Subject Of Violence:

The Misinterpellated Subject James R. Martel, 2017-02-02 Although Haitian revolutionaries were not the intended audience for the Declaration of the Rights of Man they heeded its call demanding rights that were not meant for them This failure of the French state to address only its desired subjects is an example of the phenomenon James R Martel labels misinterpellation Complicating Althusser's famous theory Martel explores the ways that such failures hold the potential for radical and anarchist action In addition to the Haitian Revolution Martel shows how the revolutionary responses by activists and anticolonial leaders to Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Points speech and the Arab Spring sprang from misinterpellation He also takes up misinterpellated subjects in philosophy film literature and nonfiction analyzing works by Nietzsche Kafka Woolf Fanon Ellison Ta Nehisi Coates and others to demonstrate how characters who exist on the margins offer a generally unrecognized anarchist form of power and resistance Timely and broad in scope The Misinterpellated Subject reveals how calls by authority are inherently vulnerable to radical possibilities thereby suggesting that all people at all times are filled with revolutionary potential

Performance, Feminism and Affect in Neoliberal Times Elin Diamond, Denise Varney, Candice Amich, 2017-04-29 This book is a provocative new study of global feminist activism that opposes neoliberal regimes across several sites including Asia Australia Canada Europe Latin America and the United States The feminist performative acts featured in the book contest the aggressive unravelling of collectively won gains in gender sexual and racial equality the appearance of new planes of discrimination and the social consequences of political economies based on free market ideology The investigations of affect theory follow the circulation of intensities of political impingements on bodies subjective and symbolic violence and the shock of dispossession within and beyond individuals to the social and political sphere Affect is a helpful matrix for discussing the volatile interactivity between performer and spectator whether live or technologically mediated Contending that there is no activism without affect the collection brings back to the table the activist and hopeful potential of feminism

Frantz Fanon Pramod K. Nayar, 2012-11-16 Frantz Fanon has established a position as a leading anticolonial thinker through key texts such as Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth. He has influenced the work of thinkers from Edward Said and Homi Bhabha to Paul Gilroy but his complex work is often misinterpreted as an apology for violence. This clear student friendly guidebook considers Fanon's key texts and theories looking at Postcolonial theory's appropriation of psychoanalysis, Anxieties around cultural nationalisms and the rise of native consciousness. Postcoloniality's relationship with violence and separatism. New humanism and ideas of community. Introducing the work of this controversial theorist. Pramod K Nayar also offers alternative readings charting Fanon's influence on postcolonial studies, literary criticism and cultural studies. Politics, Social Theory, Utopia and the World-System C. el-Ojeili, 2012-01-25 It is common to hear that we live in unique turbulent and crisis ridden times and this turbulence transformation and crisis are said to be deeply significant perhaps threatening for the human sciences. Responding to such claims this book provides an accessible engagement with pressing contemporary topics such as violence, social movements, equality, identity and democracy. Foregrounding the imagination of possibilities, utopia, the mapping of the present theory and the transformation of the world system, historical and global questions, the book surveys central issues and paradigms in contemporary political sociology, urging a recommitment to certain concepts and traditions for guidance in thinking and acting in the world. The Theosophical Quarterly, 1927 Myth, Montage, & Visuality in Late Medieval Manuscript Culture Marilynn Desmond, Pamela Sheingorn, 2003 A broad multidisciplinary study that uses the Epistrophe to examine the visual presentation of knowledge. Black Life Matter Biko Mandela Gray, 2022-10-14 In Black Life Matter Biko Mandela Gray offers a philosophical eulogy for Aiyana Stanley Jones, Tamir Rice, Alton Sterling and Sandra Bland that attests to their irreducible significance in the face of unrelenting police brutality. Gray employs a theoretical method he calls sitting with a philosophical practice of care that seeks to defend the dead and the living. He shows that the police who killed Stanley Jones and Rice reduced them to their bodies in ways that turn black lives into tools that the state uses to justify its violence and existence. He outlines how Bland's arrest and death reveal the affective resonances of blackness and he contends that Sterling's physical movement and speech before he was killed point to black flesh as unruly living matter that exceeds the constraints of the black body. These four black lives Gray demonstrates were more than the brutal violence enacted against them; they speak to a mode of life that cannot be fully captured by the brutal logics of antiblackness. On Freedom Peter Trawny, 2017-11-16 How do we challenge the structures of late capitalism if all possible media through which to do so is inescapably capitalist? This urgent political question is at the heart of Peter Trawny's major new work. With searing precision Trawny demonstrates how our world has become wholly determined by technology, capital and the medium. In this world of the TCM, we universal subjects remain in a state of apathy that is temporarily punctuated but also reinforced by the phantasmatic dream of difference offered us by the Hollywood machine. Our sole motivation is to gain money and the power it brings. The only meaningful difference in the world of the TCM universal is the difference between wealth and poverty.

