The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay, 2019-12-05 For many Canadians the small province of New Brunswick on Canada's scenic east coast is a nice place to visit but no place to live plagued for generations by outmigration and economic stagnation In The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay challenges this potent stereotype by showcasing the work of a group of literary modernists who set out to change the meaning of New Brunswick in the national lexicon Alfred Bailey Desmond Pacey Fred Cogswell and a formidable group of local poets and cultural workers collectively New Brunswick's Fiddlehead School sought to restore New Brunswick's literary reputation by adapting avant garde modernist practices to the contours of the province opening it to the contemporary world while also encouraging writers to make it their subject The result was a non urban form of modernism that was as responsive to technical innovation as to the human geographies of New Brunswick By placing New Brunswick writers and critics at the forefront of Canadian literature in the midcentury modernist project Tremblay adds an important new chapter to our understanding of Canadian modernism The Fiddlehead Moment is the first critical examination of this group s considerable influence Whether through Bailey s ethnomethodology Pacey s critical ordering or Cogswell's editorial eclecticism in the Fiddlehead magazine and Fiddlehead Poetry Books authors in New Brunswick Tremblay argues had a profound impact on writing in Canada Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Arkansas Narratives (Complete) United States Work Projects Administration, 2020-09-28 I was born in Chickashaw County Mississippi Ely Abbott and Maggie Abbott was our owners They had three girls and two boys Eddie and Johnny We played together till I was grown I loved em like if they was brothers Papa and Mos Ely went to war together in a two horse top buggy They both come back when they got through There was eight of us children and none was sold none give way My parents name Peter and Mahaley Abbott My father never was sold but my mother was sold into this Abbott family for a house girl She cooked and washed and ironed No m she wasn t a wet nurse but she tended to Eddie and Johnny and me all alike She whoop them when they needed and Miss Maggie whoop me That the way we grow d up Mos Ely was ceptionly good I recken No m I never heard of him drinkin whiskey They made cider and simmon beer every year Grandpa was a soldier in the war He fought in a battle I don't know the battle He wasn't hurt He come home and told us how awful it was My parents stayed on at Mos Ely s and my uncle s family stayed on He give my uncle a home and twenty acres of ground and my parents same mount to run a gin I drove two mules my brother drove two and we drove two more between us and run the gin My auntie seen somebody go in the gin one night but didn t think bout them settin it on fire They had a torch I recken in there All I knowed it burned up and Mos Ely had to take our land back and sell it to pay for four or five hundred bales of cotton got burned up that time We stayed on and sharecropped with him We lived between Egypt and Okolona Mississippi Aberdeen was our tradin point The Faces Behind the Chains: Thousands of Interviews, Memoirs & Life Stories of Former Slaves Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Austin

Gaines, Willie Lynch, Margaretta Matilda Odell, Joseph Mountain, 2023-12-25 The Faces Behind the Chains Thousands of Interviews Memoirs Life Stories of Former Slaves is an extraordinary anthology that traverses a multitude of narratives surrounding slavery freedom and identity in the English speaking world The collection spans a gamut of literary styles from the gripping immediacy of firsthand accounts to reflective memoirs and socially driven treatises Standout pieces include chilling recollections and enlightening narratives that offer both harrowing truths and moments of resilience and hope providing an intimate tapestry of human experience against the backdrop of systemic oppression This collection captures the emotional and historical spectrum of the slave experience making it indispensable for understanding the complex legacies of slavery The compendium brings together a diverse group of voices including those of Aphra Behn Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs and Booker T Washington whose contributions have significantly shaped discussions about slavery and its aftermath These authors hailing from various historical and cultural backgrounds offer invaluable insights into the socio political dynamics of their times Many of them were pivotal figures in movements like abolitionism and civil rights and their narratives collectively amplify the chorus of struggle and defiance against the forces of dehumanization forging a crucial link to contemporary understandings of race and justice Readers are provided with a unique scholarly opportunity to explore a rich amalgamation of perspectives that enlightens and educates The anthology serves as a profound educational resource and a catalyst for discussion navigating through the converging paths of personal stories and broader historical currents It enriches the reader's comprehension of the multifaceted nature of slavery and freedom with its profound collection of voices promising to inspire reflection and foster dialogue This volume is an essential addition to any scholarly library offering a compelling invitation to engage with some of the most significant narratives of human endurance The Friends of Meager Fortune David Adams Richards, 2011-07-27 With The Friends of Meager and moral courage Fortune award winning author David Adams Richards continues his exploration of New Brunswick's Miramichi Valley and the universal human matters that concern us all A story of good and evil fate and hope set against the background of a logging town on the brink of change Will Jameson has a temperament of iron standing up to men twice his age when he takes over the Jameson lumber company after his father's death His younger brother Owen is sensitive literary and fanciful But when Will dies suddenly and Owen s beloved Lula rejects him Owen s deeper character comes to light joining the army in the