Perspectives from Young Children on the Margins Jane Murray, Colette Gray, 2020-06-29 In spite of our apparently connected global environment people are becoming less connected Digital communication leads to fewer face to face engagements and many young children are separated from their parents for extended periods The post truth phenomenon has resulted in mistrust between policymakers and the people they serve whilst increased immigration has led to some rich countries adopting a protectionist stance that transforms collaboration into separatism At its 2014 meeting the European Early Childhood Education Research Association's Young Children's Perspectives Special Interest Group considered how these issues were affecting young children particularly the many thousands entering Europe at that time as refugees and migrants escaping conflict in their home countries Many of those displaced young children found themselves situated on the margins of their new contexts The feeling of being othered can be existential for any young child experiencing liminality yet a sense of belonging is important for young children's well being and development of identity the feeling of belonging lies at the core of social inclusion This book the idea for which arose out of this meeting is drawn from leading edge empirical studies and reveals the diverse experiences of young children's marginalisation This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Early Childhood Education Research Journal The Nourishing Traditions Book of Baby & Child Care Sally Fallon Morell, Thomas S. Cowan, 2013-04-01 The Nourishing Traditions Book of Baby Child Care makes the principles of traditional nutrition available to modern parents The book provides holistic advice for pregnancy and newborn interventions vaccinations breastfeeding and child development as well as a compendium of natural treatments for childhood illnesses from autism to whooping cough The work of Rudolf Steiner supports the book's emphasis on the child's spiritual requirement for imaginative play The New York Journal, 1854 Maternity and Child Welfare, 1922 General Report of the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners Great Britain. Emigration Commission, 1846 Evening hours, ed. by E.H. Bickersteth Edward Henry Bickersteth (bp. of Exeter), 1875 Lacanian Psychoanalysis with Babies, Children, and Adolescents Stephanie Farrelly Quinn, Carol Owens, 2018-03-29 Lacan did not say or write very much about the psychoanalysis of children There is no doctrine of the psychoanalysis of children in his work Instead his 1956 1957 seminar on the object relation and his Note on the Child of 1969 have been adopted by Lacanian analysts working with children as providing essential coordinates for direction in their clinical work This book is the result of inviting psychoanalysts of the Lacanian orientation working with children around the globe to theorise and conceptualise that work The Lacanian psychoanalyst works with the notion of the subject as a speaking being but the child subject brings particular exigencies to the psychoanalytic work Contributors attend to these exigencies in their essays by articulating the precise particularities of the direction of the treatment and psychoanalytic work with children
