel Here the role of the economic ethos is the focus of the discussion The book explores the links between myth and rituals arguing that the connectedness with ritual endows a story with a myth essence Detailed discussions of various rituals exemplify the major theoretical discourse The book is of interest to scholars in the areas of Halakhah law and ritual religious studies and the anthropology of religion 1998, □□□-□□-□□□□
