Subtle Blebings In The Saintly Lives:

The Subtle Blessings in the Saintly Lives of Abū Al-‘Abbās Al-Mursī and His Master Abū Al-Ḥasan Al-Shādhilī, the Founders of the Shādhilī Order Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad Ibn ‘Aṭā’ Allāh, 2005 This deeply personal reminiscence of one man's growth in Islamic mysticism is a tribute to the two great shaykhs who molded his spiritual life and vision Filled with anecdotes illustrating the shaykhs spiritual gifts and insights the text not only conveys the beauty and inspiration of these men's lives and their utter devotion to God but also helps readers to approach a life of devotion and inimitable blessings Sufi interpretations of Qur'an passages and traditional Sufi spiritual litanies are included An appendix features an account of female gnostic Hajja Zakia's life and devotion to Shaykh Abul Hasan and is augmented by a photographic essay Sufism for Non-Sufis? Sherman A. Jackson, 2012-05-01 Sherman Jackson offers a translation and analysis of Ibn Ata Allah al Sakandari's Taj al Arus a work on spiritual education steeped in the classical Sufi tradition yet directed to those who have no affiliation with Sufism in any institutionalized form Written in classical aphoristic style the text is a treasure trove of spiritual wisdom and self refinement free of all of the usual barriers between Sufism and the common believer Routledge

Handbook on Sufism Lloyd Ridgeon, 2020-08-09 This is a chronological history of the Sufi tradition divided in to three sections early middle and modern periods The book comprises 35 independent chapters with easily identifiable themes and or geographical threads all written by recognised experts in the field The volume outlines the origins and early developments of Sufism by assessing the formative thinkers and practitioners and investigating specific pietistic themes The middle period contains an examination of the emergence of the Sufi Orders and illustrates the diversity of the tradition This middle period also analyses the fate of Sufism during the time of the Gunpowder Empires Finally the end period includes representative surveys of Sufism in several countries both in the West and in traditional Islamic regions This comprehensive and up to date collection of studies provides a guide to the Sufi tradition The Handbook is a valuable resource for students and researchers with an interest in religion Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies Crossing Confessional Boundaries John Renard, 2020-01-28 Arguably the single most important element in Abrahamic cross confessional relations has been an ongoing mutual interest in perennial spiritual and ethical exemplars of one another's communities Ranging from Late Antiquity through the Middle Ages Crossing Confessional Boundaries explores the complex roles played by saints sages and Friends of God in the communal and intercommunal lives of Christians Muslims and Jews across the Mediterranean world from Spain and North Africa to the Middle East to the Balkans By examining these stories in their broad institutional social and cultural contexts Crossing Confessional Boundaries reveals unique theological insights into the interlocking histories of the Abrahamic faiths Popularisation of Sufism in Ayyubid and Mamluk Egypt, 1173-1325 Nathan Hofer, 2015-07-07 This book is the first systematic investigation of how and why Sufism became extraordinarily popular across Egypt in the 12th 14th centuries Everything is on the Move Stephan Conermann, 2014 In this volume we try to understand the Mamluk

Empire not as a confined space but as a region where several nodes of different networks existed side by side and at the same time. In our opinion, these networks constitute to a great extent the core of the so-called Mamluk society; they form the basis of the social order. Following in part concepts refined in the New Area Studies, recent reflections about the phenomenon of the Empire State trajectories in today's Global History and the spatial turn in modern historiography, we intend to identify a number of physical and cognitive networks with one or more nodes in Mamluk-controlled territories. In addition to this, one of the most important analytical questions would be to define the role of these networks in Mamluk society.

The Maghrib in the Mashriq Maribel Fierro, Mayte Penelas, 2021-01-18. This is a pioneering book about the impact that knowledge produced in the Maghrib (Islamic North Africa and al-Andalus/Muslim Iberia) had on the rest of the Islamic world. It presents results achieved in the Research Project 'Local contexts and global dynamics: al-Andalus and the Maghrib in the Islamic East' (AMOI), funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science, Innovation and Universities (FFI2016-78878-R, AEI/FEDER/UE) and directed by Maribel Fierro and Mayte Penelas. The book contains 18 contributions written by senior and junior scholars from different institutions all over the world. It is divided into five sections dealing with how knowledge produced in the Maghrib was integrated in the Mashriq, starting with the emergence and construction of the concept 'Maghrib' (sections 1 and 2), how travel allowed the reception in the Maghrib of knowledge produced in the Mashriq but also the transmission of locally produced knowledge outside the Maghrib and the different ways in which such transmission took place (sections 3 and 4), and how the Maghribis who stayed or settled in the Mashriq manifested their identity (section 5). The book will be of interest not only for those whose research concentrates on the Maghrib but more generally for those who want to understand the complex and shifting dynamics between centres and peripheries as regards intellectual production and circulation.

Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly Pemberton, 2013-02-19. Insightful field research into the complexity of women's roles in a subset of Islamic culture. Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women's participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood. Kelly Pemberton grounds her firsthand research into India's Sufi shrines and saints by setting her observations against the historical backdrop of colonial-era discourses by British civil servants, Orientalist scholars, and Muslim reformists, and the assumptive portrayals of women's activities in the milieu of Sufi orders and shrines inherent in these accounts. These early narratives, Pemberton holds, are driven by social, economic, intellectual, and political undercurrents of self-interest that shaped Western understanding of Indian Muslims and, in particular, of women's participation in the institutions of Sufism. Pemberton's research offers a corrective by assessing the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and by examining the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that. She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right. Specifically, Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women's involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts, circumstances, and genres of performance. She also highlights the private petitioning of saints, the Prophet, and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif. These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines. Throughout this groundbreaking study, Pemberton sets observed practices of lived religious experiences against the boundaries established by prescriptive behavioral models of Islam to illustrate how the varied reasons given for why women cannot become spiritual masters conflict with the need in Sufi circles for them to do exactly that. Thus, this work also invites further inquiry into the ambiguities to be found in Islam's foundational framework for belief and practice. Sūfi

Aphorisms Ibn 'Ata'illah, 2024-01-15 Ibn 'Ata Illah-Kwaja Abdullah Ansari Victor Danner, Wheeler M. Thackston, 1978 Two early Sufi classics are contained here in one volume. They embody the essence of spiritual life in the Islamic tradition. Ibn Ata Illah c. 1250-1309 was a Sufi saint and sage who lived in Egypt. Kwaja Abdullah Ansari 1006-1089 was one of the major early writers of Persian mystical literature. A Treasury of Sufi Wisdom Peter Samsel, 2015-12-01 At the very heart of Islam lies the spiritual way of Sufism. Far removed from the negative portrayal of Islam in the headlines, Sufism is rooted in the harmonious qualities of peace, love, beauty, and wisdom. Its primary focus is to return human beings to unity with God. This select treasury of Sufi wisdom includes nearly 400 short sayings from as many as 100 of the greatest Sufi saints and sages in history, covering a vast span of 1,400 years. It includes notable sayings from well-known figures such as Rabi'ah al-Hallaj, Junayd al-Ghazali, Ibn al-Farid, Ibn Arabi, Rumi, and Ahmad al-Alawi. Also featured are over 150 verses from the Koran and the Hadith, Prophetic sayings which form the foundational sources of this esoteric form of Islam. Whether expressing itself in pithy, paradoxical aphorisms, extended intellectual instruction, or rapturous mystical poetry, this compendium of Sufi wisdom will illuminate the spiritual traveler's way of return to God. Kitāb Al-Hikam Victor Danner, 1984 Ibn 'Ata' Allah, Muslim Sufi Saint and Gift of Heaven Abu Bakr Sirajuddin Cook, 2017-06-23 The Shadhiliyya Sufi Order gave the Muslim world and those that are interested in Sufism the inside workings of the great masters Abu l-Hassan al-Shadhili and Abu l-Abbas al-Mursi. Ibn Ata Allah, also a master of the Shadhiliyya Order, is the author of many volumes. His works occupy a unique position within the history of Sufism and have been read consistently since their composition. Yet despite their enduring popularity to date, there has been no systematic and thorough analysis of his worldview. This book is the first study to highlight the constant interconnections between Ibn Ata Allah's works. It uses a scaffold approach to develop an understanding of Ibn Ata Allah's Sufism and his commitment to Islam, building from his metaphysics of Oneness (tawhid) and covering domains such as ontology, epistemology, eschatology, and ethics. While the bulk of this work covers the worldview of Ibn Ata Allah, it begins more generally with some comments on the need for reappraising approaches to Sufism and its relation to Islam Accessible for anyone interested in Sufism this work will appeal to scholars of religion in general and Islam in particular The Naqshbandi