Dissociation in Traumatized Children and Adolescents Sandra Wieland, 2015-03-27 Dissociation in Traumatized Children and Adolescents presents a series of unique and compelling case studies written by some of the foremost international experts in the study of dissociation in young people In the new edition chapters have been updated to include discussion of the most recent findings in trauma and neuroscience as well as Joyanna Silberg's popular affect avoidance model In addition Sandra Wieland's incisive commentaries on each case study have been updated Each chapter presents a detailed narrative of a therapist's work with a child or adolescent interspersed with the therapist's own thought process and every therapist explains the theory and research behind her clinical decisions The case studies present many aspects of working with traumatized children attachment work trauma processing work with the family interactions with the community psychoeducation related to dissociation and encouragement of communication between the dissociated parts and provide a frank analysis of the difficulties clinicians encounter in various therapeutic situations While the book is exceptional in its clear and detailed descriptions of theory related to dissociation in children most importantly it illustrates how theory can be translated into successful therapeutic interactions Children Behind Bars Carolyn Willow,2015-02-11 Every day children exiled to prison are exposed to abusive and neglectful treatment yet their plight is hidden Based on wide ranging research and first person interviews this passionately argued book presents the shocking truth about the lives and deaths of children in custody Drawing on human rights legislation and progress in the care and treatment of vulnerable children elsewhere it outlines the harsh realities of penal child custody including hunger denial of fresh air cramped and dirty cells strip searching segregation the authorised infliction of severe pain uncivilised conditions for suicidal children and ever present violence and intimidation The issues are explored through the lens of protection not punishment and the author finds there can be only one conclusion child prisons must close Providing a compelling manifesto for urgent and radical change this book should be read by everyone who cares about child protection and human rights The Anti-Racist Writing Workshop Felicia Rose Chavez,2021-01-05 The Antiracist Writing Workshop is a call to create healthy sustainable and empowering artistic communities for a new millennium of writers Inspired by June Jordan s 1995 Poetry for the People here is a blueprint for a 21st century workshop model that protects and platforms writers of color Instead of earmarking dusty anthologies imagine workshop participants Skyping with contemporary writers of difference Instead of tolerating bigoted criticism imagine workshop participants moderating their own feedback sessions Instead of yielding to the red penned judgement of instructors imagine workshop participants citing their own text in dialogue The Antiracist Writing Workshop is essential reading for anyone looking to revolutionize the old workshop model into an enlightened democratic counterculture

"Aristocrat" and "the Community" Nicholas J. Pappas,2010 Aristocrat and The Community are dialogues that take place among friends through the course of a night Aristocrat is concerned with what it means to want to rule with the comparison of aristocracy to democracy and with duty The friends begin by touching upon excellence aristocracy s traditional claim to rule They soon come to question whether there are in fact but two true claims to rule force or a system of belief In addition they ponder their commitment to the cause a potentially transpolitical cause Aristocrat attempts to answer several whats what is the cause what does it involve and what does it mean to serve The Community attempts to demonstrate a how how to create the new city a new city determined to set itself apart from the outside world Discussions of the degree to which quality can be controlled from above and debates over the degree of control versus freedom that would make the city an ideal place to live are interwoven with a concern for viability represented by the Bank whose interests it seems must always be taken into account Is the creation of an ideal community an effort that is doomed to be utopian Journal of the Society of Arts ,1899 Doing the Will of the Father Ricky Tutor,2010-02-20 A miracle took place two thousand years ago God Almighty laid aside His glory and appeared on earth as a man For a brief time in His earthly existence He emptied Himself of His divinity and literally became a man in every way This is precisely what happened the day Jesus was born in Bethlehem He humbled Himself to the level and status of man to become equal with the ones He created This lifes journey is a test for mankind to see who is going to heaven and who is going to hell when they die Jesus said Not everyone who says to me Lord Lord will enter the kingdom of heaven but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter Jesus came not only to die for the sins of the world but also to show us by example how to do the will of the Father
