The Inner World of the Lake Sheng-yen Lu, 1992-01-01

Occidental Ideographs Franklin R. Rogers, Mary Ann Rogers, 1991 This work proposes a new approach to literary history that locates the historicity of a literary work of art in the visual image that initiates the work and is fundamental to it a visual metaphor of which the text is the verbalization

Gwenevere and the Round Table Wendy Berg, 2012 The new book by Wendy Berg puts her acclaimed Red Tree White Tree into practice It shows how the Round Table was an actual practical system of magic demonstrated by Gwenevere who was its prime interpreter within the court of the Round Table Central to the book is the concept of five Faery kingdoms described in the legends with which Gwenevere was closely associated Lyonesse Sorelois Gorre and Oriande about the central Grail kingdom of Listenois The book comprises a graded series of meditations practical magical exercises guided visualisations and a full ritual which take the reader into each of the Faery kingdoms in turn guided by Gwenevere to experience the various challenges and gifts that they each represent The fourth kingdom Oriande takes the reader into the Round Table of the Stars an experiential journey through 12 constellations which very neatly and remarkably demonstrates the continuing work of the Round Table into the future

The Current of Romantic Passion Jeffrey Cane Robinson, 1991 Deftly probing the ambivalence of Romantic writers on the subjects of passion and beauty Robinson shows how this ambivalence is also central to the experience of the modern critic in Western society Is the reader's experience of beauty in art an escape from troubling reality Or does desire for beauty spur social criticism and reform Does the representation of erotic passion as a sign of social critique exist to be transcended for disinterested spirituality Or is such passion the very site of the struggle for individual and class rights Robinson explores the problematic place of passion and beauty in Romanticism's radical sentiments and reformist politics Tracing the intertwining of desire and disturbance of eros and subversion his meditations encompass poems novels diaries key terms such as Rousseau's sentiment of existence writers characteristic forms of expression or habits of mind Wordsworth's or grammar figures in literary works Goethe's Werther Byron's Lambro problems of genre the relationship of the Romantic poem and the Romantic essay the problem of closure the nature of a scene and larger political questions feminism in Romantic literature erotic passion and representations of radicalism Evoking the original meaning of essay as experiment Robinson has essayed a topography of the Romantic landscape This book is daring and it is brilliant I also think it is right James R Kincaid University of Southern California

The Inner Life Charles Webster Leadbeater, C. W. Leadbeater, 1978-01-01 A clairvoyant Leadbeater wrote is simply a person who develops the power to respond to another octave out of the stupendous gamut of possible vibrations and so is enabled to see more of the world than those of more limited perception And what a world Leadbeater describes for us in these pages a world of Master adepts

Miller, 2012-05-21 The knowledge and technology to proceed with holographic healing is hereby granted to each of you who reads these words It is not necessary to travel to distant places With the holographic technology and skills you have been taught you will be able to project your energies in the most direct and transformative way throughout the Earth I ask each of you to take that part of the Earth you are familiar with and know When you interact with that part you can affect the whole Earth Whatever part of that whole that is distorted can be transformed into a fifth dimensional holographic energy The Arcturians Old Canaan in a New World Elizabeth Fenton, 2022-11

Were indigenous Americans descendants of the lost tribes of Israel From the moment Europeans realized Columbus had landed in a place unknown to them in 1492 they began speculating about how the Americas and their inhabitants fit into the Bible For many the most compelling explanation was the Hebraic Indian theory which proposed that indigenous Americans were the descendants of the ten lost tribes of Israel For its proponents the theory neatly explained why this giant land and its inhabitants were not mentioned in the Biblical record In Old Canaan in a New World Elizabeth Fenton shows that though the Hebraic Indian theory may seem far fetched today it had a great deal of currency and significant influence over a very long period of American history Indeed at different times the idea that indigenous Americans were descended from the lost tribes of Israel was taken up to support political and religious positions on diverse issues including Christian millennialism national expansion trade policies Jewish rights sovereignty in the Americas and scientific exploration Through analysis of a wide collection of writings from religious texts to novels Fenton sheds light on a rarely explored but important part of religious discourse in early America As the Hebraic

