Successful Conversion To Unleaded Gasoline In Thailand:

Successful Conversion to Unleaded Gasoline in Thailand Philip Sayeg, 1998-01-01 The Government of Thailand within a five year period 1991-95 introduced a series of initiatives that resulted in the elimination of leaded gasoline and reduction of ambient lead by a factor of 10 This report describes the strategies the government employed educating about the dangers of airborne lead setting a lower at pump price for unleaded gasoline helping the oil companies establish a system to distribute unleaded gasoline throughout the country conducting monitoring and follow up studies and adjusting environmental regulations as necessary to support these policies Institutional Frameworks in Successful Water Markets Manuel

Mariño, Karin E. Kemper, 1999-01-01 Water is increasingly recognized as a scarce resource that must be managed more efficiently than in the past In addition to physical scarcity the cost of accessing these resources is climbing This publication explores institutional frameworks in three case studies of long standing and successful water markets These cases demonstrate the common features and essential elements of water markets They also show how to design markets that consider the local institutional social and political conditions and how to integrate those markets into existing water resource management arrangements The papers are written for practitioners interested in how water markets operate for decisionmakers faced with the challenge of selecting a water resource allocation system and for academics interested in analytical descriptive case studies that provide information on how to conceptualize the functioning of water markets from an institutional perspective

Legal Impediments to Effective Rural Land Relations in Eastern Europe and Central Asia Roy L. Prosterman, Timothy M. Hanstad, 1999-01-01 Excessive concentration of land ownership as is feared by many transition governments has not been a feature of land markets where they have been allowed to function relatively freely and where land has been allocated in kind to households and individuals The World Bank has long been active in the Europe and Central Asia region in monitoring and evaluating land reform developments and supporting the development of land markets Bank efforts to date have made a significant impact in our client countries and studies produced by the Bank have been used as impartial references on this subject by both international organizations and the countries themselves This report was developed as a result of these efforts It focuses on The principal issues faced by the transition economies of Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union The potential approaches for resolving specific problem issues A Guide to the World

Bank, 2003 The World Bank Group works in more than 100 developing economies and is one of the world's largest sources of development assistance In 2002 the institution provided US 19.5 billion in loans to its client countries This guide reviews the organisation's history objectives and operations and looks at the five institutions that make up the World Bank Group the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IBRD the International Development Association IDA the International Finance Corporation IFC the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency MIGA and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID

Municipal Solid Waste Incineration T. Rand, J. Haukohl, U.

Marxen,2000-01-01 Ever increasing amounts of solid waste and dwindling space for disposal is a problem reaching crisis level in many of the world s largest urban areas Incineration as an alternative to landfill has come under scrutiny though the capital and operating costs generally exceed those associated with landfill This report provides background information for the Decision maker guide to municipal solid waste MSW incineration Key criteria for a solid waste incineration scheme are identified and the report gives decision makers information on how to investigate and assess the degree to which they are fulfilled

Poverty and Policy in Latin America and the Caribbean Quentin Wodon,Robert L. Ayres,2000 Although the progress toward poverty reduction remains sluggish other dimensions of social welfare in the Latin American and Caribbean LAC region show signs of improvement Adult literacy and school enrollment rates life expectancy at birth and the amount of access to safe water are increasing Nutrition indicators are also improving However other factors demonstrate that many problems persist especially the inequality between rich and poor This report analyzes the evolution of poverty and inequality in the LAC region from 1986 to 1996 with projections to 1998 It reviews the policies which have been advocated or implemented to reduce poverty The report combines the results of new empirical work using household surveys from 12 countries short theoretical developments and a review of the literature on issues related to poverty inequality and social policy in LAC Some of the theoretical developments introduce new research techniques Chapters three to six follow the framework proposed in the forthcoming World Development Report 2000 2001 The framework identifies three essential elements for poverty reduction Those elements include opportunities for the poor and investments in the human capital of the poor security through social safety nets and empowerment

