Suffering Divine Things Theology As Church Practice:

Suffering Divine Things Reinhard Hütter, 2000 How do Christian beliefs and practices interrelate What is the nature and task of theology These questions have reemerged in the contemporary discussion with new vigor In this book Reinhard Hütter explores the link between Christian theory and action rigorously arguing for a renewed understanding of theology as a distinct church practice Using pathos suffering God's saving activity as a powerful theological motif Hütter offers fresh insight into the relationships between the Holy Spirit and the church doctrine and theology and beliefs and practices In addition Hütter shows how reclaiming pathos as a central motif for theology challenges modern and postmodern views focused on human identity agency and creativity as definitive of theology's nature and task Throughout Hütter remains acutely aware of recent trends in theological discourse and develops his argument in conversation with leading contemporary thinkers from North America and Europe His constructive work promises to reclaim theology's crucial role in the life and mission of the church

Virtue and the Voice of God Daniel J. Treier, 2006 Theology's longest tradition is as a course of study that leads to wisdom With the growth of the academy however theology fell into a fixation with the objective results of science In this illuminating study Daniel Treier retrieves the older deeper understanding of theology and connects wisdom in theological education to the theological interpretation of scripture giving rise to a renewed understanding of the role of virtue in each Dialoguing with a number of prominent proponents of theological interpretation of scripture Treier builds on a biblical theology of wisdom that involves the daily lives of all God's people Ultimately Treier connects educational discussions of theology and hermeneutical discussions through a trinitarian understanding of wisdom As a result the increasingly diverse forms and social locations of theology can be integrated into the mainstream of theological reflection Filled with interdisciplinary wisdom Virtue and the Voice of God is a timely recovery of the essential conversation between theological education virtue and scriptural interpretation

Practicing Baptism Bard Eirik Hallesby Norheim, 2014-02-19 Where is Jesus Christ This fundamental question is the starting point of this book which investigates the shape of Christian life and ministry in a post Christendom context Over the last decades there has been a shift in much of Western theology towards focusing on Christian practices in ministry and theological education This may be seen as a way to deal with theological anxiety in an era of heightened personal autonomy In Practicing Baptism Bard Norheim critically analyzes the engagement in Christian practices As a response to this engagement Norheim develops a missional and diaconal theology for ministry focusing on the presence of Christ in Christian practices Fundamentally this is an attempt to answer a pressing question for today What do Christians do Norheim draws on Martin Luther's theology and his notion of the three modes of Christ's presence the present tense of baptism and Luther's idea of the marks of the church Based on this reading of Luther's theology Norheim suggests that Christian life and ministry could be interpreted through the concept practicing baptism

The Cosmic Breath Amos Yong, 2012-05-10 Recent thinking in the interfaith dialogue and in the theology science dialogue have taken a pneumatological turn The Cosmic Breath explores this pneumatological theology as unfolded in the Christian Buddhist dialogue alongside critical interaction with the theology and science conversation As an attempt in comparative and constructive Christian philosophical theology its central thesis is that a pneumatological approach to Buddhist traditions in further dialogue with modern science generates new philosophical resources that invigorate Christian thinking about the natural world and humanity's place in it The result is a transformation of the Buddhist Christian dialogue from insights generated in the theology and science interface and a contribution to the religion and science dialogue from a comparative theological and philosophical perspective

Pentecostal Ecclesiology Simon K.H. Chan, 2019-05-21 This book argues that if the Pentecostal movement is to overcome its excessive individualism and structural instability the way forward is not more institutionalization but a coherent and robust ecclesiology based on the Pentecost event which is the coming of the Holy Spirit in his own person into the church A Pentecostal ecclesiology is essentially the working out of the ramifications of that key event The book takes a more ontological understanding of the relationship between the Spirit and the church than would Protestant and evangelical ecclesiologies In this respect it has more in common with Orthodoxy It is further argued that this realignment away from Protestantism and evangelicalism towards Orthodoxy far from removing Pentecostals from their roots actually brings them much closer to the heart of Pentecostal spirituality