Indian theory evolved over the course of two centuries it revealed how religious belief and national interest intersected in early American history The Atlantic Monthly, 1899 Pathos and Praxis Scott Davidson, 2025-04 Pathos and Praxis presents a new and original framework for an integrated phenomenology of life It provides the first comparative study of two influential French philosophers Paul Ricoeur and Michel Henry and shows that their debates over the interpretation of Sigmund Freud and Karl Marx signal two rival approaches to the phenomenology of life Author Scott Davidson demonstrates that while Henry reveals the phenomenological meaning of life through an inward turn to a pure subjective feeling of being alive Ricoeur anchors its significance in the reciprocal interaction between the self and the world But these two alternatives are not necessarily opposed Pathos and Praxis proposes an integrated phenomenology of life to which both Henry and Ricoeur make an important contribution To be a self is to suffer the pathos of having a life but also to be capable of engaging in the praxis of leading a life By thinking the pathos and praxis of life together the integrated approach preserves human agency against deterministic conceptions of life and at the same time avoids the meritocratic hubris that depicts one's life solely as the result of one's own doing This integration of having and leading a life reframes our thinking about human capabilities and vulnerabilities in a way that has important implications for biopolitics and the ethics of life Country Life, 1910 The Power of Stories Allan Guggenbühl, 2023-08-01 Often lips are sealed and delicate topics avoided when children or adolescents are in a conflict situation or have experienced a trauma Psychologists psychotherapist teachers are challenged and must find alternative ways to connect to the individual or group Talking alone is not sufficient In this book Volume 7 of the Zurich Lecture Series a therapeutic method and conflict management approach is presented which is successfully employed in group work with children and adolescents in despair or in a conflict situation Mythodramas main focus are specially selected stories which mirror the issues of the respective group connect to the issues of the group and serve as an entrance to the imaginal The book describes how the stories are selected told enacted and linked to the issues and concerns of the group or individual Mythodrama is a potent method based on Jungian psychology which helps groups to move on express their emotions concerns and get motivated to find solutions Mythodrama has successfully been applied in groups consisting of traumatised children or adolescents violent youth bullies victims of aggression adolescents with identity crises etc Mythodrama is also a method which is employed in conflict management in schools The key elements of Mythodrama are Stories Play Imagination Drama and Concrete Changes Allan Guggenbühl is a Psychologist Prof emeritus of the University of Education of the State of Zurich Director of the Institute for Conflict management IKM AG in Zurich and former director of the department for group psychotherapy at the education counselling centre in Bern He grew up in Omaha Nebraska and Zurich Switzerland He is one the most renowned child and adolescent psychologist of Switzerland and an accomplished book author in the German speaking world Guggenbühl gives lectures on a regular basis in China Japan and the neighbouring EU Countries of Switzerland He is an author of numerous articles NZZ and has written books on adolescents

ABC of Inner World Dr. Swaran J. Omcaur, 2014-05 We have come to a stage where we have to choose a purpose Whether to make human mind a fact gathering machine or a tool for realization Whether to overstuff the mind with data and or to use it as a breather of novelty We have reached the saturation point of information which we cannot decide how to use for humanity We have marvelous understanding of universe and our existence and whether duality or non duality best defines it We have understood a lot regarding God individual soul and regarding universality of humanity Beyond that we ever remain helpless insecure and disease ridden creatures of course violent and over competitive too Our relentless intellectual expedition is taking away one serious purpose of our existence To move from the contingent subject position and enter into the real subjective awareness of both inner and outer world is the missing purpose The ABC talks about that purpose Whether to keep pressing absurd intellectual understanding of this pointless universe or defer it for awhile and come to a bit of realization It talks about putting phased end to institutionalized construction of intellectual mind which eats away the best years of life It talks about silently entering into depths of realization that surpasses all understanding Library of Congress Subject Headings