hope of getting himself killed instead Owen returns home a decorated war hero Then he falls in love with the beautiful childlike Camellia the wife of Will's old friend Reggie Glidden and soon Owen and Camellia find themselves watched on all sides caught in the teeth of an entire town s gossip and hypocrisy Inexorably they are pulled into a chain of events that will end with death disappearance and a sensational trial At the same time realizing his destiny Owen takes over the family business and begins what will become the greatest cut in New Brunswick history his men setting up camp on the notoriously dangerous Good Friday Mountain The teamsters spend months in fierce ice and snow daily pitting themselves against nature and risking their lives for scant reward in the last moments before the coming of mechanization that will make them obsolete This heroic brutal life is all Meager Fortune the camp keeper knows A good and innocent man he shows unexpected resolution in the face of the betrayals of the more worldly men around him International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who s Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes As Though Life Mattered Patricia Morley, 1994-03-09 Born of Irish immigrant stock Kennedy earned his own living from the age of fourteen after his formal education ended at Grade Six In a circle of privilege he was the outsider Despite this his intelligence imagination and wit coupled with an intense love of language and learning opened many doors Kennedy's choices in religion friendship marriage and business were deeply influenced by the same yearning for justice and defence of humane values that informed his verse stories and essays A successfully published poet at the age of 26 The Shrouding 1933 Kennedy soon left his literary world for that of the emerging business of advertising in order to support his family during the Depression Acknowledging Kennedy's tendency to embroider the facts of his life a tendency rooted in the same talent that made him an important poet and an extremely successful advertising copywriter in corporate America Patricia Morley traces the roots of Kennedy's preoccupations and the development of his art from his birth in Liverpool in 1907 to his self described exile in the United States His return to Canada in 1976 brought renewed public recognition of his place among the Montreal Poets Kennedy experienced culture shock yet he thrived and in blackly comic letters raged against the youth culture of his grandsons and the ironies of aging With sympathy and insight into the vulnerability of genius Morley catches the triumph of a most unusual life and restores a forgotten writer to his rightful place Pilgrim Souls Jim Lotz, 2013-09-18 This memoir focuses on an experience all of us dread Pat Lotz was an accomplished author and editor active in her community and a loving wife and mother She succumbed to dementia which was later diagnosed as Alzheimer's at the age of 81 Jim Lotz her husband and himself the author of more than 20 books became her primary caregiver and spent six years in this role before her death in 2012 Growing numbers of people are falling victim to dementia and the condition challenges health care professionals and the health care system because there is no cure or treatment Many people unexpectedly find themselves in the same role as Jim caregiver because they don t want to see their loved ones institutionalized before it is necessary But caring for someone suffering from dementia is enormously challenging and there are very few places to look for useful information and guidance Jim s experiences offer insight understanding and hope for others facing the same situation The past is often key to understanding the present for someone caring for a person with dementia A caregiver who has shared a life is often able to understand what others could hardly guess at Time and again in Jim s narrative he is able to bring the perspective of his knowledge of Pat her values her loves her fears and her life experiences to shed a light that makes her words and actions more understandable For many the best approach to coming to grips with dementia has been through the worlds of literature and film To these resources we can now add Jim Lotz s moving and compelling account of his life with his wife Pat before and after the onset of her dementia In Pilgrim Souls Jim has written a clear eyed emotionally honest and tremendously moving love story

Making Canada New Dean Irvine, Vanessa Lent, Bart Vautour, 2017-01-01 An examination of the connections between modernist writers and editorial activities Making Canada New draws links among new and old media collaborative labour emergent scholars and scholarships and digital modernisms In doing so the collection reveals that renovating modernisms does not need to depend on the fabrication of completely new modes of scholarship Rather it is the repurposing of already existing practices and combining them with others whether old or new print or digital that instigates a process of continuous renewal Critical to this process of renewal is the intermingling of print and digital research methods and the coordination of more popular modes of literary scholarship with less frequented ones such as bibliography textual studies and editing Making Canada New tracks the editorial renovation of modernism as a digital phenomenon while speaking to the continued The Voices From The Margins: Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves Work production of print editions Projects Administration, 2023-12-23 In The Voices From The Margins Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves the Work Projects Administration presents an invaluable oral history that captures the raw and poignant narratives of formerly enslaved individuals in the United States This collection embodies a unique literary style marked by an authentic and unfiltered voice inviting readers into the lived experiences of those who navigated the deep traumas of slavery and the complexities of freedom Contextually situated within the New Deal era this work serves as a vital historical document reflecting both the social and political climate of the time while also spotlighting the resilience of human spirit through personal testimonies The Work