System and Story Gale Heide, 2009-01-01 System and Story is intended to develop a means for bridging the gap between critics of system and those who may find value in doing systematics from a Biblically oriented context Narrative theologians have rightly identified and critiqued the development of system in academic theology Unfortunately they have not identified the ways in which systematic elements have always played a role in theological knowledge This study demonstrates the inherent systematic tendencies that still exist in narrative approaches to theology while at the same time acknowledging the appropriateness of aspects of the narrative critique of system The reaction against Enlightenment modernism is examined from the perspective of the heightened role of system in religious epistemology The work of Stanley Hauerwas serves to carry much of the conversation regarding the critique of system and a narrative alternative as it is discovered in communal formation After summarizing Hauerwas theology if such a thing is possible the final chapters explore the ecclesiological concerns of narrative theologians according to a more systematic rendering of pneumatology A Biblical rendering of pneumatology from the perspective of the Spirit's role in ecclesiology allows for a modest i.e. pre modern systematic presentation commensurate with narrative communal formation Thus the narrative attempt to once again do theology for the church is seen as compatible with a Scriptural i.e. modestly systematic theology of the Spirit

Transfigured not Conformed Hans G. Ulrich, 2021-12-16 The moral theology of Hans G. Ulrich is presented here in English for the first time These collected essays represent the culmination of a lifetime of reflection on Christian living from this German theologian in conversation with Luther Bonhoeffer and contemporary philosophers and theologians Ulrich's ethics affirm the lively presence of the living work of God in orienting the daily life of Christians This presence enables members of the Church to live as creatures trusting in God's promises bearing witness in political and economic spheres and trusting in life as a gift in response to bioethical issues Ulrich's fresh take on living out of the promise of God yields further guidance on issues in international relations economics parenting disability and more

Christianity and Contemporary Politics Luke Bretherton, 2011-09-13 Congratulations to Luke Bretherton on winning the 2013 Michael Ramsey Prize for Theological Writing for Christianity and Contemporary Politics Relations between religious and political spheres continue to stir passionate debates on both sides of the Atlantic Through a combination of theological reflection and empirical case studies Bretherton succeeds in offering timely and invaluable insights into these crucial issues facing 21st century societies Explores the relationship between Christianity and contemporary politics through case studies of faith based organizations Christian political activism and welfare provision in the West these case studies assess initiatives including community organizing fair trade and the sanctuary movement Offers an insightful informative account of how Christians can engage politically in a multi faith liberal democracy Integrates debates in political theology with inter disciplinary analysis of policy and practice regarding religious social political and economic engagement in the USA UK and continental Europe Reveals how Christians can help prevent the subversion of the church and even of politics itself by legal bureaucratic and market mechanisms rather than advocating withdrawal or assimilation Engages with the intricacies of contemporary politics whilst integrating systematic and historical theological reflection on political and economic life

Christ Existing as Community Michael Mawson, 2018-06-28 In Christ Existing as Community Michael Mawson recovers and clarifies the German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer's early and important work on ecclesiology focusing especially on his doctoral dissertation Sanctorum Communio Despite occasional pronouncements of the importance of this dissertation it has still received only limited scholarly attention Mawson demonstrates how Bonhoeffer draws upon and reworks social theory in order to develop an account of the church as a reality of God's revelation and a concrete human community On this basis Mawson concludes that Bonhoeffer's ecclesiology has ongoing significance for contemporary debates in theology and Christian ethics

