Explorations of Spirituality in American Women's Literature Scarlett Cunningham, 2023-07-07 This book connects the aging woman to the image of God in the work of Flannery O'Connor Joyce Carol Oates Alicia Ostriker Lucille Clifton Mary Szybist and Anne Babson It introduces a canon of contemporary American women's spiritual literature with the goal of showing how this literature treats aging and spirituality as major connected themes It demonstrates that such literature interacts meaningfully with feminist theology social science research on aging and body image attachment theory and narrative identity theory The book provides an interdisciplinary context for the relationship between aging and spirituality in order to confirm that US women's writing provides unique illustrations of the interconnections between aging and spirituality signaled by other fields This book demonstrates that relationships between the human and divine remain a consistent and valuable feature of contemporary women's literature and that the divine human relationship is under constant literary revision The Land of Israel in Bible, History, and Theology J.T.A.G.M. van Ruiten, Cor de Vos, 2009-05-06 This book deals with many aspects of the land of Israel In the first part the emphasis is on descriptions of the land in Joshua and other books of the Hebrew and Greek Bible In the second part the focus shifts to the land in history and theology reception history of biblical texts dealing with the land archaeology of Palestine and theological hermeneutical implications of taking the land traditions of the Bible seriously The result is a rich collection of articles on one of the main themes of the Old Testament a theme that has a fascinating although not always unproblematic reception history The Bibliophile Library of Literature, Art and Rare Manuscripts Forrest Morgan, Caroline Ticknor, 1904 Studies in the Text of the Old Testament

Dominique Barthélemy, 2012-11-01 Studies in the Text of the Old Testament offers to the English speaking world the combined introductions to the first three volumes of Dominique Barthélemy's Critique Textuelle de l'Ancien Testament CTAT was the culmination of the Hebrew Old Testament Text Project launched by the United Bible Societies in 1969 and carried out by an international team of Old Testament textual critics under the leadership of Eugene Nida As Emanuel Tov has stated these introductions form an almost complete introduction to the textual criticism of the Hebrew Bible They hold an important place in Old Testament textual criticism and can stand alone apart from the detailed discussions of the textual problems found in the volumes Part one surveys the history of OT textual criticism from its origins to J D Michaelis and presents the Hebrew Old Testament Text Project and its goals Part two describes in detail the background of the modern versions that the HOTTP took into account in its work Part three the most extensive section discusses the textual witnesses the different forms of the Hebrew text and the contribution of the ancient versions As his concluding program for a critical edition makes clear the groundbreaking work of Barthélemy and the HOTTP served as the basis for the new Biblia Hebraica Quinta which began publication in 2004 UBS undertook the HOTTP to offer Bible translators help in applying the results of textual criticism to their work but there is no doubt that many others will benefit from this work as well as the other volumes in the series Textual Criticism and the Translator The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1911 Women and the Authority of Scripture Sarah Heaner Lancaster, 2002-09-01 Addresses the theological impact of accepting the absolute authority of biblical scripture and its related issues examining how women in the church have dealt with scriptural authority while offering advice on how they can address it in the future Original Archetypes and the Fourth Gospel Brian Larsen, 2018-06-14 Employing Northrop Frye's system of archetypal literary criticism the use of romance tragedy irony and satire and comedy Brian Larsen offers a compelling summary of the essential governing framework and means of exchange between literature and theology Characters in the Fourth Gospel are examined through a specific archetype and reciprocally these characters illuminate and inform important theological aspects of their respective archetypes Jesus and romance hero story Pilate and tragedy the Jews and Thomas and irony and Peter and comedy This volume further clarifies the understanding of Frye's archetypes and identifies the key variable between each one the relationship between 1 a belief or ideal and 2 experience or reality Helping to advance dialogue between literature biblical studies and theology and providing insightful readings for a number of Fourth Gospel characters and texts Larsen's examination will appeal to those seeking a new perspective on the themes of the New Testament or those seeking theological insights into literature Catalogue of Books Exclusive of Prose Fiction in the Central Lending Library Leeds (England). Public Libraries, Art Gallery and Museum, 1907 Bible and Cinema Adele Reinhartz, 2022-03-30 Bible and Cinema An Introduction is a comprehensive examination of how the Bible has been used and represented in mainstream cinema to develop its plots characters and themes The book considers two general types of films Bible movies that retell biblical stories such as the Exodus and the life of Jesus and Bible related movies that make use of biblical books stories verses and figures and Bibles themselves to tell non biblical often fictional narratives Topics covered include the contribution of Bible and Bible related movies to the history of the Bible s reception the ways in which filmmakers make use of scripture to address and reflect their own time and place the Bible as a vehicle through which films can address social and political issues reflect human experiences and emotions explore existential issues such as evil and death and express themes such as destruction and redemption the role of the Bible as a source of ethics and morality and how this role is both perpetuated and undermined in a range of contemporary Hollywood films and film as a medium for experiences of transcendence and the role of the Bible in creating such experiences This thoroughly updated second edition includes insightful analysis of films such as Noah Gods and Men Mary Magdalene and The Shawshank Redemption paying attention to visual and aural elements as well as plot character and dialogue The book also includes pedagogical resources including discussions of film theory as well as key words and discussion questions Teachers students and anyone interested in the intersection of Bible and cinema will find this an invaluable guide to a growing field

Michigan Christian Advocate ,1897 Introduction to the Study of Religion Leroyce Miles,2018-08-07 One thing is clear that fighting with other human beings in the name of religion is subhuman As a religious man we are fellow travellers in the direction of the realm of spirit Here the nomenclature of Hindus Muslims Christians etc ceases to be meaningful Of course we have to go very far and we have not made any beginning yet However at present the advaitic principle of difference less Brahman can serve the purpose of harmonizing all religions Here we have adopted this principle Secondly the key concepts of different religions have been shown to mingle into one another The book attempts to interrogate the categories used in western discourse in the study of religion In doing so the book outlines a broad overview of the discussions on issues relating to the methods and theories in the study of religion The book provides an insight into some of the key issues that need clarity in dealing with religions This scholarly presentation is a must read for students of religion culture and philosophy and for those involved with the struggles of the subaltern community The Roxburghe Library of Classics ,1904
