Success Factors Of Corporate Spinoffs:

Success Factors of Corporate Spin-Offs Alexander Tübke, 2004 Corporate Spin Off processes are very interesting phenomena for management theory and practice In theory Corporate Spin Offs are both a driver and a result of organisational change offering the possibility to investigate an area where companies are genuinely sharing experience and best practice Although Corporate Spin Offs can be clearly distinguished from other types of start ups and divestments and despite combining key characteristics in a unique way existing investigation is sparse and heterogeneous In practice Corporate Spin Off processes are frequent and highly successful but not as well regarded as Merger Acquisition strategies and less understood by the decision makers The present work was designed to meet these demands by analysing the success factors of Corporate Spin Offs their relative contribution to the process and the role of the different actors involved Based on an extensive literature review and a new Spin Off typology a broad range of success factors and success dimensions is proposed Using a combination of multivariate models the responses from 211 European companies to a questionnaire are analysed and typologies derived Among the single factors customer participation the transfer of managerial and market related experience and the main motivation are the most important ones for the Spin Off process and its success The typologies reveal characteristic factors sets showing for example that high growth Spin Offs benefited over proportionally from sector growth or the access to relations with customers or suppliers This produces a new and comprehensive perspective on the relative contribution of each success factor their interaction and the behaviour of both the parent and the Spin Off companies in the process These results are highly valuable for managers scientists in the field and policy makers

Competitive Strategies for Academic Entrepreneurship: Commercialization of Research-Based Products Szopa, Anna, 2015-09-21 In recent years the pace of technological growth from the very first stages of research and development to full scale industrial implementation has quickened at an exponential rate To better keep pace with rapidly changing market demands the gap between university research incubators and public sector start up companies has undergone a marked contraction Competitive Strategies for Academic Entrepreneurship Commercialization of Research Based Products seeks to fill the gap in research between universities and the public and offers cutting edge insight into the current state of the field Charting a course that moves from discussions of academic resistance and implications for knowledge transfer theory to current case studies of academic industrial launch pads like COTEC s Technology Commercialization Accelerator and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships program this publication targets an audience of academicians administrators researchers entrepreneurs and established professionals and seeks to provide insight into the mechanisms by which the research of today becomes the household names of tomorrow Entrepreneurship and Dynamics in the Knowledge Economy Charlie Karlsson,Börje Johansson,Roger Stough,2006-09-27 In this book the authors argue that there are analytically distinct forms of entrepreneurship They provide a contemporary overview of current research and summarize the policy conclusions that can be drawn University Entrepreneurship in Italy Chiara Balderi,2014-03-05 This book focuses on the phenomenon of University Entrepreneurship in Italy often referred to also as valorisation of results from public research meaning with such an expression a set of different strategies that universities and other PROs can adopt in order to diffuse and eventually exploit the knowledge produced into them In this respect universities carry on their entrepreneurial activities along many dimensions among which patenting licensing creation of university spin offs incubators and Science and Technology Parks With regard to the volume structure Chapter 1 analyses the patenting and licensing activities within the Italian university system Chapter 2 investigates the significant associations existing between TT inputs and outputs in Italy Chapter 3 aims at contributing to the ongoing debate on the growth or non growth of Italian academic spin offs and the potential causes of the observed diversity The Geography of Academic Entrepreneurship Helen Lawton Smith,2023-06-01 Building on a variety of contrasting perspectives this book focuses on the connection between university spin offs and regional economic development It aptly captures the diverse range of concepts relating to the main participants in the process of university spin offs reflecting on their roles and how these may have changed Handbook of Research on Management Techniques and Sustainability Strategies for Handling Disruptive Situations in Corporate Settings Perez-Uribe, Rafael,Ocampo-Guzman, David,Moreno-Monsalve, Nelson Antonio,Fajardo-Moreno, William Stive,2021-06-25 Faced with chaotic environments it is not possible to make totally efficient forecasts especially when it is necessary to analyze events with multiple variables and micro small and medium enterprises MSMEs constantly face events that escape the laws of the market The handling that has been given to the crisis caused by the coronavirus has been trial and error and the economic social and environmental results remain to be seen The markets and the world are chaotic With the markets in chaos due to the COVID 19 pandemic it is important to look at the methods used in these environments to promote business success The Handbook of Research on Management Techniques and Sustainability Strategies for Handling Disruptive Situations in Corporate Settings elaborates on the skills techniques and tools that are more useful for these environments and identifies what makes companies that work well in organizational chaos and in chaotic economic environments perform better than companies that are well organized Covering topics such as strategic management multidimensional chaos approach and the global unstable market this book is essential for managers executives academicians policymakers entrepreneurs researchers undergraduate and graduate business students and any person interested in state of the art business issues Universities, Entrepreneurial Ecosystems, and Sustainability Cristina Fernandes, Marcela

Ramírez-Pasillas, João J. Ferreira, 2021-12-06 This volume presents theoretical and empirical research on universities and their entrepreneurial ecosystems to better grasp the connections between universities and their surrounding environments and their engagement with sustainability The book provides a better understanding of the entrepreneurial characteristics of universities It examines the ways in which universities collaboration and participation in an ecosystem support business and industry transformation It also investigates how universities function within the university industry government third sector relationship nexus The book enables the systematisation of the literature while simultaneously builds theory empirically testing existing theories and contributes towards a future research agenda geared towards sustainability The book gathers contributions from varied geographical contexts providing an international perspective University Startups and

Spin-Offs Manuel Stagers, 2014-11-27 University Startups and Spin Offs teaches university students researchers and educators the most effective strategies and tactics for launching their own startups from academic platforms with the backing of school programs public grants incubators seed accelerators and private partnerships in all parts of the world Serial entrepreneur Manuel Stagers advises students faculty and researchers how to test their ideas for marketability how to develop commercial products out of research projects and how to engage companies and investors with attractive value propositions The author has seventeen years of experience as startup entrepreneur founder of seven companies in the United States Europe and Japan consultant to universities on commercializing their research programs angel investor and startup mentor Stagers advice is field tested battle hardened and supported with a wealth of instructive first hand examples from his international experience The author advises academic entrepreneurs to take matters into their own hands instead of relying on the initiative and support of universities and governments He shows students and researchers how to fit lean startup methods to their existing university ecosystems leveraging their strengths without getting bogged down in bureaucratic morass Avoiding theory and jargon the book focuses on real world situations practical steps checklists and case studies University students and researchers will learn the skills they need to become startup entrepreneurs on an academic platform The final part of University Startups and Spin Offs addresses university administrators educators technology licensing officers incubator managers and government grant officers It shows them with practical examples from the private and academic sectors how to integrate startups into the fabric of the university develop a thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem for students and researchers leverage latent network effects build bridges between scientific research and industries seeking innovative solutions enhance the public image of the university and motivate the university's best and brightest to engage in startup enterprises that will deliver benefits to the university and the public as well as to themselves Academic Entrepreneurship Achim Walter, Michael Auer, 2009-04-28 Die Autorinnen und Autoren des vorliegenden Sammelbandes gehen der Frage nach, welche Voraussetzungen für eine erfolgreiche Unternehmensgründung aus der Forschung gegeben sein müssen
