The Ilahita Arapesh Dimensions Of Unity:

The Ilahita Arapesh Donald F. Tuzin, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1976 Nexus Yuval Noah Harari, 2025-09-16 1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER From the author of Sapiens comes the groundbreaking story of how information networks have made and unmade our world Strikingly original A historian whose arguments operate on the scale of millennia has managed to capture the zeitgeist perfectly The Economist This deeply important book comes at a critical time as we all think through the implications of AI and automated content production Masterful and provocative Mustafa Suleyman author of The Coming Wave For the last 100 000 years we Sapiens have accumulated enormous power But despite all our discoveries inventions and conquests we now find ourselves in an existential crisis The world is on the verge of ecological collapse Misinformation abounds And we are rushing headlong into the age of AI a new information network that threatens to annihilate us For all that we have accomplished why are we so self destructive Nexus looks through the long lens of human history to consider how the flow of information has shaped us and our world Taking us from the Stone Age through the canonization of the Bible early modern witch hunts Stalinism Nazism and the resurgence of populism today Yuval Noah Harari asks us to consider the complex relationship between information and truth bureaucracy and mythology wisdom and power He explores how different societies and political systems throughout history have wielded information to achieve their goals for good and ill And he addresses the urgent choices we face as non human intelligence threatens our very existence Information is not the raw material of truth neither is it a mere weapon Nexus explores the hopeful middle ground between these extremes and in doing so rediscovers our shared humanity Rituals of Manhood Gilbert H. Herdt, 2017-09-08 Rituals of Manhood provides some of the most dramatic and richly textured accounts of ritual passages known to anthropologists of the late twentieth century When in an earlier time anthropologists and sociologists described collective initiation rituals the political and gender aspects of these practices were seldom underscored Today the power relationships of the body and domination and the social arena of gender politics are widely regarded as critical to the cultural meaning and interpretation Mangrove Man David Lipset, 1997-11-13 The first modern ethnography of the Murik a relatively large and important community settled on the Sepik River estuary in Papua New Guinea Gender in Amazonia and Melanesia Thomas Gregor, Donald Tuzin, 2001-11 Amazonia and Melanesia are half a world in distance yet their cultures bear similarities in the areas of sex and gender This work looks at ways in which sex and gender are elaborated obsessed over and internalized Self-Destruction of Complex Systems Kirill Postoutenko, 2025-01-27 This book is the first attempt to provide a general theory of self destruction in complex systems applicable to natural social and cultural phenomena The contributors work collaboratively to prove that many of the nondistributed complex systems in nature and society sooner or later experience critical development leading to unintended and irreversible self annihilation The individual chapters also show that the relations of such systems to their own distinctiveness and other systems may result in specific communicative pathologies such as redundancy inflation and noisy signalling which tend to mitigate or reinforce each other depending on circumstances Finally the volume updates some popular models of systemic self destruction from autoimmunity and self organized criticality to imperial overstretch and discusses some prominent cases from supernova explosions to the civil war following the Russian Revolution of 1917 The interdisciplinary style of narration ensures the accessibility of the materials and theories presented for the specialists and students from different fields As such it will appeal to those interested in complexity studies from the areas of sociology history media and communication studies immunology computer science literary criticism cultural studies political science and international relations

Echoes of the Tambaran Paul Roscoe, David Lipset, 2011-10-01 In the Sepik Basin of Papua New Guinea ritual culture was dominated by the Tambaran a male tutelary spirit that acted as a social and intellectual guardian or patron to those under its aegis as they made their way through life To Melanesian scholarship the cultural and psychological anthropologist Donald F Tuzin was something of a Tambaran a figure whose brilliant and fine grained ethnographic project in the Arapesh village of Ilahita was immensely influential within and beyond New Guinea anthropology Tuzin died in 2007 at the age of 61 In his memory the editors of this collection commissioned a set of original and thought provoking essays from eminent and accomplished anthropologists who knew and were influenced by his work They are echoes of the Tambaran The anthology begins with a biographical sketch of Tuzin s life and scholarship It is divided into four sections each of which focuses loosely around one of his preoccupations The first concerns warfare history the male cult and changing masculinity all in Melanesia The second addresses the relationship between actor and structure Here the ethnographic focus momentarily shifts to the Caribbean before turning back to Papua new Guinea in essays that examine uncanny phenomena narratives about childhood and messianic promises The third part goes on to offer comparative and psychoanalytic perspectives on the subject in Fiji Bali the Amazon as well as Melanesia Appropriately the last section concludes with essays on Tuzin s fieldwork style and his distinctive authorial voice

