Writing Development in Children with Hearing Loss, Dyslexia, or Oral Language Problems Barbara Arfe PhD, Julie Dockrell EdD, Virginia Berninger PhD, 2014-07-10 Writing is challenging for the majority of learners For students with language problems difficulties with written expression are considered one of the most common learning challenges There is much to learn about the ways in which oral language skills impact on the acquisition of written language in children Writing Development in Children with Hearing Loss Dyslexia or Oral Language Problems focuses on the nature of the writing problems experienced by children with oral language problems Three clinical groups are considered children with hearing loss oral language difficulties and dyslexia Each contribution comes from an expert or team of experts in these three areas and in the field of language and writing The volume provides current understandings to help guide and support practitioners and researchers alike It provides timely information across languages and countries enhancing our understanding of the links between oral language and written language across languages      Supporting Readers in Secondary Schools Wendy Jolliffe, David Waugh, Jayne Stead, Sue Beverton, 2014-05-12 Are you a secondary school teacher who needs to know about phonics and teaching reading Then this book is for you There are lots of books on teaching phonics but most are written to support primary teachers This book is written specifically for secondary teachers working with children who need support with reading The text uses case studies from secondary schools to highlight effective ways to support children with reading and includes useful tips on teaching strategies and ideas for resources The text covers the subject knowledge you need for the teaching of reading in the broadest sense including phonics Intended to support you as a secondary teacher it gives guidance on planning methods of assessment and explores a range of intervention programmes and resources This text is your comprehensive support resource in teaching reading      Effective Practice for Adolescents with Reading and Literacy Challenges Lou Denti, Gilbert Guerin, 2008-01-04 This collection provides secondary teachers with practical approaches to improving literacy and offers accounts of successful evidence based programs and practices that can be tailored to the needs of teachers working with struggling readers      Making Progress in Writing Eve Bearne, 2003-08-29 Children's achievements in writing lag behind their achievements in reading speaking and listening National tests are beginning to expose this gap and inevitably it is raising concerns The issue is not without controversy but regardless of the politics of the situation national progress in children's writing is both needed and possible This new book from Eve Bearne makes a valuable contribution towards helping teachers close this gap Uniquely it follows the structure of the National Literacy Strategy whilst examining key areas such as bridging KS2 and KS3 writing and writing skills beyond the Literacy Hour Such a structure makes the book incredibly practical and easy to use providing essential information for both practitioners and academics      Problems and Interventions in Literacy Development P. Reitsma, L.

Verhoeven, 2013-03-09 From August 19-23, 1996, an international expert meeting on problems and interventions in literacy development took place in Amsterdam. The meeting was organized by Pieter Reitsma, Paedologisch Instituut Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, and Ludo Verhoeven, University of Nijmegen, and funded by the Dutch National Science Foundation. Various experts in the field of literacy problems from 12 countries attended the meeting while presenting a paper based on current perspectives and recent research. A selection of the papers being presented is now integrated into a single academic reference after being edited and updated. The editors wish to thank all contributors to this volume for redrafting their original papers. The present volume aims to integrate recent research in the field of literacy problems and interventions into a single academic reference. The volume will capture the state of the art in the rapidly expanding field of literacy problems and interventions. The target group of readers of this volume includes researchers and graduate students in language and literacy development. Moreover, the book is of interest for practitioners working in the field of literacy problems. Pieter Reitsma and Ludo Verhoeven