Freedom is then only the freedom to dispose of things particularly technological objects and to gain pleasure It makes our relation to our surroundings essentially touristic and our relation to the earth an essentially exploitative one The notion of personal or societal freedom has never been more controversial or seemingly more far from our grasp While exploring in details the difficulties we face in our attempts to be free Trawny builds a vision of how to break out of the mediums in which we operate and experience a new kind of freedom Escape from the TCM universal is impossible Yet philosophy itself is the impossible So when Trawny writes that escape the other is impossible we can read this both as escape is impossible and as escape is the impossible that is the only possible escape is through philosophy     The Ages of the Black Panther Joseph J. Darowski, 2020-05-06 Black Panther was the first black superhero in mainstream comic books and his most iconic adventures are analyzed here This collection of new essays explores Black Panther s place in the Marvel universe focusing on the comic books With topics ranging from the impact apartheid and the Black Panther Party had on the comic to theories of gender and animist imagery these essays analyze individual storylines and situate them within the socio cultural framework of the time periods in which they were created drawing connections that deepen understanding of both popular culture and the movements of society Supporting characters such as Everett K Ross and T Challa s sister Shuri are also considered From his creation in 1966 by Jack Kirby and Stan Lee up through the character s recent adventures by Ta Nehisi Coates and Brian Stelfreeze more than fifty years of the Black Panther s history are addressed     New Forms of Consumption Mark Gottdiener, 2000-11-01 Consumption as a field of cultural studies overlaps with theories of postmodernism the social construction of self commodification in late capitalism and the role of mass media in daily life New forms of consumption such as those facilitated by cyberspace themed environments the commodification of sex and the increasing role of leisure in society all play new and interesting roles in daily life that combine consumerism with the most contemporary social forms This collection of essays examines the recent ways in which consumerism has been approached by cultural studies with special emphasis given to these and other newly emerging topics The book is divided into three parts The first part provides a theoretical overview of consumption studies dealing with classical and more contemporary approaches in light of the debate between advocates and critics of postmodernism In this section there are papers on McDonaldisation tourism and cultural studies and the Theory of Shopping The second part emphasizes empirical studies of the commodification process Papers address the transformation of womenOs bodies and the mass commodification of milk the creation of the toddler as a subject and the commodification of childhood the commodification of sports and the commodification of rock music The third section of the book explores new forms of consumption on a more detailed and concentrated level Papers in this section include the rise of sex tourism as a global industry the commodification of the sacred and the emergence of new consumer spaces in the city An introduction by the editor delineates the advantages of his approach to new forms of consumption based squarely in the emerging issues of cultural studies debates transcending postmodernism and the society of the spectacle

On the Arab Revolts and the Iranian Revolution Arshin Adib-Moghaddam, 2013-10-10 On the Arab Revolts and the Iranian Revolution Power and Resistance Today is the first comparative analysis of two central political events that have altered our world forever the Arab uprisings which started in Tunisia and the Iranian revolution in 1979 Adib Moghaddam demonstrates how contemporary forms of protest are changing our understanding about the way power and resistance function In a theoretical tour de force which is substantiated with a range of primary material he argues that acts of protest in Tehran to Cairo can be entirely linked to the same act in New York London Madrid and Athens Breaking through the east west north south divide Adib Moghaddam shows how the Arab revolts promise to shift the discourse away from the idea that Arabs and Muslims are peculiar that Middle Eastern Studies cannot be linked to political theory that the dynamics of rebellion there are fundamentally different from the politics of revolt here Adib Moghaddam argues that the dialectics of power and resistance are truly universal and that they are unfolding within a globalised political context that is increasingly interconnected In order to illuminate this argument theoretically the study is organised around conceptual terms that feed into forms of power and resistance such as revolution radicalism dissent knowledge neighbour and reform These terms and concepts are discussed and deconstructed via an empirical discussion of pivotal events beyond the non western world demonstrating that for a long time and without realising it we have been living in the end times of unitary categories such as west and east

