The Inner Eye Art Beyond The Visible:

The Inner Eye Marina Warner, 1996 The Inner Eye Marina Warner, Hayward Gallery, 1996 Exhibition held at various locations 14 September 1996 1 June 1997 Beyond the Body Elizabeth Hallam, Jenny Hockey, Glennys Howarth, 2005-08-16 The authors challenge theories that put the body at the centre of identity going beyond the body to highlight the persistence of self identity even when the body itself has been disposed of or is missing The Romare Bearden Reader Robert G. O'Meally, 2019-06-14 The Romare Bearden Reader brings together a collection of new essays and canonical writings by novelists poets historians critics and playwrights The contributors who include Toni Morrison Ralph Ellison August Wilson Farah Jasmine Griffin and Kobena Mercer contextualize Bearden's life and career within the history of modern art examine the influence of jazz and literature on his work trace his impact on twentieth century African American culture and outline his art's political dimensions Others focus on specific pieces such as A Black Odyssey or the ways in which Bearden used collage to understand African American identity The Reader also includes Bearden's most important writings which grant readers insight into his aesthetic values and practices and share his desire to tell what it means to be black in America Put simply The Romare Bearden Reader is an indispensable volume on one of the giants of twentieth century American art Contributors Elizabeth Alexander Romare Bearden Mary Lee Corlett Rachel DeLue David C Driskell Brent Hayes Edwards Ralph Ellison Henri Ghent Farah Jasmine Griffin Harry Henderson Kobena Mercer Toni Morrison Albert Murray Robert G O'Meally Richard Powell Richard Price Sally Price Myron Schwartzman Robert Burns Stepto Calvin Tomkins John Edgar Wideman August Wilson Marina Warner and the Ethics of Telling Silenced Stories Lisa Propst, 2020-12-17 Efforts to fight back against silencing are central to social justice movements and scholarly fields such as feminist and postcolonial studies But claiming to give voice to people who have been silenced always risks appropriating those people's stories Lisa Propst argues that the British novelist and public intellectual Marina Warner offers some of the most provocative contemporary interventions into this dilemma Tracing her writing from her early journalism to her novels short stories and studies of myths and fairy tales Propst shows that in Warner's work features such as stylized voices and narrative silences tales that Warner's books hint at but never tell question the authority of the writer to tell other people's stories At the same time they demonstrate the power of literature to make new ethical connections between people inviting readers to reflect on whom they are responsible to and how they are implicated in social systems that perpetuate silencing By exploring how to combat silencing through narrative without reproducing it Marina Warner and the Ethics of Telling Silenced Stories takes up an issue crucial not just to literature and art but to journalists policy makers human rights activists and all people striving to formulate their own responses to injustice Phantasmagoria Marina Warner, 2006 With over thirty illustrations in color and black and white Phantasmagoria takes readers on an intellectually exhilarating tour of ideas of spirit and soul in the modern world illuminating key questions of imagination and cognition Warner tells the unexpected and often disturbing story about shifts in thought about consciousness and the individual person from the first public waxworks portraits at the end of the eighteenth century to stories of hauntings possession and loss of self in modern times She probes the perceived distinctions between fantasy and deception and uncovers a host of spirit forms angels ghosts fairies revenants and zombies that are still actively present in contemporary culture

Structure Wendy Pullan, Harshad Bhadesia, 2000-10-12 Bridges and buildings DNA the periodic table flora and fauna machines circuits human beings and the societies of which they are part even thoughts and ideas all can be understood as particular structures which are part of our world and our experience of it Yet the notion of structure whether organic or inorganic natural or artificial is far more intangible Too often the implication is of something rigid and complete yet structure and the process of structuring can be both open and dynamic These eight essays consider structure as an inclusive open ended theme offering itself to interpretation within many disciplines of the sciences arts and humanities Each essay represents an attempt to ponder and assess the role of structure in a particular discipline by an author eminent in that field In doing so the essays become acts of structuring structure true to the rich dynamic nature of the topic

Stilgoe,2014-03-04 Glamour subverts convention Models images and even landscapes can skew ordinary ways of seeing when viewed through the lens of photography suggesting new worlds imbued with fantasy mystery sexuality and tension In Old Fields John Stilgoe one of the most original observers of his time offers a poetic and controversial exploration of the generations long effort to portray glamour Fusing three forces in contemporary American culture amateur photography after 1880 the rise of glamour and fantasy and the often mysterious quality of landscape photographs Stilgoe provides a wide ranging yet concentrated take on the cultural legacy of our photographic history Through the medium of shop theory the techniques tools and purpose made equipment a maker uses to realize intent Stilgoe looks at the role of Eastman Kodak in shaping the ways photographers purchased cameras and films while also mapping the divisions that were created by

European made cameras He then goes on to argue that with the proliferation of digital cameras smart phones and Instagram young people s lack of knowledge about photographic technique is in direct correlation to their lack of knowledge of the history of glamour photography In his exploration of the rise of glamour and fantasy in contemporary American culture Stilgoe offers a provocative and very personal look into his enduring fascination with and the possibilities inherent in creating one s own images photography and the late fiction of Lewis Carroll The Ekphrastic Encounter in Contemporary British Poetry and Elsewhere David Kennedy, 2016-03-23 Examining a wide range of ekphrastic poems David Kennedy argues that contemporary British poets writing out of both mainstream and avant garde traditions challenge established critical models of ekphrasis with work that is more complex than representational or counter representational responses to paintings in museums and galleries Even when the poem appears to be straightforwardly representational it is often selectively so producing a virtual work that doesn't exist in actuality Poets such as Kelvin Corcoran Peter Hughes and Gillian Clarke Kennedy suggests relish the ekphrastic encounter as one in which word and image become mutually destabilizing Similarly other poets engage with the source artwork as a performance that participates in the ethical realm Showing that the ethical turn in ekphrastic poetry is often powerfully gendered Kennedy also surveys a range of ekphrastic poets from the Renaissance and nineteenth century to trace a tradition of female ekphrastic poetry that includes Pauline Stainer and Frances Presley Kennedy concludes with a critique of ekphrastic exercises in creative writing teaching proposing that ekphrastic writing that takes greater account of performance spectatorship may offer more fruitful models for the classroom than the narrativizing of images A