Projects Administration established to provide jobs during the Great Depression commissioned this profound project to document American life particularly the experiences of marginalized communities This undertaking was motivated by a desire to preserve the voices of individuals who had been systematically silenced and forgotten within historical narratives. The meticulous effort to record their stories generated a wealth of material that highlights not just the horrors of their past but their hopes and aspirations in the face of adversity Voices From The Margins is highly recommended for readers interested in history sociology and African American literature Engaging with this book means immersing oneself in the once silenced voices that illuminate the dark corners of America's past while enriching our understanding of resilience and identity This collection not only contributes to historical discourse but also invites reflection on broader themes of liberation and humanity When We Were Slaves Work Projects Administration, 2023-12-18 In the poignant anthology When We Were Slaves the Works Progress Administration WPA documents the harrowing narratives of formerly enslaved individuals in the United States This collection weaves together oral histories that vividly recount the brutality and dehumanization faced by enslaved people juxtaposed against their enduring resilience and culture Written in a direct yet evocative style the text serves as an invaluable record of American history reflecting the WPA s broader mission to capture and preserve the voices of marginalized communities during the Great Depression The juxtaposition of personal testimonies with broader social commentary situates these narratives within a comprehensive examination of systemic injustice and human endurance The Works Progress Administration was an essential agency during the New Deal dedicated to providing jobs and fostering cultural projects The collection emerged from a vast initiative to document the legacies of slavery through interviews with individuals who experienced it first hand This endeavor was not only a means of preserving history but also aimed at acknowledging the cultural impact of slavery on American society When We Were Slaves is a crucial read for anyone seeking to understand the realities of slavery its lasting effects on American society and the importance of storytelling in seeking justice and healing This book offers a powerful connection to the past and challenges readers to confront the complexities of history The Voices From The Past - Hundreds of Testimonies by Former Slaves In One Volume Work Projects Administration, 2023-12-11 In The Voices From The Past Hundreds of Testimonies by Former Slaves In One Volume the Work Projects Administration compiles a remarkable collection of firsthand accounts from former enslaved individuals shedding light on their experiences and the complexities of slavery in America The book s literary style is characterized by authentic vernacular and vivid personal narratives allowing readers to connect with the raw emotion and resilience underlying each testimony This compilation not only serves as a historical document but also positions itself within the tradition of oral history making an invaluable contribution to the understanding of African American experiences in the antebellum and postbellum periods The Work Projects Administration was established during the Great Depression as part of New Deal initiatives aiming to provide employment through public works programs In this context collecting slave narratives became a means to preserve an essential part of American history while simultaneously offering work opportunities to writers and historians This intersection of socio economic necessity and cultural preservation showcases the WPA s commitment to documenting the voices often silenced in mainstream narratives I highly recommend The Voices From The Past to anyone interested in American history African American studies or oral history By engaging with these testimonies readers will gain profound insights into the lived realities of former slaves while encountering the broader implications of their stories which resonate with modern discussions on race identity and social justice David Adams Richards of the Miramichi Tony Tremblay, 2010-04-15 Widely considered to be one of Canada's most important authors David Adams Richards has been honoured with a Giller Prize and two Governor General's Literary Awards Despite this there has been a dearth of critical appraisal of his life and works In David Adams Richards of the Miramichi Tony Tremblay sheds light not only on Richards art and achievements but also on Canadian literary criticism in general Tremblay maps out the early influences on Richards thinking and writing by drawing on interviews archival records and cultural studies of New Brunswick He argues that the author is a more sophisticated craftsman than his critical reception has assumed and makes the case for a more nuanced analysis of his works Equal parts literary biography literary criticism and cultural study of New Brunswick David Adams Richards of the Miramichi provides a rare glimpse into the struggles and triumphs of a New Brunswick artist in a national and provincial milieu The Memories of Slavery - Complete Collection Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Austin Steward, Ida B. Wells-Barnett, Moses Grandy, William Still, Nat Turner, Henry Bibb, Olaudah Equiano, Sojourner Truth, Mary Prince, Kate Drumgoold, Frederick Douglass, Brantz Mayer, Theodore Canot, Booker T. De Fontaine, Henry Box Brown, John Dixon Long, Harriet Jacobs, Jacob D. Green, Work Projects Administration, Thomas S. Gaines, Willie Lynch, Margaretta Matilda Odell, Joseph Mountain, 2023-12-30 The Memories of Slavery Complete Collection is an unparalleled anthology that captures the multifaceted narratives of slavery and resilience This comprehensive collection brings together a wide range of literary styles from poignant autobiographical accounts to incisive essays and thrilling narratives The thematic richness is reflected in the diversity of experiences offering profound insight into the era's social and political intricacies Standout works provide compelling depictions of both the brutality