Grounded Nationalisms Siniša Malešević, 2019-02-21 Globalisation is not the enemy of nationalism instead as this book shows the two forces have developed together through modern history Malešević challenges dominant views which see nationalism as a declining social force He explains why the recent escalations of populist nationalism throughout the world do not represent a social anomaly but are in fact a historical norm By focusing on ever increasing organisational capacity greater ideological penetration and networks of micro solidarity Malešević shows how and why nationalism has become deeply grounded in the everyday life of modern human beings The author explores the social dynamics of these grounded nationalisms via an analysis of varied contexts from Ireland to the Balkans His findings show that increased ideological diffusion and the rising coercive capacities of states and other organisations have enabled nationalism to expand and establish itself as the dominant operative ideology of modernity

Shattering Biopolitics Naomi Waltham-Smith, 2021-07-06 A missed phone call A misheard word An indiscernible noise

All these can make the difference between life and death Failures to listen are frequently at the root of the marginalization and exclusion of certain forms of life Audibility decides livability Shattering Biopolitics elaborates for the first time the intimate and complex relation between life and sound in recent European philosophy as well as the political stakes of this entanglement Nowhere is aurality more pivotal than in the dialogue between biopolitical theory and deconstruction about the power over and of life Closer inspection of these debates reveals that the main points of contention coalesce around figures of sound and listening inarticulate voices meaningless sounds resonant echoes syncopated rhythms animal cries bells and telephone rings Shattering Biopolitics stages a series of over hearings between Jacques Derrida and Giorgio Agamben who often mishear or completely miss hearing in trying to hear too much Notions of power and life are further diffracted as H l ne Cixous Catherine Malabou and Jean Luc Nancy join in this high stakes game of telephone This self destructive character of aurality is akin to the chanciness and risk of death that makes life all the more alive for its incalculability Punctuating the book are a series of excursions on sound art projects that interrogate aurality s subordination and resistance to biopower from racialized chokeholds and anti migrant forensic voice analysis to politicized speech acts and activist practices of listening Shattering Biopolitics advances the burgeoning field of sound studies with a new theoretically sophisticated analysis of the political imbrications of its object of inquiry Above all it is sound s capacity to shatter sovereignty as if it were a glass made to vibrate at its natural frequency that allows it to amplify and disseminate a power of life that refuses to be mastered

Conceptual Aphasia in Black P. Khalil Saucier, Tryon P. Woods, 2016-08-11 This book presents a metacritique of racial formation theory The essays within this volume explore the fault lines of the racial formation concept identify the power relations to which it inheres and resolve the ethical coordinates for alternative ways of conceiving of racism and its correlations with sexism homophobia heteronormativity gender politics empire economic exploitation and other valences of bodily construction performance and control in the twenty first century Collectively the contributors advance the argument that contemporary racial theorizing remains mired in antiblackness Across a diversity of approaches and objects of analysis the contributors assess what we describe as the conceptual aphasia gripping racial theorizing in our multicultural moment analyses of racism struck dumb when confronted with the insatiable specter of black historical struggle Victimology Leah E. Daigle, 2017-06-21 Victimology A Text Reader Second Edition engages students with the most current cutting edge articles published in the field of victimology as well as connects them to the basic concepts Unlike existing victimology textbooks this unique combination of published articles with original material presented in a mini chapter format puts each topic into context so students can develop a better understanding of the extent causes and responses to victimization Students will build a foundation in the history and development of the field of victimology will be shown the extent to which people are victimized and why will learn the specific types of victimization and will witness the interaction between the criminal justice system and victims today Haunting Violations Wendy Hesford, Wendy Kozol, 2000-11-30 Feminist critics place a premium on the real stories told by the victimized and the oppressed Haunting Violations offers a corrective to such uncritical acceptance of the real in confessional testimonial and ethnographic narratives Through close readings of a wide variety of texts contributors argue that depictions of the real are inherently performative crafted within the limits and in the interests of specific personal political or social projects Haunting Violations explores the inseparability of discourse and politics in quasi autobiographical works such as I Rigoberta Mench and When Heaven and Earth Changed Places Contributors consider how the Sri Lankan Mother's Front movement exploits the sanctity of the maternal and how multiple political purposes on both sides bleed through government documentary photographs of Japanese American concentration camp internees This volume also investigates how South Asian feminists use the authority of their personal experience to critique the film Mississippi Masala and how realist narratives such as Janet Campbell Hale's autobiographical Bloodlines Margie Strosser's documentary film Rape Stories and Shekhar Kapur's film Bandit Queen reexamine how assumptions about power and trauma are embedded in the promise of the real
