The Indonesian Dilemma:

The Indonesian Dilemma Mochtar Lubis, 2000-12 Born in Sumatra in 1922 and educated at the Sekola Ekonomi Indonesia as well as the University of Hawaii Mochtar Lubis is a distinguished journalist and respected in both the East and West Noted for his forthright views he was imprisoned for over four years and under house arrest for another four and a half years during the Soekarno regime As will be seen in this book he remains a fearless upholder of the values and principles which he cherishes and a devoted lover of his homeland Indonesia Indonesian Foreign Policy and the Dilemma of Dependence Franklin B. Weinstein, 2007 How can an underdeveloped country like Indonesia draw on outside resources for its national development without sacrificing its independence Approaching the problem from the vantage point of the Indonesian elite this important work explores the complex interactions between domestic political factors and the shaping of foreign policy To illustrate the ways in which underdevelopment has affected Indonesia's international participation Professor Weinstein presents a graphic picture of what Indonesia's leaders see when they view the outside world and he systematically seeks out the sources of their perceptions He shows that most of the elite see the international system as dominated by exploitative powers that cannot be relied on to assist Indonesia's development He examines the relationship between perceptions and politics under both Sukarno and Soeharto and offers an illuminating comparison of the bases of foreign policy under each leader revealing dramatic changes and surprising continuities His cogent analysis helps to explain the sharp reversal of policy in 1966 and his conclusions form a convincing hypothesis that can be tested in other Third World countries This book now brought back to life as a member of Equinox Publishing's Classic Indonesia series will attract specialists in Southeast Asia as well as readers with a broader interest in the politics and economics of underdeveloped countries FRANKLIN B WEINSTEIN was Director of the Project on United States Japan Relations at Stanford University where he also taught in the Department of Political Science A graduate of Yale University he received his PhD from Cornell University The Security Dilemmas of Southeast Asia A. Collins, 2000-08-17 The Security Dilemmas of Southeast Asia utilises a key security concept to examine one of the most dramatic regions of the world Focusing on ethnic tensions intra ASEAN rivalries and the emergence of Chinese hegemony the security dilemma is used to provide insights into a wide range of the region's contemporary security issues In addition the book expounds upon some of the new uses of the security dilemma exploring both its applicability to ethnic tensions and a new variant a state induced security dilemma The Dilemmas of Statebuilding Roland Paris, Timothy D. Sisk, 2009-01-13 Sharing a consensus but offering a variety of approaches methodologies case analyses and recommendations the essays in this text provides a deeper understanding of the dilemmas of state building The United States and the Indonesian Dispute, 1945-1950 Norma Mae Faulkner, 1952 The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia John H. Walker, Glenn Banks, Minako Sakai, 2009-01-01 The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia is a thought provoking examination of local politics and the dynamics of power at Indonesia's geographic and social margins After the fall of Suharto in 1998 and the introduction of a policy of decentralization in 2001 local stakeholders secured and consolidated decision making power and set about negotiating new relations with Jakarta The volume deals with power struggles and local national tensions looking among other things at resource control the historical roots of regional identity politics and issues relating to Chinese Indonesians The authors develop information in ways that transcend the post colonial territorial boundaries of Indonesia in the Malay Indonesian archipelago and use case studies to show how the changes described have galvanized Indonesian politics at the cultural and geographical peripheries The Candidate's Dilemma Elisabeth A. Kramer, 2022-06-15 In The Candidate's Dilemma Elisabeth Kramer tells the story of how three political candidates in Indonesia made decisions to resist engage in or otherwise incorporate money politics into their electioneering strategies over the course of their campaigns As they campaign candidates encounter pressure from the institutional rules that guide elections political parties and voters and must also negotiate complex social relationships to remain competitive For anticorruption candidates this context presents additional challenges for building and maintaining their identities Some of these candidates establish their campaign parameters early and are able to stay their course For others the campaign trail results in an avalanche of compromises each one eating away at their sense of what constitutes moral and acceptable behavior The Candidate's Dilemma delves into the lived experiences of candidates to offer a nuanced study of how the political and personal intersect when it comes to money politics anticorruptionism and electoral campaigning in Indonesia

The Post-Colonial Security Dilemma Rebecca Strating, 2018-11-20 This book examines the development of Timor Leste's foreign policy since achieving political independence in 2002 It considers the influence of Timor Leste's historical experiences with foreign intervention on how the small new state has pursued security The book argues that efforts to secure the Timorese state have been motivated by a desire to reduce foreign intervention and dependence upon other actors within the international community Timor Leste's desire for real independence characterized by the absence of foreign interference permeates all spheres of its international political cultural and economic relations and foreign policy discourse Securing the state entails projecting a legitimate identity in the international community to protect and guarantee political recognition of sovereign status an imperative that gives rise to Timor Leste's aspirational foreign policy The book examines Timor Leste's key bilateral and multilateral diplomatic relations its engagement with the global normative order and its place within the changing Asia Pacific region Foreign Relations of the United States, 1949: The Far East and Australasia, 1976 After

Bali: The Threat Of Terrorism In Southeast Asia Kumar Ramakrishna, See Seng Tan, 2003-12-23 This book critically analyses the specific threat of terrorism in Southeast Asia since the Bali blasts of 12 October 2002 and the US led war on Iraq It offers a comprehensive and critical examination of the ideological socioeconomic and political motivations trans regional linkages and media representations of the terrorist threat in the region assesses the efficacy of the regional counter terror response and suggests a more balanced and nuanced approach to combating the terror threat in Southeast Asia The contributors include leading scholars of political Islam in the region renowned terrorism and regional security analysts as well as highly regarded regional journalists and commentators This represents a formidable and unequalled combination of expertise

