Cannon, 2014-01-10 Designed for public librarians school media specialists teachers and anyone with an interest in supporting teen literacy this book features 133 nonfiction booktalks to use with both voracious and reluctant teen readers These booktalks cover a wide and varied range of nonfiction genres including science nature history biography graphic novels true crime art and much more Each includes a set of discussion questions and sample project ideas which could be easily expanded into a classroom lesson plan or full library program Also included are several guidelines for classroom integration tips for making booktalks more interactive and interesting and selections for further reading Science and its Publics Alice R. Bell. Sarah R. Davies, Felicity Mellor, 2021-02-03 The relationship between science and its publics has concerned commentators since science itself began Yet in recent years questions of how and how should science and society interact have come to particular prominence A field of practice initially dubbed public understanding of science and later rebranded as public engagement with science and technology has blossomed But although academic studies have informed the development of this practical field to date there has been little opportunity to take stock of the full breadth and variety of academic analyses of science communication In an attempt to reveal the richness of the nascent field of science communication studies this volume presents critical interdisciplinary analyses of some of the many ways in which science intersects with its publics From children s science books to computer advertising news media to lab talk public engagement to science fiction the sites modes and meanings of public science are explored Contributions draw on historical cultural science and media studies All however follow science through popular culture taking critical science studies out of the lab and into society