Sufi Tradition Guidebook of Daily Practices and Devotions Muhammad Hisham Kabbani, Shaykh Muhammad Hisham Kabbani, 2004 One of the distinguished schools of Islamic spiritual discipline the Naqshbandi Sufi Order has a long and illustrious history from the first days of Islam Led by the shaykhs of the Golden Chain inheritors of spiritual knowledge from Prophet Muhammad the Naqshbandi Order has always played a central pivotal role in the life of people in the Muslim world and survived the turmoil and tribulations of the past century to remain one of the few authentic mystical traditions maintaining a living link with its ancient past The extraordinary vision of the Naqshbandi Saints was manifest in their establishment of fixed devotions and daily practices firmly rooted in the Qur'an and Sunnah of the Prophet These practices have enabled devout seekers to awaken certainty of belief and to attain stations of nearness to the Divine Presence The renewed prominence of this order at the turn of the 21st century due to the indefatigable striving of Mawlana Shaykh Muhammad Nazim al Haqqani signals an impending change to our society in which aspirants to Divine Service will be granted to transcend the bounds of the physical senses in order to fulfill the unexplored potential in each human heart The Naqshbandi Devotions are a source of light and energy an oasis in a worldly desert Through the manifestations of Divine Blessings bestowed on the practitioners of these magnificent rites they will be granted the power of magnanimous healing by which they seek to cure the hearts of mankind darkened by the gloom of spiritual poverty and materialism We pray that each person who picks up this book of devotions with sincere intention to observe any of its efficacious practices will receive a portion of the blessings and manifestations bestowed on the greatest saints of earlier times Rebel Between Spirit and Law Scott Alan Kugle, 2006 This book examines the authority of saints in Islam and their ability to build communities among Muslims in North Africa It analyzes the power generated in religious communities through their allegiance to saints a power usually identified with the term Sufism In the late 15th and 16th centuries a community of Sufis in Fes Fez Morocco and other urban centers in North Africa advocated this paradigm of sainthood during a time of intense political and religious crisis Juridical sainthood a concept that fuses Islamic legal rectitude and devotional piety was the center of their reformist agenda The juridical saint was to be absorbed in legal training and religious values in ways that questioned political loyalty and dynastic legitimacy Scott A Kugle explores this tradition by focusing on the life and writings of Shaykh Ahmad Zarruq Following his exile from Fes Zarruq traveled widely over North Africa spreading his teachings and writings and attracting followers from Morocco to Mecca The life and teachings of Zarruq remain useful for Muslims They are a piece of the past that present day Muslims are rediscovering and redeploying to reconcile Islam's heritage with its very troubled post colonial present The Principles of Sufism 'Ā'ishah al-Bā'ūniyyah, 2016-03-15 A'ishah al Ba uniyyah of Damascus was one of the great women scholars in Islamic history Born into a prominent family of pious scholars and Sufi devotees A'ishah received a

Sufism in Late Mamlūk Cairo Sheridan Polinsky, 2025-08-04 This book examines the life and thought of Ibn Mughayzil fl 895 1490 a Shadhili Sufi of late Mamlūk Cairo It offers a portrait of the Sufi as an aspiring Shadhili master and talented author whose two known writings reflect major themes of Mamlūk era Sufism such as the desire to unite the exoteric sciences ilm al-hir and the esoteric science ilm al-batin or Sufism At the same time his works are distinguished by a number of features Most notable is his treatment of the waking vision of Prophet Muhammad after death an experience that many Sufis claimed to have undergone The study suggests that Ibn Mughayzil was the first author to produce a systematic and comprehensive examination of the topic and argues that he makes an important contribution by defending its authenticity and orthodoxy Furthermore his engagement with other key issues of his time such as God's oneness and religious diversity reveal that while often driven by the aim of defending Sufis from accusations of error he was a creative synthesizer drawing from a wide range of Sufi and other sources to develop and demonstrate his positions Study of Ibn Mughayzil sheds light on the nature and quality of Maml k Sufi literature as well as the reception of earlier ideas such as those of Ibn Arab d 638 1240 and Ibn al F ri d 632 1235