Food and Agriculture in the Czech Republic Csaba Csáki, Michel Debatisse, Oskar Honisch, 1999-01-01 Becoming a member of the European Union is one of the most important objectives of the Czech Republic for the coming years both for the government and for the Czech society as a whole With the exception of a few traditional Czech products the Czech Republic is not a major exporter of agricultural goods due to its land locked position and relatively poor product differentiation Since the velvet revolution in 1989 agricultural production has declined To conform to European Union standards for accession the Czech Republic needs to make some adjustments This report reviews the current state of Czech agriculture and agro industry in the context of EU accession It analyzes institutional reforms and their actual impacts and proposes a series of adjustments to complete the reforms in the agricultural sector This report is intended for agricultural scientists public officials agricultural and agro industrial leaders and researchers interested in the transformation of agriculture in the transition economies and in issues pertaining to accession of Central and East European candidate countries to the European Union

The Role of Foreign Direct Investment and Trade Policies in Poland's Accession to the European Union, 1999-01-01 This study examines the role of Foreign Direct Investment FDI and trade policies with regard to Poland's accession to the EU It also discusses developments in foreign trade market access for Polish products and foreign trade institutions and policies It outlines the premises of a strategy that would assist Poland in its aim for accession This publication is a Technical Paper sponsored by the Poverty Reduction and Economic Management Network of the World Bank's Europe and Central Asia Division It is part of a comprehensive series regarding the many important factors that influence European Union EU accession in the Central and East European countries CEEC The topics in the series cover both the social and economic aspects of accession across a broad range of sectors The series also provides background information for specific acceding countries These publications will be of interest to EU member and candidate countries their ministries and any one studying the accession issue

Financial Integration, Vulnerabilities to Crisis, and EU Accession in Five Central European Countries Mustapha K. Nabli, 1999-01-01 A major source of vulnerability in the CE5 is their nascent financial systems and their ability to handle large and increasing volume of capital As the experience of East Asia demonstrates a high priority should be given to improving the quality and performance of the banking system From Financial Integration Vulnerabilities to Crisis and EU Accession in Five Central European Countries The objective of this study is to help assess the possible vulnerabilities in a number of Central European countries as they proceed with global financial integration and EU accession The report focuses on those countries slated to be the first in the region to join the EU the Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Poland Slovenia CE5 The study Discusses the context and presents a short description of the CE5 countries experience in attracting capital flows Analyzes the manifestations of vulnerability to financial crises and sustainability of foreign capital flows to the CE5 Interprets the results and draws implications in view of the initial conditions of the various countries Compares the EU accession of the CE5 to the Southern Mediterranean countries accession to the EC in the 1980s Draws conclusions and makes recommendations Rural Development Strategy Csaba Csáki, Laura

Tuck, 2000-01-01 With the larger role that the agricultural sector plays in the Eastern Europe and Central Asian ECA region emphasis must be placed on the sector's sustained growth and prosperity The Bank strategy for rural development in the ECA region during the early phase of transition emphasized the reform of agricultural policies and assistance in privatizing restructuring and rebuilding agriculture and agro industrial complexes In retrospect it can be seen that the ECA countries concerned made the right choice when they set their objective to transform their socialized agriculture into a private ownership and market based system Given the developments of the past decade it is clear however that the initial expectations for the outcomes of such reforms were overly optimistic The transition process in agriculture is far more complex than originally envisaged by both the countries themselves and the international community including the Bank Increased social problems and alarming growth of poverty have added a new unexpected dimension to the transition process As the analysis indicates the region's rural economy is still struggling to adjust to new economic realities and this will require further refinement and adjustment of the Bank's approach as well This volume based on an overview of recent regional developments summarizes the revised World Bank assistance strategy for rural development in the ECA region The East Asian Miracle and Information Technology Nagy Hanna, 1999 World Bank Discussion Paper No 326 Draws on the successful experiences of five East Asian economies Japan the Republic of Korea Singapore Taiwan China and Hong Kong to show how they have exploited the opportunities made possible by the information technology revolution and built sustainable competitive advantages in many high value added industries and services The study examines the role of government in unleashing private sector response promoting the information technology industry diffusing technology and focusing resources on strategic elements of the national information infrastructure It also explores the role of the private sector in influencing the development and use of the new technologies Hungary , 1999-01-01 Published by Oxford University Press for the World Bank Some people may believe that crises are an inevitable feature of the capitalist system Others hold that exchange rate crises will vanish as more and more countries adopt floating exchange rates But some of us believe that crises can be avoided or at least limited by good economic management and that having a reasonable idea of where the equilibrium exchange rate lies is an essential requirement for good macro management John Williamson Chief Economist South Asia Region World Bank Exchange Rate Misalignment provides a comprehensive treatment of the conceptual and empirical issues concerning measuring exchange rate misalignment in developing countries The report hopes to provide policymakers and their advisors with a compendium of practical techniques for estimating equilibrium real exchange rates The book analyzes in detail four methodologies for the empirical estimation of the long run equilibrium real exchange rate The findings of the report include An assessment of alternative empirical measures of the internal and external real exchange rates An up to date survey of the literature on estimating equilibrium exchange rates in both industrial and developing countries A detailed presentation of currently available methodologies for empirically estimating the equilibrium exchange rate in developing countries The analytical depth and practical techniques provided in Exchange Rate Misalignment make this book an invaluable resource for policymakers and foreign exchange specialists in the public and private sector

