this book is a foundation on which future Sudans shall live on It is full of useful information that discusses and provides feasible solutions to the fundamental problem of the Sudan that ruptured the country from the Berlin Conference to the post independence era For centuries Sudanese and the international community have been fed with idealistic information as if Sudan started with the coming of the Arabs in the fourteenth century This persisted due to the lack of resources and formal education among African natives Khartoums unreasonable diversion of genuine history is one among the many causes of mistrust and division in Sudan The indigenous Africans found themselves peripheral to Khartoum where economic and political power is concentrated Integration and fragmentation of Sudan An African Renaissance is a great source of knowledge for the public and students of Sudanese politics With the referendum and popular consultation approaching this book is a head start for the marginalized Black Africans to make an informed decision between oppression and liberty Examples and testimonies provided in the text are reasons for the affected regions to permanently determine their future For freedom diehards this book lays the foundation on which to celebrate the birth of Africas newest sovereign nation along the Nile River

Gender, Race, and Sudan's Exile Politics Nada Mustafa Ali, 2015-07-29 Gender Race and Sudan s Exile Politics examines the gendered and racialized discourses and practices of the Sudanese opposition in exile through the opposition movements of the 1990s and early 2000s and discusses the history through which these discourses evolved The military coup that brought the National Islamic Front NIF now National Congress Party NCP to power in 1989 not only forced most political parties trade unions and activists in Sudan into either exile politics or underground activism it also urged many of Sudan s political forces and activists to rethink the meaning of belonging and of the Old Sudan In the mid 1990s this involved a rethinking of the relationship between religion and politics acknowledging Sudan s diversity acknowledging the need to restructure Sudan s economy and politics to ensure equal access and participation for the historically marginalized and committing to self determination for the people of South Sudan The concept of the New Sudan broadly captured this rethinking This book interrogates the relationship between women s organizations and activism in exile on one hand and nationalist transformative and other political movements and processes on the other. It further discusses transnational coalition building across difference including racial difference between women's organization seeking to transform gender relations in Sudan and South Sudan. Waging Peace in Sudan Hilde F. Johnson, 2011. Sudan could soon witness one of the first partitions of an African state since the colonial era. The 2005 Comprehensive Peace Agreement guarantees a referendum on self-determination for Southern Sudan which is scheduled for January 2011 that ended a 20-year-old civil war. This book shows how that war was finally brought to an end. Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Sarah J. Williams, 2025-02-11. Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Born to Stand Out explores the building of political voice of young South Sudanese Australians to resist racialising discourses particularly through hip hop. Presented as an ethnography, Sarah J. Williams draws on empirical evidence from a youth participatory action research project facilitated by a small nonprofit organisation Footprints. Each chapter foregrounds counter narratives young South Sudanese Australian hip hop artists portray in response to over a decade of media and moral panics targeting their communities, limiting their sense of freedom and resulting in a rise in youth suicide. The core message throughout suggests participants reject any goal of or focus on fitting in. Instead, based on their conviction that they are born to stand out, these artists carve out space in the face of racialising discourses perpetuated primarily by Australian Whiteness. Through the lenses of new social movements and theories and perspectives informed by critical race theory and critical Hip Hop pedagogy, this book expands race and ethnicity as a central theme by exploring how the political voice of this group of young South Sudanese Australians manifests in important new ways that conventional theories of activism and resistance may not capture. Participants embark on consciousness-raising practices to reframe and assert their multiple identities whilst establishing themselves as social agents in the world. To Be or Not To Be: Sudan at Crossroads Jalal Hashim, 2019-02-19. To be or not to be is an analysis of linguistic, cultural, political, economic and social factors which explain the intricate root causes of conflicts which have ravished Sudan. It stands in stark contrast to the dominant simplification and distortions which have come to typify presentations of the region. Central to the book is an unapologetic explanation of Arabization which often is portrayed as individual choices of religious loyalty but in fact masks an intentional power system which viciously corrupts African identities. By highlighting the detrimental complexities of manipulation, geopolitics, identity confusion and cultural imperialism, Hashim has not only written an authoritative book about Sudan but also presented a comprehensive case study that all of Africa must learn from. Rarely are we presented with such a vigorous inside view to an area of Africa which once was held in the highest civilizational esteem but has been reduced to an ideological field of Arab-led terror, massacres and disintegration. Sudan Mineral & Mining Sector Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Regulations IBP USA, 2013-08.
