Bokuru Jon C. Hall,2005-06-28 This book was inspired by the tenacious efforts of the handful of professional field archaeologists over the last few decades in the inhospitable barrens of Africa Their discoveries of the ancient fossil records have advanced our knowledge back millions of years Bokuru is an archaeological mystery based in a remote region of East Africa The story is seen through James Henderson a young Chicago attorney who is retained to go to Africa to investigate the mysterious death of Dr Richard Bronston The world famous archaeologist died at his remote excavation site Dr Bronstons daughter Nancy an executive officer at the Chicago museum is responsible for Jims selection to act as detective in spite of his lack of directly related experience Neither Nancy nor the museum staff believe Dr Bronston committed suicide as stated on the death certificate sent from Africa Is Jims limited experience as an amateur archaeologist and trial preparation attorney sufficient to solve the puzzle The museum has sponsored Dr Bronstons excavation work and holds a million dollar life insurance policy to cover their funding The policy excludes coverage if his death is suicide On the way to the airport Jim learns that the cause of Dr Bronstons death is not their only concern Dr Bronston told no one what he found at his excavation The museum must decide whether Nancy Bronston should complete her fathers field work or close the field camp Jims assignment is suddenly expanded He must learn what was found along the ancient bank of the Bokuru River at the location the natives call the place of the ancient past Jim flies to Africa where Nancy Bronston has preceded him to attend her fathers funeral He begins his African adventure unprepared for the twists and turns he will face on a journey into both modern and ancient death as well as the origins of mankind The story ends with a surprise ending not even he could anticipate