of slavery and the indomitable spirit of those who resisted and survived The contributing authors including trailblazers like Frederick Douglass Sojourner Truth and Harriet Jacobs provide an invaluable mosaic of perspectives that illuminate the historical and cultural contexts of their times This anthology aligns with key historical movements especially the abolitionist and civil rights movements revealing the varied voices that speak to the shared struggle for freedom and dignity The remarkable range of contributors from those firsthand accounts by slaves to influential figures in abolitionism and beyond collectively enriches the tapestry of human resilience and justice For those eager to explore the depths of this tumultuous and defining chapter in history The Memories of Slavery Complete Collection offers an unparalleled educational journey Dive into a trove of perspectives that capture the complexities of human endurance and the enduring fight for equality This anthology is an essential resource for its breadth of insights and the dialogue it fosters between different authors works each offering a unique lens through which to view and understand the caustic legacies of slavery and the hope for a more equitable future Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume 2 a revision of Part IV of the original edition covers the period from about 1920 to 1960 The contributors to this volume are Desmond Pacey William Kilbourn Henry B Mayo Millar MacLure John Webster Grant Thomas A Goudge Elizabeth Waterston Brandon Conron Jay Macpherson Sheila A Egoff Michael Tait Hugo McPherson Munro Beattie and Northrop Frye New Brunswick at the Crossroads Tony Tremblay, 2017-10-25 What is the relationship between literature and the society in which it incubates Are there common political social and economic factors that predominate during periods of heightened literary activity New Brunswick at the Crossroads Literary Ferment and Social Change in the East considers these questions and explores the relationships between periods of creative ferment in New Brunswick and the socio cultural conditions of those times The province s literature is ideally suited to such a study because of its bicultural character in both English and French periods of intense literary creativity occurred at different times and for different reasons What emerges is a cultural geography in New Brunswick that has existed not in isolation from the rest of Canada but often at the creative forefront of imagined alternatives in identity and citizenship At a time when cultural industries are threatened by forces that seek to negate difference and impose uniformity New Brunswick at the Crossroads provides an understanding of the intersection of cultures and social economies contributing to critical discussions about what constitutes the creative in Canadian society especially in rural non central spaces like New Brunswick THE VOICES FROM THE MARGINS: Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves from 17 American States Work Projects Administration, 2017-10-16 Musaicum Books presents to you this carefully created volume of THE VOICES FROM THE MARGINS Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves from 17 American States This ebook has been designed and formatted to the highest digital standards and adjusted for readability on all devices Step back in time and meet everyday people from another era This edition brings to you the complete collection of hundreds of life stories incredible vivid testimonies of former slaves from 17 U S southern states including photos of the people being interviewed and their extraordinary narratives After the end of Civil War in 1865 more than four million slaves were set free There were several efforts to record the remembrances of the former slaves The Federal Writers Project was one such project by the United States federal government to support writers during the Great Depression by asking them to interview and record the myriad stories and experiences of slavery of former slaves. The resulting collection preserved hundreds of life stories from 17 U S states that would otherwise have been lost in din of modernity and America's eagerness to deliberately forget the blot on its recent past Contents Alabama Arkansas Florida Georgia Indiana Kansas Kentucky Maryland Mississippi Missouri North Carolina Ohio Oklahoma South Carolina Tennessee Texas Virginia Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Inward of Poetry George Johnston, William Blissett, 2014-05-14 Inward of Poetry presents fifty years of thoughtful and by turns chatty letters between poet George Johnston and his good friend and frequent editor the scholar William Blissett Edited by former student Sean Kane this lively collection includes several hitherto unpublished Johnston poems and reveals the development and creative necessities of one of Canada's revered poets and translators Canada ,1972-12-15 Did he ever play Hamlet Has she worked in television What was the title of his first novel Under whom did she study How many children has he Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible Marqin of Interest Shane Neilson, 2019-09-24 As Shane Neilson writes in Marqin of Interest Maritime poetry is the sum of what s come before a unique history and yes a unique place In Margin of Interest Neilson examines representation identity power and the politics of literary history from the creative traditions of the Mi kmag to the work of young poets today He pays due homage to iconic Maritime writers Milton Acorn Alden Nowlan George Elliott Clarke shines a critical spotlight on lesser known masters from the region Travis Lane Wayne Clifford and provides a glimpse inside the diverse ecosystem of poets under 40 writing in or about the Maritimes Rebecca Thomas Lucas Crawford El Jones He also combats the prejudices so often applied to writers from Atlantic Canada stigma associated with mental illness rigid gendering vernacular language and even poetic form and advocates for a long overdue reappropriation of the regionalist stance as well as a proper recognition of the region s writers and their contribution to the Canadian literary landscape For as Neilson wisely asks What s the matter with taking pride in any kind of regional identity that we articulate
