All Kinds of Magic Piers Moore Ede, 2010-04-19 A personal search for the mystical and miraculous from the acclaimed author of Honey and Dust So sincere and carefully told that the result cannot help but move Financial Times Terrific Unpretentious often funny but also powerfully expressive of experiences beyond language and reason it s a book which rises to the challenge of its subject with skill and considerable grace Wanderlust This is the story of a man who embarked on a quest that many of us have dreamed about Disillusioned by a world hooked on material wealth and scientific fact he decided to travel across the globe in search of something more meaningful the magical the mystical His journey takes him from snow blanketed villages in the Himalayas to tiny covert communities of whirling dervishes in rural Turkey from the world s largest religious festival on the banks of the swollen Ganges to a dappled ancient Sufi quarter in Delhi Lyrical and clear sighted All Kinds of Magic is a fascinating exploration of the hidden world of miracles that is at once deeply personal and universal in its scope Love, Beauty, and Harmony in Sufism Nasrollah S. Fatemi, Fariborz S. Fatemi, 1998-03 Rumi - Past and Present, East and West Franklin D. Lewis, 2014-10-01 The definitive study of the world s bestselling poet Drawing on a vast array of sources from writings of the poet himself to the latest scholarly literature this new anniversary edition of the award winning work examines the background the legacy and the continuing significance of Jal l al Din Rumi today s bestselling poet in the United States With new translations of over fifty of Rumi s poems and including never before seen prose this landmark study celebrates the astounding appeal of Rumi still as strong as ever 800 years after his birth New Approaches to Islam in Film Kristian Petersen, 2021-04-26 Many global film industries fail in expanding the role of Muslims on screen Too often they produce a dichotomy between good and bad Muslims limiting the narrative domain to issues of national security war and terrorism Naturally much of the previous scholarship on Muslims in film focused on stereotypes and the politics of representation This collection of essays from an international panel of contributors significantly expands the boundaries of discussion around Muslims in film asking new questions of the archive and magnifying analyses of particular cultural productions The volume includes the exploration of regional cinemas detailed analysis of auteurs and individual films comparison across global cinema and new explorations that have not yet entered the conversation The interdisciplinary collection provides an examination of the multiple roles Islam plays in film and the various ways Muslims are depicted Across the chapters key intersecting themes arise that push the limits of how we currently approach issues of Muslims in cinema and ventures to lead us in new directions for future scholarship This book adds new depth to the matrix of previous scholarship by revisiting methodological structures and sources as well as exploring new visual geographies transnational circuits and approaches It reframes the presiding scholarly conventions in five novel trajectories considering new sources exploring new communities probing new perspectives charting new theoretical directions and offering new ways of understanding conflict in cinema As such it will be of great use to scholars working in Islamic Studies Film Studies Religious