Trade and Cost Competitiveness in the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, and Slovenia Peter Havlik, 2000-01-01

Although the four countries considered in this study are the most developed transition countries in Europe their average wages are only a fraction of West European levels While the labor costs would theoretically give the Central and Eastern European CEEC countries an advantage capital shortages and the lack of skills required for a market economy prevent its use The report was prepared under the auspices of the World Bank by Peter Havlik Deputy Director of the Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies WIIW This report reviews wage and labor productivity developments and examines the evolution of export competitiveness It also summarizes the main findings from the ongoing research by WIIW on the impact of foreign direct investment on restructuring and provides some policy recommendations

EU Investment Grants Review Iain Begg, 1999-01-01 This study is the first of a three stage research program that aims to investigate institutional arrangements for local and regional capital investment in selected CEECs and assess whether these arrangements provide appropriate signals to economic agents with regard to EU accession This publication is a Technical Paper sponsored by the Poverty Reduction and Economic Management Network of the World Bank s Europe and Central Asia Division It is part of a comprehensive series regarding the many important factors that influence European Union EU accession in the Central and East European countries CEEC The topics in the series cover both the social and economic aspects of accession across a broad range of sectors The series also provides background information for specific acceding countries These publications will be of interest to EU member and candidate countries their ministries and any one studying the accession issue

Communal Infrastructure in Slovenia Mojmir Mrak, 2000 Annotation Although growth of infrastructure services in Vietnam since the late 1980s greatly facilitated rapid growth in exports and gross domestic product GDP Vietnam s infrastructure still suffers from a number of major inadequacies This report has three main objectives to describe and assess the current status and performance of key infrastructure sectors to describe and assess the policy regulatory and institutional environment for involving the private sector in those sectors and to help policymakers in framing future reform and development strategies and to assist potential private sector investors in assessing investment opportunities

Governance Impact on Private Investment Nina Bubnova, 2000 During the last decade infrastructure finance and provision graduated from traditional means to more innovative ones primarily initiated by private companies and supported through their equity and debt Capital markets increasingly became the main funding source for infrastructure projects worldwide including investments in developing and transition countries where infrastructure penetration still falls considerably short of needs Infrastructure bonds served as the most popular method of oil gas electricity telecommunications and transport project financing in these countries throughout 1990 99 thereby substituting government funding Using an innovative methodological approach Governance Impact on Private Investment provides a thorough examination of the effect that governance frameworks both political and regulatory have on investors risk perceptions and on associated costs for infrastructure financing It identifies those political and regulatory risks that most concern investors It offers a unique comparative analysis of developed and emerging infrastructure bond markets The analysis demonstrates how the factors that drive infrastructure finance in the two country groups differ which helps to identify the policy implications of these factors

Natural Resource Management Strategy ,2000-01-01 Arable land deserts mountains forests rivers and coastal zones characterize the diverse regions in Eastern Europe and Central Asia ECA As varied as the geography is so are the policy directions taken by the region s governments concerning natural resource management A lack of conservation measures misuse and poor management have impaired many of the natural resources now available in these countries Although the pressure on natural resources in ECA is less than in other regions and the area has more abundant resources the accessibility and utility of those resources belie the figures Where there is arable land the growing season is short Where there are immense forests the climate is harsh To assist the Bank s client countries in ECA with sustainable use of natural resources this volume identifies the various challenges provides a history of the Bank s regional natural resource strategy outlines a strategic framework and proposes new strategies and policy instruments to implement them Natural resources in this publication refer to non mineral resources such as forests rivers and land
