

The Postmodern Church

Richard L Hamm

The Postmodern Church:

The Postmodern Church Jeremiah Newman, 1990 The Church on the Other Side Brian D. McLaren, 2009-12-15 If you are a sincere church leader or a committed church member you're probably tired of easy steps, easy answers and facile formulas for church health, growth and renewal. You know it's not that easy. In The Church on the Other Side you'll find something different, honest, clear and creative thinking about our churches along with a passionate challenge to thoughtful action and profound liberating change. In understandable language with an energetic and engaging writing style and drawing from daily down to earth pastoral experience, Brian McLaren offers thirteen strategies for navigating the modern/postmodern transition. You'll learn the critical distinctions between renewed, restored and reinvented churches. You'll discover the importance of redefining your mission of finding fresh ways to conceive of and communicate the Gospel and of entering the postmodern world by understanding it, engaging it and debugging your faith from modern viruses. McLaren believes we are in an epochal sea change, perhaps even more significant than the last great cultural transition about 500 years ago when the world crossed over from the medieval to the modern era. He believes that today's breakthroughs in communications, education, travel, cultural diversity, science, economics, politics and philosophy are combining to create a new matrix in which Christians will live, worship, work and pursue our mission. We are exploring off the map, writes Brian McLaren, looking into mysterious territory beyond our familiar world on this side of the boundary between modern and postmodern worlds. Even if you've read this book's first edition, Reinventing Your Church, you'll find enough new and revised material here to warrant a second purchase. And if you're encountering these concepts for the first time, you'll find wise guidance to help you and your church begin the journey toward the other side of the postmodern divide. You'll learn to think differently, see church life and these revolutionary times in a new way and act with courage, hope and an adventurous spirit. What Would Jesus

Deconstruct? (The Church and Postmodern Culture) John D. Caputo, 2007-11-01 This provocative addition to The Church and Postmodern Culture series offers a lively rereading of Charles Sheldon's In His Steps as a constructive way forward. John D. Caputo introduces the notion of why the church needs deconstruction, positively defines deconstruction's role in renewal, deconstructs idols of the church and imagines the future of the church in addressing the practical implications of this for the church's life through liturgy, worship, preaching and teaching. Students of philosophy, theology, religion and ministry as well as others interested in engaging postmodernism and the emerging church phenomenon will welcome this provocative, non-technical work. Brand New Church Graeme Fancourt, 2013-05-16

Brand New Church aims to make sense of what postmodern actually looks and feels like in real life and to ask what this means for the church. Over the past few years, Graeme Fancourt has travelled around the UK and USA consulting with a wide range of church leaders including Sue Wallace who founded Visions and Transcendence, Jonny Baker a member of Grace and Roy Searle of the Northumbria Community. He writes: 'The church that I have encountered is thoughtful, active and confident in the gospel. Though holding many different views these leaders all appear to take seriously the need for the church genuinely to engage positively or negatively with what it perceives to be the postmodern condition The author reveals and explores the diversity of thinking found in local churches in colleges and universities and expressed in works of contemporary theology the approaches of a range of writers such as D A Carson Peter Rollins Pete Ward Tom Wright and Stanley Hauerwas are examined to stimulating effect The result is a thoroughly vibrant read which offers a broad understanding of how in these postmodern times the church might engage fruitfully in dialogue and mission for the sake of all God s people The Postmodern Church Timothy C. Lawless, 2012 Within the past twenty years the Church especially in America has experienced dwindling membership and attendance along with a host of other problems Many of these problems are symptomatic of a massive cultural shift toward postmodernism leading to discontentment with the Church In attempting to respond to these challenges the emergent Church has arisen as a major element of American religious culture Their methodology and doctrine is heavily influenced by postmodernism which presents a further challenge for Christian leaders and ministers This paper will survey the challenges facing the Church will describe the emergent Church s origin and response to these challenges and will suggest a Church ministry paradigm that answers the challenges of postmodernism while preserving the integrity of the Gospel message

What Would Jesus Deconstruct? John D. Caputo, 2014-05-14 Uses the postmodern theme of deconstruction to suggest a constructive and provocative way forward for the church Echoes of Eden Eddie Dutra, 2016-06-24 The neoliberal theologians who intend to repaint Christianity say they are reacting to the errors and abuses within the church against the false promises of the Prosperity theology and the modern Pharisees who use legalism as a means of oppression and control The truth however is that they incur in the same mistakes of them Those of the Prosperity Gospel or those of the postmodern church philosophy lead the ministry according to peoples desire not according to Gods interests or the true spiritual need of people The Prosperity theology adapted to a greedy society that sees Jesus only as the multiplier of loaves and fishes and a free healer therefore it gave them what they wanted The postmodern Christians changed the speech and emphasis but reproduced the same pattern of ministry When we compare them both groups are alike they all use pragmatism as foundation for ministry thus their teachings are unbiblical their practice unethical and its results devastating to the Christian faith The new painters take advantage of the mistakes of some groups of the evangelicalism with this they find the opportunity to throw out the baby with the dirty bathwater they throw away the true Gospel along with the errors of the church Such opportunism is clearly detected in their effort to establish a stereotype to represent historic Christianity as a group of ignorant and devoid of love Fundamentalist fanatics while they pose as open minded good boy preachers and love givers with no trace of prejudice By opposing legalism these men went to the other extreme they became libertines Thus their offered antidote became worse than the poison itself The neoliberal theologians came not to bring healing to the churchs problems rather they aggravated it They are opportunists who are creating a neo Christianity under the perspectives of this new postmodern world Who's Afraid of Postmodernism? (The Church and Postmodern Culture) James K. A. Smith, 2006-04-01 The philosophies of French thinkers Derrida Lyotard and Foucault form the basis for postmodern thought and are seemingly at odds with the Christian faith However James K A Smith claims that their ideas have been misinterpreted and actually have a deep affinity with central Christian claims Each chapter opens with an illustration from a recent movie and concludes with a case study considering recent developments in the church that have attempted to respond to the postmodern condition such as the emerging church movement These case studies provide a concrete picture of how postmodern ideas can influence the way Christians think and worship This significant book winner of a Christianity Today 2007 Book Award avoids philosophical jargon and offers fuller explanation where needed It is the first book in the Church and Postmodern Culture series which provides practical applications for Christians engaged in ministry in a postmodern world Recreating the Church Richard L Hamm, 2007-06-01 Mainline denominations in the United States are in crisis These institutions created in and for modernity are now facing a changed postmodern culture Hamm faces the crisis examining its origins and offers sound advice on how to lead to church to make the adaptive changes needed to thrive in postmodern times A TCP Leadership Series title The Politics of Discipleship \(The Church and Postmodern Culture\) Graham Ward, 2009-09-01 Internationally acclaimed theologian Graham Ward is well known for his thoughtful engagement with postmodernism This volume the fourth in The Church and Postmodern Culture series offers an engaging look at the political nature of the postmodern world In the first section The World Ward considers the signs of the times and the political nature of contemporary postmodernism It is imperative he suggests that the church understand the world to be able to address it thoughtfully In the second section The Church he turns to practical application examining what faithful discipleship looks like within this political context Clergy and those interested in the emerging church will find this work particularly thought provoking
