Suddenly Alone A Womans Guide To Widowhood:

Suddenly Alone Philomene Gates,1997 Suddenly Alone Philomene Gates,1991-03 Strategies for coping with the problems and pain of widowhood Suddenly Alone Philomene Gates,1999-02 Life to Death: Harmonizing the Transition Richard W. Boerstler,Hulen S. Kornfeld,1995-10 Written for the terminally ill their families and others involved in the care of the dying Life to Death introduces the technique of co meditation a method to help a patient maintain a clear mind and peaceful heart during the process of dying A script for co meditation sessions with relaxation and visualization techniques is included When Your Lover Dies Robert Brigham,2008-05 This book explores key questions about women s rights and gender equality in the wake of political turmoil demographic dislocation institutionalized violence and deep economic disparities These questions focus on the balancing and enforcement of rights viewed as a secular construct within societies with deeply entrenched cultural and religious mores and also examine the competing and sometimes contradictory claims of individual rights on the one hand and community concerns or imperatives on the other How does a society commence the project of gender equality after a brutal history of conflict dislocation dispossession exclusion distinction and discrimination How are the foundations laid and legal strategies adopted and cultivated How does a society balance what is perceived as the secular nature of rights enforcement within a context of deeply entrenched religious mores or customary norms And ultimately why does there persist such subordination disadvantage and discrimination despite the existence of constitutional and legal protections for women Utilizing the South African process of legal transformation as a paradigm author Penelope Andrews applies this model to Afghanistan another contemporary context of transformation These two societies serve as counterpoints through which she engages in a nuanced and novel way with the many broader issues that flow from the attempts in newly democratic societies to give effect to the promise of gender equality Who? What? Where? National Institute on Aging,1992 Who? What? Where? DIANE Publishing Company,1993-07 A compilation of resources to help women of all ages plan for and cope with aging Covers age changes and health promotion menopause nutrition and physical fitness sexuality in later life skin use of medicines common disorders of later life Alzheimer1s disease cancer depression heart disease osteoarthritis osteoporosis urinary incontinence taking charge caregiving finances housing options widowhood research and additional resources organizations readings Widow To Widow Genevieve Davis Ginsburg,2024-09-24 From a widow and therapist a guide to life after losing a husband with reflections on grief and practical advice A wise practical and eminently useful guide for a woman struggling to rebuild her life after the death of her husband Highly recommended Nathan Branden PhD author of Honoring the Self The death of a husband is devastating and such a loss prompts a wide range of questions about everything from the big issues to the small details Will my emotional wounds ever heal Will I feel like myself again How do I begin to tackle the finances Will my friends treat me differently Do I need to move out of the house Author therapist and fellow widow Genevieve Davis Ginsburg offers you as well as your family and friends sage advice for coping with the loss of a husband With testimonials from other widows Ginsburg walks you through the many challenges both expected and unexpected from learning to travel and eat alone to surviving holidays and anniversaries from starting a community support group to dating again An essential resource for a trying period of life Widow to Widow equips you with the gentle encouragement and practical strategies you need to start along the path to building a new life Ms Ginsburg has written the most useful practical and compassionate guide to surviving widowhood This is must reading not only for widows but also for their family and friends Harold Bloomfield MD author of How to Survive the Loss of a Love

Bereavement and Support Marylou Hughes,2013-11-12 In the early 1970s bereavement support groups were almost unknown However the obvious benefits of the group process for recovery the mutual support and understanding that helps mourners to a better outlook has created a demand for people who can organise and facilitate these groups Addressing the basis and need for support groups for the bereaved this book presents a theoretical overview examines benefits and variety of support groups structured and unstructural special populations and specifics for initiating organising and running them such as publicity It differs from other treatments in that theory and practice are moulded into a how to approach with all procedures presented equally for the widest range of choices Also included is a comprehensive book bibliography for adults children children s helpers and parents This text is intended to be of use as a resource for professionals in the field of thanatology including psychologists psychiatrists gerontologists therapists group counsellors hospice workers educators funeral home directors home health employees hospital staff and volunteer organisations that work with survivors Family Estrangements Barbara LeBey,2003-01-01 Mending the Ties That Bind Divorce disputes over inheritances family business or elder care Rifts over marriage partners career choices or sexual orientation these are just some of the many ways that even close families can break apart Yet this all too common and often devastating family problem and its emotional fallout has gone virtually unaddressed until now In this remarkable book Barbara LeBey an Atlanta attorney and former judge who herself suffered and resolved a family estrangement shares the stories of people from every walk of life and of every age and race to show how such rifts often begin and how they can usually be resolved Working closely with two family therapists LeBey offers a set of tested guidelines to help you approach alienated or angry family members deal with your own issues and mend your broken family relationships even if you think it may already be too late Compassionate practical and full of rich insight this book is a beacon of hope and healing to which families everywhere will turn again and again Handbook of Dementia Care Jean M. Stehman,1996 Even in the earliest stages of progressive dementia patients have difficulty evaluating their own needs and engaging in appropriate activities A therapeutic program of care including constructive activities and behavior management is necessary for maximizing patients functioning and quality of life The Handbook of Dementia Care and its companion Training Manual and Video for Dementia Care Specialists offer a complete training system for teachers and students providing dementia care in a variety of settings Developed at the well known George G Glenner

Alzheimer's Family Centers the program's instructor's manual and student handbook are organized into six teaching modules: basic information on dementia, positive interaction techniques, supportive physical environment, therapeutic activities, group activities, and family support. Each module is accompanied by a videotaped lecture and demonstration presentation to further illustrate the topic being discussed. This exciting project is a comprehensive instructional tool for dementia care professionals working in adult day centers, long-term care, and residential settings, hospitals, nursing homes, and home health care agencies.

A Woman's Guide to Living Alone Pamela Stone, 2001-04-01. A Woman's Guide to Living Alone offers practical advice and personal stories to help women successfully ease into a new and full lifestyle after the termination of a marriage, the end of a relationship, or the loss of a loved one.

Crisis Intervention Alan A. Cavaola, Joseph E. Colford, 2017-10-24. Crisis Intervention takes into account various environments and populations across the lifespan to provide students with practical guidelines for managing crises. Drawing on over 25 years of relevant experience, authors Alan A. Cavaola and Joseph E. Colford cover several different types of crises frequently encountered by professionals in medical school work and community settings. Models for effectively managing these crises are presented along with the authors' own step-by-step approach: the Listen, Assess, Plan, Commit (LAPC) model, giving students the freedom to select a model that best fits their personal style or a given crisis. Future mental health professionals will gain the knowledge, skills, and confidence to help their clients manage the crises they will encounter in their day-to-day lives.
