01

Expressing Appreciation

Tell your child you're thankful they're part of your life. Share the attributes, actions, or experiences that you appreciate about them.

02

Time Together

Focus on quality over quantity, and be available when your child needs you — on their time, not yours.

03

Encouragement of Individuals

Support, recognize, and respect your child (e.g., "You can do it!" and "You've got this, and I'm right here with you.").

04

Communication

Be clear and open and communicate frequently. Focus on making a real, true emotional connection.

05

Ability to Adapt

Prepare your child to handle stressors and challenges (e.g., if an activity is canceled, have them identify a creative replacement activity).

06

Religious/Spiritual Orientation

Help your child have a connection to the broader world that's greater than themselves (e.g., practicing a religion or connecting with nature).

07

Social Connectedness

Tap into resources and support outside of your family, from friends to neighbors to community organizations.

08

Commitment to Family

Have a family identity and sense of unity (e.g., build commitment through shared responsibilities that make your child feel like they're part of something).

09

Clear Roles

Ensure there's a clear but flexible family structure in place where family members are aware of their responsibilities in — and to — the family.
