The Practise Of Field Instruction In Social Work:

The Practice of Field Instruction in Social Work Marion Bogo, Elaine J. Vayda, 1998-01-01 This book is designed to guide social workers in their work as field instructors It is unique in that it presents a conceptual system that unites social work theory taught in the classroom to actual practice in a variety of community settings This system gives the field instructor a model to guide the student through a process that focuses attention on common elements of all social work practice situations Many examples are presented to illustrate the application of this process The Practice of Field Instruction in Social Work is an invaluable text for anyone preparing to become a field instructor for current field instructors and for faculty members responsible for field coordination The information presented here is based on current research and teaching experience The model presented in the book has been used with success in undergraduate and graduate programs throughout Canada and other countries