God of Salvation Dr Murray A Rae, Professor Ivor J Davidson, 2013-06-28 The theology of salvation stands at the heart of the Christian faith Very often the structure of Christian salvation is seen in terms of a single theme such as atonement for sins forgiveness liberation or friendship with God It is easy to reduce soteriology to a matter of merely personal experience or to see salvation as just a solution to a human problem This book explores a vital yet often neglected aspect of Christian confession the essential relationship between the nature of salvation and the character of the God who saves In what ways does God's saving outreach reflect God's character How might a Christian depiction of salvation best bear witness to these features What difference might it make to start with the identity of God as encountered in the gospel then view everything else in the light of that In addressing these questions this book offers fresh appraisals of a range of major themes in theology the nature of creaturely existence the relationship between divine purposes and material history the holiness love and judgement of God the atoning work of Jesus Christ election justification and the nature of faith salvation outside the church human and non human ends the nature of eschatological fellowship with God In looking at these issues in the light of God s identity the authors offer a stimulating and tightly argued reassessment of what a Christian theology of salvation ought to resemble and ask what the implications might be for Christian life and witness in the world today Towards an Adventist Version of Communio Ecclesiology Tihomir Lazić,2019-11-13 This book explores how Seventh day Adventists like other Christians can benefit from generating their own version of communio ecclesiology It starts by offering a critical analysis of the status quo of the existing Adventist portrayal of church as remnant and suggests potential ways of moving this tradition forward To articulate a more rounded and comprehensive vision of the church s rich and multifaceted relational nature this book draws on the mainstream Christian koinonia based framework Consequently it provides possible solutions to some of the most divisive ecclesial issues that Christian communities face today regarding church structure ministry mission communal interpretation and reform As it sets on a new footing the conversation between Adventism and other mainstream Christian traditions the methodology of this book serves as a pathway for any Christian community to use when revisiting and enhancing its own current theologies of the church Justified in the Spirit Frank D. Macchia,2010-07-26 Argues persuasively that Christian teaching about the Spirit pneumatology has much to offer to a correct understanding of justification We have here a book of singular consequence William G Rusch Yale Divinity School Karl Barth and American Evangelicalism Bruce L. McCormack,Clifford B. Stone,2016-03-16 This Reader presents a diverse and ecumenical cross section of ecclesiological statements from across the twenty centuries of the church s existence It builds on the foundations of early Christian writings illustrates significant medieval reformation and modern developments and provides a representative look at the robust attention to ecclesiology that characterizes the contemporary period This collection of readings offers an impressive overview of the multiple ways Christians have understood the church to be both the body of Christ and at the same time an imperfect social and historical institution constantly subject to change and reflective of the cultures in which it is found This comprehensive survey of historical ecclesiologies is helpful in pointing readers to the remarkable number of images and metaphors that Christians have relied upon in describing the church and to the various tensions that have characterized reflection on the church as both united and diverse community and institution visible and invisible triumphant and militant global and local one and many Students clergy and all interested in Christianity and the church will find this collection an invaluable resource Christ and the Catholic Priesthood Matthew Levering,2010

Postliberal Theological Method Adonis Vidu,2007-01-01 Postliberal Theological Method is a fresh critical analysis of one of today s most influential theological movements Drawing on recent thinking in analytic philosophy particularly Donald Davidson s work on truth and meaning Vidu raises questions about the linguistic turn in the theology of Hans Frei George Lindbeck John Milbank and others Moved by God to Act Wm. Carter Aikin,2014-01-03 Moved by God to Act offers a fresh description of Christian moral action as a moment of connection between divine and human agency Through an ecumenical consideration of a variety of resources this book gives an accessible description of the work of God s grace not only in individual Christian agency but also within the dynamics of Christian community Moved by God to Act brings the contemporary theological ethics of community into dialogue with the pneumatology of Thomas Aquinas The ethic emerging from this dialogue lifts up the centrality of God s grace in Christian community while at the same time offering a detailed articulation of the human being as naturally and beautifully drawn into cooperation with God s grace in the ethical life The book concludes by showing how Aquinas stands in substantial harmony with the contemporary authors discussed offering a proper description of God s agency in individual Christian human agency and the dynamics of the body of the Christian community to which the contemporary discourse so rightly points Moved by God to Act is an attempt to speak to the work of God in the life and day to day action of Christians and Christian communities as moved to act by the Holy Spirit Trinity, Revelation, and Reading Scott R. Swain,2011-09-15 Trinity Revelation and Reading TRR is a theological introduction to the Bible and biblical interpretation The overarching thesis is that neither the Bible nor biblical hermeneutics can be understood or practiced properly apart from an appreciation of their relationship to the triune God and his gracious economy of redemption Scott Swain treats the role of the Word in the saving economy of the triune God the role and status of Scripture as the Word of God the nature of biblical reading as a covenantal enterprise as well as a host of other related topics These topics are addressed by way of a constructive appropriation or ressourcement of many of the themes of patristic theology and early Protestant divinity esp Reformed Orthodoxy while building upon the work of important contemporary theologians as well e g Karl Barth John Webster Kevin Vanhoozer The ultimate goal of this study is that readers will appreciate better the ways in which biblical interpretation is an aspect of their covenantal engagement with the triune God Violence, Hospitality, and the Cross Hans Boersma,2006-04-01 The cross is central to understanding Christian theology But is it possible that our postmodern setting requires a new model of understanding the cross Hans Boersma s Violence Hospitality and the Cross proposes an understanding of the atonement that is sensitive both to the Christian tradition and to the postmodern critiques of that tradition His fresh approach draws on the rich resources of the Christian tradition in its portrayal of God s hospitality in Jesus Christ