Contesting Indonesia Kirsten E. Schulze, 2024-10-15 Contesting Indonesia explains Islamist separatist and communal violence across Indonesian history since 1945 In a sweeping argument that connects endemic violence to a national narrative Kirsten E Schulze finds that the outbreak of violence is related to competing local notions of the national imaginary as well as contentious belonging Through detailed examination of six case studies the Darul Islam rebellions Jemaah Islamiyah s jihad and the conflicts in East Timor Aceh Poso and Ambon Schulze argues that violence was more likely to occur in places that are on the geographic ideological ethnic and religious periphery of the Indonesian state that violence by non state actors was most protracted in locations where there was a well established alternative national imaginary supported by an alternative historical narrative and that violence by the state was most likely in places where the state had a significant territorial interest Drawing on a vast collection of interviews and archival and published sources Contesting Indonesia provides a new understanding of the history of violence across the Indonesian archipelago

Autonomy and Armed Separatism in South and Southeast Asia Michelle Ann Miller, 2012 Armed separatist insurgencies have created a real dilemma for many national governments of how much freedom to grant aggrieved minorities without releasing territorial sovereignty over the nation state This book examines different approaches that have been taken by seven states in South and Southeast Asia to try and resolve this dilemma through various offers of autonomy Providing new insights into the conditions under which autonomy arrangements exacerbate or alleviate the problem of armed separatism this comprehensive book includes in depth analysis of the circumstances that lead men and women to take up arms in an effort to remove themselves from the state s borders by creating their own independent polity

Performing the Nation Jörgen Hellman, 2003 In sharp contrast to today s disorder was the apparent cohesion and stability of Indonesia during much of the New Order period 1965 1998 While Suharto s authoritarian rule was significant the regime s cultural policies also played their part in demonstrating that his regime created order throughout Indonesia not just through coercive means Ethnic religious and regional sentiments were to be channeled into art which was used to help develop a national Indonesian identity This theme is explored by this study which focuses on the efforts of a group of young art students based at the Bandung Academy of Performing Arts to revitalize traditional Longser theater

The 9/11 Effect Kent Roach, 2011-08-15 This book critically and comparatively examines the responses of the United Nations and a range of countries to the terror attacks on September 11 2001 It assesses the convergence between the responses of Western democracies including the United States the United Kingdom Australia and Canada with countries with more experience with terrorism including Egypt Syria Israel Singapore and Indonesia A number of common themes the use of criminal law and immigration law the regulation of speech associated with terrorism the review of the state s whole of government counter terrorism activities and the development of national security policies are discussed The book provides a critical take on how the United Nations promoted terrorism financing laws and listing processes and the regulation of speech associated with terrorism but failed to agree on a definition of terrorism or the importance of respecting human rights while combating terrorism Nationalism and Ethnicity in Southeast Asia

Rights-Compliant Counterterrorism Jayson S. Lamchek,2019 A critical take on the convergence of human rights discourse with the counterterrorism agenda revealing its effects on developing countries The Dilemmas of Social Democracies Howard Richards,Joanna Swanger,2008-01-01 The Dilemmas of Social Democracies seeks to advance the eradication of poverty and the ethical construction of social democracy and sustainable peace Howard Richards and Joanna Swanger argue that the reason that capitalism resists transformation and that social democracy is so hard to achieve is because of the philosophical and institutional underpinnings_the constitutive rules_of capitalism the book therefore explores the historical origins of these rules their implications for blocking progress toward social justice and how they can be improved Civil Society in Southeast Asia Lee Hock Guan,2003-08-01 What is the relevance of civil society to people empowerment effective governance and deepening democracy This book addresses this question by examining the activities and public participation of non governmental organizations NGOs in the areas of religion ethnicity gender and the environment Examples are taken from Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam State regimes attempts to co opt the concept or reject it as alien to e Asian values have apparently not turned out as expected This is evident from the fact that many Southeast Asian citizens are inspired by the civil society concept and now engage in public discourse and participation The experience of civil society in Southeast Asia shows that its impact or lack of impact on democratization and democracy depends on a variety of factors not only within civil society itself but also within the state

The Java that Never was Hans Antlöv,Jörgen Hellman,2005 This book is about how cultures and societies on Java over the past century have been perceived and socially constructed by scholars inside and outside of Indonesia It is a reflective book how on the one hand academic theories have shaped our view of Java and on the other hand how the study of Java has influenced theoretical developments within a number of disciplines including anthropology development studies religious studies political science gender studies and the arts BOOK JACKET Triumph of Self-Determination John R. Ballard,2007-12-30 Based on first person accounts interviews declassified documents and secondary background sources this book gives readers insight into the significant actions and innovative techniques of the struggle for East Timorese independence from 1999 to 2006 The book begins with a two chapter historical overview of the circumstances that caused the United Nations to intervene in East Timor in 1999 and then continues with a detailed account of the referendum on independence and the military operations required to restore order after the Timorese people decided upon freedom from Indonesia In the final three chapters Ballard describes the actions taken to support the first national elections the writing of a constitution and the formation of a new national government in East Timor The final chapter compares UN operations in East Timor to previous operations in Somalia Eastern Europe and Haiti and outlines key lessons for the future including the critical importance of economic development and good governance in fledgling states
