Edmund Burke,1824      Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice Matthew Butcher,Megan

O'Shea,2020-11-27 Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice presents a selection of essays architectural experiments and works that explore the diversity within the fields of contemporary architectural practice and discourse Specific in this selection is the question of how and why architecture can and should manifest in a critical and reflective capacity as well as to examine how the discipline currently resonates with contemporary art practice It does so by reflecting on the first 10 years of the architectural journal P E A R 2009 to 2019 The volume argues that the initial aims of the journal to explore and celebrate the myriad forms through which architecture can exist are now more relevant than ever to contemporary architectural discourse and practice Included in the volume are architectural practitioners design researchers artists architectural theorists historians journalists curators and a paleobiologist all of whom contributed to the first seven issues of the journal Here they provide a unique presentation of architectural discourse and practice that seeks to test new ground while forming distinct relationships to recent and more longstanding historical legacies Praise for Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice The story told by the authors of this work can thus be considered as the central tool of an architectural transgression Critique d art      Works Edmund Burke,1872      The Works of the Right Honorable

 Hockenhull, 2009-03-26 Neo Romantic Landscapes offers a reappraisal of the 1940s films of Powell and Pressburger focusing on their use of landscape Questioning the established notion that the two film makers owing to their non British personal roots are located as un British and other Stella Hockenhull draws a correlation between the two media of film and painting to suggest otherwise Emphasising the spiritual aspects of landscape and nature at a time when the experience and imagery of the war years generated a particular kind of affect arising from the aftermath of destruction she locates Powell and Pressburger s wartime films in their historical and cultural context notably Neo Romanticism By offering a close analysis of films such as A Canterbury Tale I Know Where I m Going Black Narcissus and Gone to Earth she finds similar aesthetic qualities in a number of British landscape paintings executed contemporaneously Drawing on press reviews for contemporary spectator response Neo Romantic Landscapes offers a redirection of Film Studies foregrounding the aesthetic pleasures of cinema in excess of narrative plausibility thus resituating Powell and Pressburger in the British cultural traditions of the visual arts

The Tragic and the Ecstatic Chafe, 2008-08-12 During the years preceding the composition of Tristan and Isolde Wagner's aesthetics underwent a momentous turnaround principally as a result of his discovery of Schopenhauer Many of Schopenhauer's ideas especially those regarding music's metaphysical significance resonated with patterns of thought that had long been central to Wagner's aesthetics and Wagner described the entry of Schopenhauer into his life as a gift from heaven Chafe argues that Wagner's Tristan and Isolde is a musical and dramatic exposition of metaphysical ideas inspired by Schopenhauer The first part of the book covers the philosophical and literary underpinnings of the story exploring Schopenhauer's metaphysics and Gottfried von Strassburg's Tristan poem Chafe then turns to the events in the opera providing tonal and harmonic analyses that reinforce his interpretation of the drama Chafe acts as an expert guide interpreting and illustrating most important moments for his reader Ultimately Chafe creates a critical account of Tristan in which the drama is shown to develop through the music
