Williams,2009-05-15 With more than 400 000 copies now in print The Craft of Research is the unrivaled resource for researchers at every level from first year undergraduates to research reporters at corporations and government offices Seasoned researchers and educators Gregory G Colomb and Joseph M Williams present an updated third edition of their classic handbook whose first and second editions were written in collaboration with the late Wayne C Booth The Craft of Research explains how to build an argument that motivates readers to accept a claim how to anticipate the reservations of readers and to respond to them appropriately and how to create introductions and conclusions that answer that most demanding question So what The third edition includes an expanded discussion of the essential early stages of a research task planning and drafting a paper The authors have revised and fully updated their section on electronic research emphasizing the need to distinguish between trustworthy sources such as those found in libraries and less reliable sources found with a quick Web search A chapter on warrants has also been thoroughly reviewed to make this difficult subject easier for researchers Throughout the authors have preserved the amiable tone the reliable voice and the sense of directness that have made this book indispensable for anyone undertaking a research project Constructing Rhetorical Education Davida Charney,Wilma R. Ebbitt,1992 In nineteen essays illustrating its many aspects this book offers an argument for what it takes to construct a complete rhetorical education The editors take an approach that is pragmatic and pluralistic based as it is on the assumptions that a rhetorical education is not limited to teaching freshman composition or any specific writing course and that the contexts in which such an education occurs are not limited to classrooms This thought provoking volume stresses that while a rhetorical education results in the growth of writing skills its larger goal is to foster critical thinking
