The Submission Amy Waldman, 2011-08-16 Masterful A scathing dazzlingly crafted indictment of the messes people make when they mistake ideology for morality and bigotry for patriotism Leah Greenblatt Entertainment Weekly A jury gathers in Manhattan to select the 9 11 memorial for the victims of the devastating terrorist attack But when the jurors open the envelope containing the anonymous winner s name and discover he is an American Muslim all are instantly cast into roiling debate about the claims of grief the ambiguities of art and the meaning of Islam The memorial s designer is an enigmatic architect named Mohammad Khan His fiercest defender on the jury is its sole widow the self possessed and mediagenic Claire Burwell But when the news of his selection leaks to the press she finds herself under pressure from outraged family members as she confronts hungry journalists wary activists opportunistic politicians fellow jurors and Khan himself as unknowable as he is gifted All will bring the emotional weight of their own histories to bear on the urgent question of how to remember and understand a national tragedy A striking portrait of a fractured city striving to make itself whole in the wake of a national tragedy The Submission is a piercing and resonant novel by an important new writer A story that has more verisimilitude more political resonance and way more heart than Mr Wolfe s The Bonfire of the Vanities Michiko Kakutani The New York Times Book Review A fascinating examination of a grieving America s relationship with itself Chris Cleave The Washington Post A remarkably assured portrait of how a populace grows maddened and confused when ideology trumps empathy Kirkus Reviews starred review Frighteningly plausible Publishers Weekly starred review

Reflecting 9/11 Heather Pope, Victoria Bryan, 2016-06-22 In over fifteen years, the cultural and artistic response to 9/11 has been wide-ranging in form and function. As the turbulent post-9/11 years have unfolded, years that have been shaped and characterized by the War on Terror, the Patriot Act, the Wars in Afghanistan and Iraq, 7/7, Abu Ghraib, and Guantanamo Bay, these texts have been commemorative and heroic, have attempted to work through collective and individual traumas, and have struggled with trying to represent the terrorist "other." Many of these earlier domestic heroic and traumatic works have so often been read as limitations in narrative. This collection, however, challenges the language of limitation and provides re-readings of earlier work but also traces the emergence of a new paradigm for discussing the artistic responses to 9/11: one that frames these narratives as dialogic, self-conscious, and self-reflexive interventions in the responses to the attacks, the initial representations of the attacks, and the ever-shifting social and geopolitical continuities of the 9/11 decade. These texts widen the conversation about the lasting impacts of 9/11 and incorporate strands of discussion on American exceptionalism and imperialism, torture, and otherness, whilst still remaining invested in the personal and collective traumas of the attacks. The authors included here ask crucial questions about the way 9/11 is being historicized: will it, for example, be read as a moment of rupture or epoch? Will it inevitably be attached to the War on Terror, or the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan? As they trace the emergent patterns of reflexivity, politicization, and dissent, the contributions here are also implicitly invested in asking how far they extend.

Proficiency testing in Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics: current status and future perspectives Kelley M. K. Hitchman, Martin Petrek, Milena Vraná, Jose Palacio-Gruber, 2025-06-12 Proficiency testing (PT) has been part of Immunogenetics since its early days. Starting from spontaneous interlaboratory comparisons, it gradually moved to more elaborate quality control exercises. Immunogenetics PT finally evolved into a formalized system comprising a range of testing schemes, the rules of which have been fine-tuned and approved with the assistance of professional societies Current external PT EPT schemes offer to survey laboratory performance in all spectra of Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics H however a personal reflection of experience from participation in or organizing a PT scheme would be also interesting to readers and welcomed by The Editors