Knauff, 1993-03-25 The communities of south coast New Guinea were the subject of classic ethnographies and fresh studies in recent decades have put these rich and complex cultures at the centre of anthropological debates Flamboyant sexual practices such as ritual homosexuality have attracted particular interest In the first general book on the region Dr Knauff reaches striking new comparative conclusions through a careful ethnographic analysis of sexuality the status of women ritual and cosmology political economy and violence among the region's seven major language culture areas The findings suggest new Melanesian regional contrasts and provide for a general critique of the way regional comparisons are constructed in anthropology Theories of practice and political economy as well as post modern insights are drawn upon to provide a generative theory of indigenous social and symbolic development

Attraction of Opposites David Maybury-Lewis, Uri Almogor, 2025-10-01 The Attraction of Opposites considers a puzzling phenomenon Why do societies all over the world organize their social thought and institutions in patterns of opposites The essays collected in this volume examine contemporary societies throughout the world that organize their social theories or institutions in binary form Through analysis of these rich materials the distinguished contributors explore the enduring human attraction to dualism They consider whether this is due to the natural twoness of things and if not why polarity should play such a prominent role in both ancient cosmologies and modern philosophies in early empires and in modern two party systems This study of dual organization tells us something important about human beings illuminating a mode of thought and social organization that has represented an attractive option throughout human history

Mitchell,2024-05-29 William E Mitchell revisits his early fieldwork with a three part study of the history of colonial rule in Papua New Guinea From 1971 to 1972 William E Mitchell undertook fieldwork on suffering and healing among the Lujere of Papua New Guinea s Upper Sepik River Basin At a time when it was not yet common to make colonial agencies a subject of anthropological study Mitchell carefully located his research on Lujere practices in the framework of a history of colonization that surrounded the Lujere with a shifting array of Western institutions dramatically changing their society forever Mitchell s work has been well known among anthropologists of Oceania but the material in this book has remained unpublished until now In this major new work Mitchell revisits his early fieldwork with a three part study of the history of colonial rule in the region the social organization of Lujere life at the time and the forms of affliction witchcraft and curing that preoccupied them Furthermore Mitchell offers the first sweeping cross cultural survey of sanguma magical murder in Oceania The book presents a vivid portrait of a society that has since changed dramatically as well as an approach to anthropology that was typical of the era This is a significant contribution to the ethnography of Papua New Guinea and is sure to be an invaluable source for researchers of Melanesia medical anthropologists and scholars of kinship myth and ritual The Cassowary's Revenge Donald Tuzin,1997-09-02 Donald Tuzin first studied the New Guinea village of Ilahita in 1972 When he returned many years later he arrived in the aftermath of a startling event the village s men voluntarily destroyed their secret cult that had allowed them to dominate women for generations The cult s collapse indicated nothing less than the death of masculinity and Tuzin examines the labyrinth of motives behind this improbable self devastating act The villagers mythic tradition provided a basis for this revenge of Woman upon the dominion of Man and remarkably Tuzin himself became a principal figure in its narratives The return of the magic bearing youngest brother from America had been prophesied and the villagers believed that Tuzin s return from the dead signified a further need to destroy masculine traditions The Cassowary s Revenge is an intimate account of how Ilahita's men and women think, emot, dream and explain themselves. Tuzin also explores how the death of masculinity in a remote society raises disturbing implications for gender relations in our own society. In this light, Tuzin's book is about men and women in search of how to value one another and in today's world there is no theme more universal or timely.
