Hauser, 2011-12 There have been Lutheran schools in Australia for more than 170 years This book examines the second 80 years of that history through a series of biographies of the pathfinders those educational leaders who on the basis of a rich tradition which had suffered some reversals forged new directions for Lutheran schooling in the twentieth century The eight profiles in this book not only cover the broad sweep of Lutheran educational history from 1919 to 1999 but also explore the stories of people who were leading players in its development The Ethics of Resistance Drew M. Dalton, 2018-08-23 Opening a new debate on ethical reasoning after Kant Drew Dalton addresses the problem of the absolute in ethical and political thought Attacking the foundation of European philosophical morality he critiques the idea that in order for ethical judgement to have any real power it must attempt to discover and affirm some conception of the absolute good Without rejecting the essential role the absolute plays within ethical reasoning Dalton interrogates the assumed value of the absolute Dalton brings some of the most influential contemporary philosophical traditions into dialogue with each other speculative realists like Badiou and Meillassoux phenomenologists including Husserl Heidegger and Levinas German Idealists especially Kant and Schelling psychoanalysts Freud and Lacan and finally post structuralists specifically Foucault Deleuze and Ranciere The relevance of these thinkers to concrete socio political problems is shown through reflections on the Holocaust suicide bombings the rise of neo liberalism and neo nationalism as well as rampant consumerism and racism This book re defines ethical reasoning as that which refuses absolutes and resists what Milton's devil in Paradise Lost called the tyranny of heaven Against traditional ethical reasoning Dalton sees evil not as a moral failure but as the result of an all too easy assent to the absolute an assent which can only be countered through active resistance For Dalton resistance to the absolute is the sole channel through which the good can be defined Day by Day Devotions 2 Karyn Henley, 2005-07-05 Presents daily devotional readings and prayers arranged by 52 weekly themes covering such topics as who wins fighting temptation and getting along with others The Christian Century Collected Papers.
