Miller, 2010-11-05 When Sergius of Radonezh founded a monastery near Moscow his example spawned a movement of monastic foundations throughout Russia Within three decades of his death in 1392 Sergius was recognized as a saint and by 1450 many considered him the intercessor for the Russian land who freed its people from Mongol rule Over the next century and a half thousands sought St Sergius intercession with gifts to the monastery Moscow s rulers made Sergius patron saint of their dynasty and of the Russian tsardom By 1605 the Trinity Sergius monastery was the biggest house in Russia Miller presents Trinity's dramatic history from the fourteenth century to the beginning of the Time of Troubles Using extensive archival materials he traces the evolution of Trinity's relationship to Sergius venerators and its traditions governance social composition and the lifestyle of its members In lucid prose Miller argues that St Sergius cult and monastery became integrating forces on a national scale and vital elements in the forging of a Russian identity economy and cohesive society The power of religion to shape national identity is a lively topic today and Miller's study will interest both medievalists and modern historians as well as readers of Orthodox Church history For Folk's Sake Erin Morton, 2016-11-01 Folk art emerged in twentieth century Nova Scotia not as an accident of history but in tandem with cultural policy developments that shaped art institutions across the province between 1967 and 1997 For Folk's Sake charts how woodcarvings and paintings by well known and obscure self taught makers and their connection to handwork local history and place fed the public s nostalgia for a simpler past The folk artists examined here range from the well known self taught painter Maud Lewis to the relatively anonymous woodcarvers Charles Atkinson Ralph Boutilier Collins Eisenhauer and Clarence Mooers These artists are connected by the ways in which their work fascinated those active in the contemporary Canadian art world at a time when modernism and the art market that once sustained it had reached a crisis As folk art entered the public collection of the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia and the private collections of professors at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design it evolved under the direction of collectors and curators who sought it out according to a particular modernist aesthetic language Morton engages national and transnational developments that helped to shape ideas about folk art to show how a conceptual category took material form Generously illustrated For Folk's Sake interrogates the emotive pull of folk art and reconstructs the relationships that emerged between relatively impoverished self taught artists a new brand of middle class collector and academically trained professors and curators in Nova Scotia s most important art Historical Dictionary of Tibet John Powers, David Templeman, 2020-10-22 Historical Dictionary of Tibet institutions Second Edition is a comprehensive resource for Tibetan history politics religion major figures prehistory and paleontology with a primary emphasis on the modern period It also covers the surrounding areas influenced by Tibetan religion and culture including India China Nepal Bhutan Central Asia and Russia It contains a chronology a glossary an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as

Spry, 1895 The Allure of Blackness among Mixed-Race Americans, 1862-1916 Ingrid Dineen-Wimberly, 2019-10-01 In The Allure of Blackness among Mixed Race Americans 1862 1916 Ingrid Dineen Wimberly examines generations of mixed race African Americans after the Civil War and into the Progressive Era skillfully tracking the rise of a leadership class in Black America made up largely of individuals who had complex racial ancestries many of whom therefore enjoyed racial options to identity as either Black or White Although these people might have chosen to pass as White to avoid the racial violence and exclusion associated with the dominant racial ideology of the time they instead chose to identify as Black Americans a decision that provided upward mobility in social political and economic terms Dineen Wimberly highlights African American economic and political leaders and educators such as P B S Pinchback Theophile T Allain Booker T Washington and Frederick Douglass as well as women such as Josephine B Willson Bruce and E Azalia Hackley who were prominent clubwomen lecturers educators and settlement house founders In their quest for leadership within the African American community these leaders drew on the concept of Blackness as a source of opportunities and power to transform their communities in the long struggle for Black equality The Allure of Blackness among Mixed Race Americans 1862 1916 confounds much of the conventional wisdom about racially complicated people and details the manner in which they chose their racial identity and ultimately overturns the passing trope that has dominated so much Americanist scholarship and social thought about the relationship between race and social and political transformation in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Living in the Moment Gary Null,2008 Anecdotal and reflective Living in the Moment comprises health expert Dr Gary Null's lifetime of observation and wisdom Following Einstein's belief that we can't solve problems by using the same kind of thinking we used when we created them Null offers fresh paradigm breaking solutions to living our life to its fullest potential through our relationships health and self expression Dr Null's prescription for the soul bids readers to take an active role in their own lives to carefully distinguish truth from past conditioning While he espouses a natural foods and alternative health lifestyle as part of our well being Null also shows us how crucial it is to do those things with the right awareness and intention if we go to yoga and eat right but stress out at work and are stuck in a difficult relationship we re not in balance and able to truly awaken to our deepest energy for life Dr Null has presented much of the material in Living in the Moment throughout his career in his lectures his award winning radio show documentary films and investigative reporting Now Living in the Moment enlightens readers on the many tools at their disposal for achieving the balance self esteem and passion missing from their lives King of the Wood Valerie Anand, 2019-01-01 To William Rufus corrupt and opulent court comes the young Norman Ralph des Aix Eager to win his knight's fee from the new English king But although fortune and King Rufus seems to smile on him Ralph rapidly discovers that to be King's favourite is bewildering and not always pleasant And many feel that the rundown holding of Chenna's Tun deep in the heart of the New Forest is a poor reward for his services In the remote heart of the great wood Ralph and his passionate young wife Sybil of Fallowdene are relentlessly drawn into the growing conflict between the greedy sophistication of the Norman court and the dark world of the Saxon forest with all its hidden rites A net of danger closes round Ralph Sybil and the glittering lonely figure of King Rufus And to be truly lord of his own manor Ralph learns that he must bear the ancient title King of the Wood with all its mysterious and barbaric responsibilities Mysticism: A Study in Nature and Development of Spiritual Consciousness Evelyn Underhill, 2017-02-15 Remaining a classic in its field this book explains first how mysticism relates to such things as vitalism theology psychology symbolism and magic This treatment may seem unusual for Christian mysticism but it relates widely to the world as we know it and the different practices therein Part Two explores the awakening purification and illumination of yourself and gives solid groundwork for such things as voices visions dreams and other mystical experience
