The Polity Reader In Cultural Theory:

The Polity Reader in Cultural Theory Polity, 1994-01-31 The field of cultural and media studies is one of the most important and rapidly developing areas in the social sciences and humanities today This new text provides an overview of some of the key issues and debates in the field The book is designed in such a way that it can be used either as a supplement to other texts or as an integral volume in itself Among the topics covered are theories of media communication and ideology the influence of electronic communication popular and high culture the interpretation of art and literature the impact of feminism in cultural studies advertising and the consumer culture and theories of modernism and postmodernism The contributors include many of the major figures involved in current debates including Jean Baudrillard Pierre Bourdieu Peter Burger Mary Ann Caws Joanne Finkelstein Jurgen Habermas Stuart Hall J F Lyotard John B Thompson Janet Wolff and others

The Polity Reader in Cultural Theory, 1994 Cultural Theory, 1994 Mediating Religion Jolyon P. Mitchell, Sophia Marriage, 2003-06-01 This is the first book to bring together many aspects of the interplay between religion media and culture from around the world in a single comprehensive study Leading international scholars provide the most up to date findings in their fields and in a readable and accessible way Some of the topics covered include religion in the media age popular broadcasting communication theology popular piety film and religion myth and ritual in cyberspace music and religion communication ethics and the nature of truth in media saturated cultures The result is not only a wide ranging resource for scholars and students but also a unique introduction to this increasingly important phenomenon of modern life

A Glossary of Literary and Cultural Theory Peter Brooker, 2016-12-08 The Glossary of Literary and Cultural Theory provides researchers and students with an up to date guide through the vibrant and changing debates in Literary and Cultural Studies In a field where meanings are frequently complex and ambiguous this text is remarkable for its clarity and usefulness This third edition includes 17 entirely new entries and updates to more than a dozen others which address key concepts and contemporary positions in both literary and cultural theory New entries include Actor Network Theory Anthropocene Ecocriticism Digital Humanities Postcapitalism World Literature History and Cultural Theory Simon Gunn, 2014-05-22 In recent times there has been recognition of the growing influence of cultural theory on historical writing Foucault Bourdieu Butler and Spivak are just some of the thinkers whose ideas have been taken up and deployed by historians What are these ideas and where do they come from How have cultural theorists thought about history And how have historians applied theoretical insights to enhance their own understanding of events in the past This book provides a wide ranging and authoritative guide to the often vexed and controversial relationship between history and contemporary theory It analyses the concepts that concern both theorists and historians such as power identity modernity and postcolonialism and offers a critical evaluation of them from an historical standpoint Written in an accessible manner History and Cultural Theory gives historians and students an invaluable summary of the impact of cultural theory on historiography over the last twenty years and indicates the likely directions of the subject in the future

An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies including the articulation of African cultural studies the issue of Africa's diaspora's African identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies The first of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations especially from within Africa itself The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies

BodySpace Nancy Duncan, 1996 A collection of some of the best known geographers currently writing on gender and sexuality Issues such as citizenship work domestic and homophobic violence and marginalized sexual identities are examined within a geographical context

Re-Reading Leavis G. Day, 1996-10-11 This book offers a much needed reassessment of F R Leavis Gary Day argues that post structuralist theory has defined itself in opposition to Leavis when in fact there are certain parallels between the two types of criticism Day also draws attention to the connections between Leavis's early work and the emergent discourses of consumerism and scientific management In particular he notes how at the centre of each is an image of the body and he analyses what this means for Leavis's conception of reading By situating Leavis in relation to the concerns of post structuralism and by locating him firmly in his historical context Day is able to chart how far criticism can justly claim to be oppositional At the same time Day is able to recuperate from Leavis's work a notion of value a topic which is becoming increasingly important in literary and cultural studies today
